The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by Michael Page International Pty Ltd trading as Michael Page Legal (the applicant), to renew the exemption it was granted on 11 July 2001, being Exemption A205 of 2001. The application for renewal of the exemption is to enable the applicant to continue to engage in the conduct specified in A205 of 2001.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application including the affidavit of Julia Peterburgsky filed in the proceeding, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to renew the exemption from Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to continue to engage in the conduct specified in A205 of 2001.

In renewing this exemption the Tribunal noted that the grounds upon which Exemption A205 of 2001 was granted are unchanged.

Health Purchasing Victoria ('HPV'), having given notice that it intended to make a purchasing policy in accordance with Section 134 of the Health Services Act 1988 (Vic.) (referred to hereafter as 'the Act'), and after having taken into account comments and submissions made pursuant to Section 134B of the Act hereby gives notice of the making of the following purchasing policy:

All hospitals and health services to whom this policy applies ("Applicable Hospitals") are required to abide by the outcomes of the planned HPV Tenders listed in the 2004 – 2006 Timetable, which is a Schedule to this policy.

Applicable Hospitals are required to only purchase goods and or services which will be the subject of those tenders from the successful tenderers with whom HPV enters into a contractual relationship to supply those goods and services.

A hospital or health service is exempt from the specific application of this policy, where it has a current contract in respect of the supply of goods and or services which are named in the Schedule.

Hospitals and health services with such contracts are required not to exercise any option to renew or extend the term of that contract without the prior written consent of HPV. Such hospitals and health services are required to comply with this policy in all other respects.

Hospitals and health services may only enter into a contract with suppliers for goods/services as per the attached tender program if HPV gives its prior written consent or where there is an ability to terminate agreements when the relevant HPV tender is awarded.

This policy is to apply to all public hospitals listed in Schedule 1 of the Act and all metropolitan/public health services listed in Schedule 5 of the Act, unless specifically exempted in accordance with section 134A of the Act.

Hospitals and health services are required to report their compliance with this policy by means of an annual statement of compliance in a form to be advised by HPV.

The obligations contained in this Policy will apply from the date of gazettal of the notice of making of this Policy (July 01 2004), until HPV otherwise declares.
