Subordinate Legislation Act 1994

NOTICE OF DECISION

Plumbing (Water and Energy Savings) Regulations 2004

I, Mary Delahunty, Minister for Planning and Minister responsible for administering the Building Act 1993, give notice under section 12 of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1994 as follows:

A Regulatory Impact Statement (RIS) was prepared in relation to the proposed Plumbing (Water and Energy Savings) Regulations 2004 which amend the Plumbing Regulations 1998 to incorporate certain amendments relating to plumbing standards required for –

- the conservation of water usage by restricting water pressure and flow rates to buildings and the installation of water tanks for collection of water from roofs and connection of the water tanks to toilets; and
- the energy savings relating to water heating by means of solar energy .

The RIS was advertised seeking public comment and thirty-nine submissions were received.

After considering the submissions received, I have decided that the proposed Regulations should be made with amendments.

Dated 28 June 2004

MARY DELAHUNTY, MP
Minister for Planning
