Notice of the Preparation of an Amendment to a Planning Scheme

Amendment C52

The City of Whitehorse has prepared Amendment C52 to the Whitehorse Planning Scheme.

The purpose of the Amendment is to apply a Heritage Overlay to four new precincts within the municipality identified in the Heritage Precincts Report, 2004. The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application for exemption pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by the Department of Human Services, Juvenile Justice (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person in the role of Senior Program Adviser (Koori) with the Child Protection and Juvenile Justice Branch of the Department of Human Services.

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person in the role of Senior Program Adviser (Koori) with the Child Protection and Juvenile Justice Branch of the Department of Human Services.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted the desirability of ensuring there is cultural knowledge and advice integrated into the work of the Juvenile Justice Program which seeks to develop strategies aimed at benefiting Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander young people who are entering or are at risk of entering the Juvenile Justice system.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person in the role of Senior Program Adviser (Koori) with the Child Protection and Juvenile Justice Branch of the Department of Human Services.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 5 August 2007.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A267/2004

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application for exemption pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by Aquamoves (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to provide a women-only bathing program at its facilities in Shepparton, and to advertise and employ female staff to run such a program.

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to provide a women-only bathing program at its facilities in Shepparton, and to advertise for and employ female staff to run and supervise that program.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted that a significant number of Greater Shepparton's female population comprises Muslim women cannot access public mixed-gender swimming facilities for religious reasons, within a 150 km radius of Shepparton. Consultation with the Ethnic Council and Islamic Community has revealed that women-only sessions would have health benefits and allow Muslim women to socialise with the broader community. The proposal is supported by the Goulburn Valley Sports Assembly.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to provide a women-only bathing program at Aquamoves in Shepparton, and to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ female staff to run that program.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 5 August 2007.

Dated 2 August 2004

Mrs S. DAVIS
Deputy President

EXEMPTION

Application No. A269/2004

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application for exemption pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by La Trobe University, Albury-Wodonga Campus (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person in the position of Aboriginal Liaison Officer.

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person in the position of Aboriginal Liaison Officer. The Tribunal notes that it granted a previous exemption to the applicant in relation to this position in 2001. The Tribunal notes the desirability of an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person liaising with and providing support for currently enrolled and prospective Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students at the campus and with the local Aboriginal community.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person as Aboriginal Liaison Officer.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 5 August 2007.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A270 of 2004

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application for exemption pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by Basketball Victoria Inc (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to offer basketball programs specifically to females.

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to offer some basketball development programs specifically to females in the years 2004 to 2007.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted the recent allocation made by the State Government to the applicant for the next 4 years to assist female participation in basketball as part of the government's commitment to encourage female participation in sport. The grant of the exemption is consistent with the objective of the commitment to increasing female participation in basketball.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 5 August 2007.

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by Broadmeadows Womens Community House, Anglicare, Victoria (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a female social worker at the agency.

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a female social worker at the agency.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted that the applicant has provided group work programs for female clients for the past 25 years, and that that most of the programs are designed to assist women and their young children to overcome the effects of family violence. Many of the clients are veiled Moslem women. They and other women feel comfortable knowing the agency is a woman-only agency and feel safe attending its programs.
