EXEMPTION

Application No. A103/2004

The Victorian Civil & Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by Hawthorn Secondary College (the applicant).

The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and provide bursaries to girls only to attract girls to enrol at Hawthorn Secondary College.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 37 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and provide bursaries to girls only to enrol in years 7 and 8 at Hawthorn Secondary College.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted that Hawthorn Secondary College is a co-educational school, but that currently 78% of students enrolled there at Years 7 and 8 are boys, while 65% of students in Years 9–12 are boys, and that it is appropriate for the gender imbalance to be redressed.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 37 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and provide bursaries to girls only for the purpose of redressing the gender imbalance at Hawthorn Secondary College.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 6 May 2007.

Dated 28 April 2004.

Deputy President

EXEMPTION

Application No. A105 of 2004

The Victorian Civil & Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by TC Beauty. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to provide its services to women clients only in its beauty salon.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Section 42 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to provide its services to women only at its beauty salon.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted that TC Beauty is a beauty salon located within the premises of Fernwood Women's Gym, and that it therefore wishes to confine the provision of its services to women only so as to allow them to be comfortable while undressed for beauty treatments including spray on tan and waxing of various parts of the body. The Tribunal also noted that there are 3 other beauty salons within a 6-kilometre radius of the applicant's salon which provide services to both men and women.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to provide its services to women only in its beauty salon.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 6 May 2007.

Dated 28 April 2004.

Mrs S. DAVIS
Deputy President

EXEMPTION

Application No. A144 of 2004

The Victorian Civil & Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by Parks Victoria. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ persons of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent in various field based and office based positions which are designated as "Indigenous roles" in Parks Victoria's ongoing workforce plans.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant the exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted that it had previously granted an exemption to Parks Victoria to enable the employment of persons of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent in the positions of Park Rangers, and that the current exemption is sought in order to enable Parks Victoria to advertise and employ Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander persons in a wider variety of positions within the organisation. The Tribunal considers that the grant of the exemption currently sought will further the objectives of improving employment opportunities for persons of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent within Parks Victoria.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ persons of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent in positions within Parks Victoria which have been designated as "Indigenous Roles".

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 6 May 2007.

Dated 28 April 2004.

EXEMPTION

Application No. 149/04

The Victorian Civil & Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by the Victorian Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Organisation (VACCHO) for exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Australian Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person for the position of Aboriginal Health Worker Training Development Officer.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant the exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted that previous exemptions have been granted to the applicant to enable it to provide training and employment for Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander people in the area of indigenous health and that the grant of the exemption in this case will assist in the training of future Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander health workers.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander people only in the position of Aboriginal Health Worker Training Development Officer.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 6 May 2007.

Dated 28 April 2004.

EXEMPTION

Application No. 152 of 2004

The Victorian Civil & Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by Whittlesea District Branch of the Helping Hand Association for Persons with an Intellectual Disability Inc (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ staff of a specified gender where this is desirable because of the nature of the duties which they are required to perform.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ staff of a specified gender where this is desirable because of the nature of the duties which they are required to perform.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted that it had previously granted an exemption to the applicant for a similar reason and that the circumstances giving rise to the need for that exemption are still relevant. In particular, the Tribunal notes the ongoing need for the applicant to be able to provide female or male support staff where appropriate to assist in providing daytime program activities for people with disabilities.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 105 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ staff of a specified gender where this is desirable because of the nature of the duties which they are required to perform.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 6 May 2007.

EXEMPTION

Application No. 154/2004

The Victorian Civil & Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by La Trobe University Union (the applicant) for exemption from Sections 37, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act. The purpose of the exemption is to enable the applicant to establish and grant four scholarships for indigenous undergraduate students at the University.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 37, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to establish and grant four scholarships for indigenous undergraduate students at the University.

In granting the exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- the university is required by the Federal Government to have in place institution scholarship programs to support students including indigenous students in order to qualify for equity funds known as Higher Education Equity Program funds;
- the applicant, a semi-autonomous student organisation established under the La Trobe University Act, wishes to augment the university's scholarship program by granting four undergraduate scholarships for indigenous students.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 37, 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to establish and grant four scholarships to indigenous undergraduate students at La Trobe University.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 6 May 2007.

Dated 28 April 2004.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A156 of 2004

The Victorian Civil & Administrative Tribunal has considered an application for exemption pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) from Yarra Valley Community Health Services (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to recruit a person of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander background to fill a specified position as Indigenous Health Services Coordinator.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted the following:

- the position of Indigenous Health Services Coordinator has been funded by the Commonwealth Government on the basis that the role is filled by an indigenous person;
- the person appointed to the role will work very closely with the indigenous community and will require first hand knowledge of indigenous health issues as well as an ability to work in partnership with Aboriginal people and communicate well across clan groups, tribal backgrounds and family groups.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a person of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander background in the position of Indigenous Health Services Coordinator.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 6 May 2007.
