- the Tribunal previously granted an exemption for similar purposes to similar organisations in 2001 and 2004, and the circumstances surrounding the grant of the exemptions to those organisations are equally applicable to the grant of the exemption sought by the applicant.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 37, 42, 59, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to grant membership of its organisation and provide its services only to people aged 55 years and over.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 7 October 2007.

Dated 23 September 2004.

EXEMPTION

Application No A285 of 2004

The Victorian Civil & Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by U3A Hawthorn Inc. (the applicant) for exemption from Sections 37, 42, 59, 100 and 195 of the Act. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to grant membership of its organisation and provide its services only to people aged 55 years and over.

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application by Christine Watters and hearing submissions from Ms Watters and Ms M. Adams, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 37, 42, 59, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to grant membership of its organisation and provide its services only to people aged 55 years and over.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- U3A Hawthorn Inc is one of a number of such organisations in Victoria which follow the Cambridge model in which voluntary tutors teach students aged over 55;
- the organisations in Victoria are independently run, and do not all offer the same courses, but offer each others' students associate membership and thereby access to each others' courses;

EXEMPTION

Application No A288 of 2004

The Victorian Civil & Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by Immigrant Women's Domestic Violence Service (IWDVS) (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ women only from non-English speaking background (NESB) for its programs and projects.

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application by Diana Orlando, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ women only from non-English speaking background (NESB) for its programs and projects.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- IWDVS is a statewide service that provides support and advocacy to women and children of immigrant women from non-English speaking backgrounds. The majority of domestic violence is perpetrated by men against women, and victims of domestic violence generally prefer the services to be provided in a women-only environment;

- IWDVS aims to match its clients' cultural and linguistic background with that of the caseworkers, and therefore needs to employ bilingual workers familiar with the particular culture in which they will work.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ women only from non-English speaking background (NESB) for its programs and projects.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 7 October 2007.

Dated 21 September 2004.

Mrs S. DAVIS
Deputy President

EXEMPTION

Application No A331 of 2004

The Victorian Civil & Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by Sharon Murray (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and provide massage and beauty services to women only.

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application by the applicant, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise and provide massage and beauty services to women only.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- the applicant works alone from home and wishes for safety reasons to provide massage and beauty services to women only;
- her clients are mainly women and their sense of safety would be enhanced if the business was limited to providing massage and beauty services to women only.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise and provide massage and beauty services to women only.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 7 October 2007.

Dated 21 September 2004.

EXEMPTION

Application No A348 of 2004

The Victorian Civil & Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by Yarra Valley Community Health Service (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a person of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander background to fill a position as Indigenous Health Services Community Health Nurse.

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application by Jane Judd, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a person of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander background to fill a position as Indigenous Health Services Community Health Nurse.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- the position has been funded by the Commonwealth Government on the basis that it is filled by an Australian Indigenous person;
- the person appointed will work very closely with the indigenous community, and requires first-hand knowledge of indigenous health issues as well as an ability to communicate with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people;
- the appointment of an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander in the position will also provide a positive role model for community members as well as providing an important employment opportunity for a community member to obtain an important position.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a person of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander background to fill a position as Indigenous Health Services Community Health Nurse.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 7 October 2007.

Dated 21 September 2004.

EXEMPTION

Application No A347 of 2004

The Victorian Civil & Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by Maroondah City Council (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and conduct a women's only exercise and healthy living program at the Croydon Leisure Centre.

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application by George Thompson, Business Development Manager, Maroondah Leisure, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise and conduct a women's only exercise and healthy living program at the Croydon Leisure Centre.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- the applicant has developed the women's only exercise and healthy living program to address the needs identified in the Council's Health Safety & Wellbeing Plan 2003–2005. Those needs included the need to reach specific target groups – in this case, women who may be difficult to reach, rarely exercise, are socially isolated, or prevented for religious reasons from attending a mixed fitness centre;
- the program will run initially as a pilot program, for 1 term, with women-only facilities being provided to the women only participants, in an area which will not be used by other members during the program times. It is anticipated that the program will be offered on an ongoing basis.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and conduct a women's only exercise and healthy living program at the Croydon Leisure Centre.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 7 October 2007.

Dated 21 September 2004.

Application No A346 of 2004

The Victorian Civil & Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by Wellsprings for Women Inc. (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and for and employ women only at its centre for women victims of domestic violence in Dandenong.

