A two day course

Intelligence Procedures for Investigators

Education Design Systems now offers a two day course in 'Intelligence Procedures for Investigators', designed to develop and enhance investigative skills and processes for investigators who wish to develop their analytical skills and techniques. Focussing on the practical implementation of investigative best practice, we assist investigators to effectively gauge and react to issues uncovered during investigations and to utilise these skills to develop efficient and effective strategic responses.

Analytic and charting skills are developed in an interactive and sequential learning environment where participants are encouraged to share their experiences and perspectives on the role of investigator and the ethics and attributes necessary for high quality performance.

Now in its 16th year EDS has provided cost effective, high quality, professional development for over 8500 private and government sector investigators.

Dates: Thursday 7th - Friday 8th October 2004

Venue: Downtowner on Lygon, 66 Lygon Street, Carlton

Cost: $880.00 including GST, morning and afternoon refreshments and course handbook

For registration or further information please contact Conference Co-ordinators at conference@confco.com.au or on 02 6292 9000.

WYNDHAM PLANNING SCHEME

Notice of Amendment

Amendment C51

Wyndham City Council has prepared Amendment C51 to the Wyndham Planning Scheme.

The Amendment applies to all land adjacent to a waterway in the City of Wyndham. A waterway includes rivers, creeks, tributaries, permanent water courses, floodplains, ephemeral wetlands and riparian land.

The Amendment implements the planning recommendations of The Wyndham Waterways Strategy Plan 2002 adopted by Council in July 2003. The Amendment proposes to change the Wyndham Planning Scheme by introducing a Local Planning Policy – Waterway Corridor Policy at Clause 22.14 and applying the following Overlays:

- Schedule 1 Environmental Significance Overlay (ESO1) – Waterways Corridors
- Schedule 3 Significant Landscape Overlay (SLO3) – Waterways Corridor and Environs.

The Municipal Strategic Statement is altered to make reference to the Waterways Strategy objectives. In addition, the following existing schedules will be amended:

- Schedule 2 Development Plan Overlay (DPO2) – Future Urban Development Areas

- Schedule 5 Development Plan Overlay (DPO5) – Greens Road
- Schedule 6 Development Plan Overlay (DPO6) – Designated Residential Growth Areas.

The proposed Amendment is consistent with the relevant clauses of the State Planning Policy Framework and the Municipal Strategic Statement of the Wyndham Planning Scheme. The Waterway Corridor Policy will recognise and protect the values of the waterways in Wyndham and provide a policy guideline for development assessments.

A copy of the Amendment can be inspected, free of charge, during office hours at: Department of Sustainability and Environment, Planning Information Centre, Upper Plaza, Nauru House, 80 Collins Street, Melbourne 3000; and Wyndham City Council, Town Planning Department, Civic Centre, 45 Princes Highway, Werribee 3030.

Submissions about the Amendment must be in writing and sent to: Karen Hose, Planning Policy and Projects Co-ordinator, Wynham City Council, PO Box 197, Werribee 3030, by no later than 4 November 2004.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A306 of 2004

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by the Melbourne Citymission (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a youth worker of a specific gender for its Community Integration Accommodation Options (CIAO) program, which provides placement and support services to young people who are exiting residential care services.

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application by Mark Chaffers, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to employ a female youth worker for its CIAO program.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted a number of the program's clients present with sexual abuse issues. The Citymission already has one male youth worker. A female youth worker will provide the clients with a youth worker of the same gender in the event that issues of sexual abuse need to be addressed.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a youth worker of a specific gender for its Community Integration Accommodation Options program.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 9 September 2007.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A310 of 2004

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by the Victoria Racing Club (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to grant to members of the Club, aged 60 years and older, the preferential opportunity to purchase reserved seating, up to a maximum of 888 seats, in the Members Grandstand at Flemington Racecourse for the 2004 Melbourne Cup Carnival, before that opportunity is provided to other members.

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 42, 60, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to grant to members of the Club, aged 60 years and older, the preferential opportunity to purchase reserved seating, up to a maximum of 888 seats, in the Members Grandstand at Flemington Racecourse for the 2004 Melbourne Cup Carnival, before that opportunity is provided to other members.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- It is the older members of the Club who are more likely to require guaranteed seating for their comfort, and in some cases for their health and safety, in the crowded conditions which prevail during the Melbourne Cup Carnival.

