EXEMPTION

Application No. A43 of 2004

The Victorian Civil & Administrative Tribunal has considered an application for exemption pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by Olive's Place Inc. (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ female staff in its women's refuge and support services.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ female staff in its refuge and other support services.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted that the applicant provides crisis accommodation and support services for women and children victims of domestic violence, and that it is appropriate in the circumstances that the applicant be able to staff its facilities and services with females only.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ female staff.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 26 February 2007.

The Instruments (Enduring Powers of Attorney) Act 2003 — Approved Forms

The Secretary of the Department of Justice, Penny Armytage, has approved forms for use under new Part XIA of the Instruments Act 1958, as required under section 125ZL(1) of the Instruments (Enduring Powers of Attorney) Act 2003.

The approved forms for enduring powers of attorney have now been submitted by the Secretary of the Department of Justice for publication in the Gazette as required under section 125ZL(2) of the Instruments (Enduring Powers of Attorney) Act 2003.

These forms, as published below, are to be used from 1 April 2004, when the Instruments (Enduring Powers of Attorney) Act 2003 comes into operation, by persons wishing to draw up an enduring power of attorney for financial and legal matters only. An enduring power of attorney (financial) is a legal document that allows a person, the donor, to appoint an attorney to make financial and legal decisions on their behalf. An enduring power means that the attorney is able to continue to act for the donor when the donor has lost legal capacity to make decisions for himself or herself. (This compares with a general power of attorney where the power comes to an immediate end when the donor of the power loses legal capacity).