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application by Ann Halpin, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise and for and employ women only at its centre for women victims of domestic violence in Dandenong.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- Wellsprings has been established since 1994 and originally catered for women who were victims of domestic violence;
- Wellsprings continues to provide for an increasing number of vulnerable women who are the victims of domestic violence or who are recovering from mental illness;
- in addition, Wellsprings caters for refugee and migrant women as its programs are designed for women;
- the applicant was previously granted an exemption which expires on 26 September 2004.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise and for and employ women only at its centre for women victims of domestic violence in Dandenong.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 7 October 2007.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A340 of 2004

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by Horton International P/L (the applicant) for exemption from Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of that Act. The exemption is sought to enable the applicant to –

- (a) specify criteria for positions in respect of which the applicant acts as an employment service for, or otherwise on behalf of, its client employers, being criteria requiring specified qualifications or minimum levels of qualifications or specified years of experience or minimum levels of experience, and to designate those positions by titles which include an indication of seniority or importance of the positions (such as the word “senior”); and
- (b) specify criteria for positions in respect of which the applicant acts as an employment service for, or otherwise on behalf of, its client employers, being criteria based on any attribute within the meaning of the Act, if the positions are based in, or the holders of the positions must ordinarily work in a country other than Australia and the work visa requirements of that country permit the grant of a work visa to enter that country only to a person who meets those criteria.

The exemption will enable the applicant to specify the criteria referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) in advertisements and descriptions of the positions in question, and to apply those criteria in any employment decisions which the applicant makes in relation to those positions, including offering or refusing to offer employment in those positions, interviewing and short-listing for those positions, and the terms on which employment in those positions is offered. The conduct specified above is called “the relevant conduct” in this exemption.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application for the exemption, including the declaration of Donald Moore, Director of the applicant, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the relevant conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- Mr Moore was the principal of a company, Independent Corporate Solutions P/L, which was granted an exemption in identical terms in 1999 and 2002;
- Mr Moore dissolved that company and transferred its work and functions to the applicant;
- the applicant continues to perform the work undertaken formerly by Independent Corporate Solutions P/L;
- the circumstances leading to the grant of the exemptions in 1999 and 2002 are still relevant.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the relevant conduct.

This exemption is subject to the condition that, for each position or class of positions to which the exemption applies, the applicant must obtain from the client employer and keep a certificate from that employer stating that the specified criteria for the position are consistent with the duties or nature of the position or with the requirements of the work visa of the country in which the position is based or in which the holder of the position would ordinarily be required to work (as the case may be).

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 7 October 2007.

Dated 22 September 2004.

Subordinate Legislation Act 1994

NOTICE OF PREPARATION OF REGULATORY IMPACT STATEMENT

Wildlife (State Game Reserve) Regulations 2004

Notice is given under section 11 of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1994 that a Regulatory Impact Statement (RIS) has been prepared in relation to the proposed Wildlife (State Game Reserve) Regulations 2004.

The objective of the proposed Regulations is to provide for the management of State Game Reserves established under the Wildlife Act 1975.

The proposed Regulations replace the Wildlife (State Game Reserve) Regulations 1994, which are due to expire on 29 November 2004.

The RIS discusses the proposed Regulations in relation to two possible alternatives:

1. A public education and information program; and
2. Restricting access to reserves to holders of game licences (and placing additional conditions on those licences to effect adequate reserve protection).

The RIS concludes that the proposed Regulations are the most effective means of meeting the stated objective by establishing an enforceable framework for the protection and management of more than 180 State Game Reserves within Victoria.

Copies of the proposed Regulations and accompanying RIS may be obtained from the Information Centre, Department of Sustainability and Environment, 8 Nicholson Street, East Melbourne, Victoria 3002 between 8.30 am and 5.30 pm or by phoning 13 61 86. Alternatively, the proposed Regulations and accompanying RIS are located at <http://www.dse.vic.gov.au/ris/>.

Public comments or submissions are invited on the proposed Regulations and RIS. All comments or submissions must be in writing and should be sent to the Conservation and Recreation Division (Attention Mr G. Niewand), Department of Sustainability and Environment, Level 14, 8 Nicholson Street, East Melbourne, Victoria 3002 or by email to gary.niewand@dse.vic.gov.au by no later than 5.30 pm on 29 October 2004.

All submissions will be treated as public documents.
