Subordinate Legislation Act 1994NOTICE OF PREPARATION OF REGULATORY IMPACT STATEMENT

Tertiary Education (Fees) Regulations 2004

Notice is given that in accordance with section 11 of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1994, a Regulatory Impact Statement (RIS) has been prepared in relation to the proposed Tertiary Education (Fees) Regulations 2004.

The reason for the proposed regulations is to replace the Tertiary Education (Fees) Regulations 1993. These regulations are due to sunset on 28 June 2004, however the reasons for introducing the new regulations now are outlined in the RIS.

The RIS explains the regulatory environment of the higher education sector, the proposed new fee structure, the basis upon which the fee levels are set, whether other practicable means are available to partially recover costs associated with the assessment of applications, an assessment of the costs and benefits of the regulations and a comparison with fees in other Australian states.

The objectives of the proposed regulations are to prescribe fees for the purposes of the Tertiary Education Act 1993 as follows —

Endorsement of courses of study for overseas students

The objective of this regulation is to set a fee for the assessment of an application from a self-accrediting higher education provider and from a non self-accrediting higher education provider for the endorsement of a course of study for the enrolment of students from overseas.

Accreditation of higher education courses of study

The objective of this regulation is to set a fee for the assessment of an application from a non self-accrediting provider for the accreditation of a course of study as a higher education course.

Authorisation to conduct higher education courses of study

The objective of this regulation is to set a fee for the assessment of an application from a non self-accrediting provider for authorisation to conduct an accredited higher education course of study.

Approval to operate as a university

The objective of this regulation is to set a fee for the assessment of an application from an institution for approval to operate as a university.

The RIS discusses possible alternatives to making the regulations and concludes that there are no other practicable alternatives. The RIS concludes that there is only a small impact on applicants and an even smaller impact on students of providers. The RIS also concludes that the regulations do not restrict competition.

Copies of the RIS and the proposed Regulations may be obtained from the Higher Education and Regulations Division, Department of Education and Training, 2 Treasury Place, East Melbourne 3002 between 8:30 am and 4:30 pm (telephone 03 9637 2808 or fax 03 9637 2720) or on the internet at <http://www.sofweb.vic.gov.au/highered> > Reports and Papers.

Public comments are invited on the RIS and the proposed Regulations. All comments must be in writing and be sent to the Manager, Higher Education Regulation at the above location or to PO Box 266D, Melbourne, Vic. 3001 by no later than Friday 28 May 2004.
