EXEMPTION

Application No. A95/2004

The Victorian Civil & Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by the University of Melbourne (the applicant), for exemptions from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a person of indigenous Australian background to the position of Director, Centre for Indigenous Education (CIE) located with the Academic Services Division.

Upon reading the material in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a person of indigenous Australian background to the position of Director, Centre for Indigenous Education.

The Tribunal noted that the grant of the exemption is consistent with the applicant's commitment to affirmative action to increase the number of staff of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander descent at the university until indigenous appointments comprise at least 1% of total staff, as outlined in the Indigenous Employment Strategy introduced by the applicant in 2003. Consistent with that commitment, it is noted that the number of indigenous staff employed at the University of Melbourne has risen from 16 in 2003 to 27 in 2003. The Tribunal also noted the importance of the position of Director, Centre for Indigenous Education, in developing and managing the recruitment and support services for Indigenous students at the university. The Tribunal is satisfied on the material that the request for an exemption under the Act is in the public interest and accords with the broad objectives of the Act which are to create equality of opportunity for disadvantaged groups in the fields of education and employment.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and recruit a person of indigenous Australian background to the position of Director, Centre for Indigenous Education.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 31 March 2007.