- The number of members of the Club far exceeds the number of seats available. Where the 888 reserved seats are not purchased by members aged 60 years or older, they will be made available for purchase by younger Club members.
- The applicant was granted a previous exemption which expired on 31 December 2003. All of the reserved seats on offer to members over 60 in accordance with that exemption were purchased by members aged 60 years and over. The preferential seating availability for members aged 60 years and over was welcomed.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 42, 60, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to grant to members of the Club, aged 60 years and older, the preferential opportunity to purchase reserved seating, up to a maximum of 888 seats, in the Members Grandstand at Flemington Racecourse for the 2004 Melbourne Cup Carnival, before that opportunity is provided to other members.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 9 September 2007.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A338 of 2004

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by the Access and Participation Unit of the Department of Human Services (the applicant) for exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of that Act. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a person of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander background to the position of State Coordinator, Koori Early Childhood Education Program.

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application by Jan O'Connell, Acting Manager of the Access and Participation Unit, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a person of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander background to the position of State Coordinator, Koori Early Childhood Education Program.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The State Coordinator of the Program is responsible for providing support, information, training and assistance to those working with indigenous children in kindergarten across Victoria. The Coordinator also supervises Koori Preschool Assistants at a state level to promote and support indigenous families to access culturally relevant kindergarten programs. Finally, the Coordinator liaises with Commonwealth and State Government Departments and community organisations to ensure effective delivery of the Koori Early Childhood Program.
- The position requires sound knowledge of indigenous culture and society, and an ability to communicate sensitively with indigenous people.
- It is desirable in the circumstances for the position to be filled by a person of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander background.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a person of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander background to the position of State Coordinator, Koori Early Childhood Education Program.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 9 September 2007.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A332 of 2004

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by the Department of Sustainability and Environment (the applicant) for exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of that Act. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ persons of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander background in a number of designated field-based and office-based positions, as well as to engage such persons in traineeships, scholarships and cadetships that will serve as a pathway program to employment in the Department.

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application by Ian Singleton, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ persons of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander background in a number of designated field-based and office-based positions, as well as to engage such persons in traineeships, scholarships and cadetships that will serve as a pathway program to employment in the Department.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The Department has developed an Indigenous Partnership Strategy whose objective is build effective relationships with indigenous communities, particularly in the management of Victoria's natural resources. A key aspect of this strategy is the Indigenous Employment Strategy, under which the Department is committed to employing a minimum of 38 indigenous staff by 30 June 2005.
- The grant of the exemption will improve employment opportunities for persons of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander background within the Department and will thereby help to redress some of the economic and social disadvantage experienced to date by persons of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander background.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ persons of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander background in a number of designated field-based and office-based positions, as well as to engage such persons in traineeships, scholarships and cadetships that will serve as a pathway program to employment in the Department.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 9 September 2007.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A330 of 2004

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by U3A Moorleigh Inc (the applicant) for exemption from Sections 37, 42, 59, 100 and 195 of that Act. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to grant membership of its organisation and provide its services only to people aged 55 years and over.

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application by Judith Horman, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 37, 42, 59, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to grant membership of its organisation and provide its services only to people aged 55 years and over.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted a previous exemption for similar purposes was granted by the Tribunal in June 2001 and the circumstances surrounding the grant of the exemption then continue to operate.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 37, 42, 59, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to grant membership of its organisation and provide its services only to people aged 55 years and over.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A324 of 2004

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by Corrections Victoria (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ persons of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander background as Aboriginal Wellbeing Officers to deliver services to Aboriginal prisoners across the State.

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application by Kevin Anderson, Correctional Services Commissioner, Corrections Victoria, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ persons of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander background as Aboriginal Wellbeing Officers to deliver services to Aboriginal prisoners across the State.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The Victorian Aboriginal Justice Agreement (VAJA) states that Aboriginal Wellbeing Officers are to assist in developing case management plans for Aboriginal prisoners.
- The Aboriginal Justice Advisory Forum, the peak coordinating body responsible for overseeing the implementation of the VAJA, determined in 2001 that only persons of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander background could be Aboriginal Wellbeing Officers.
- The Tribunal previously granted an exemption in similar terms to the applicant's predecessor in July 2001.
- The circumstances giving rise to the grant of the exemption in July 2001 remain relevant and warrant the grant of the exemption sought.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ persons of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander background as Aboriginal Wellbeing Officers to deliver services to Aboriginal prisoners across the State.

Application No. A329 of 2004

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by Fourth Elf Pty Ltd and Morodara Pty Ltd (the applicants). The application for exemption is to enable the applicants to employ males only and to provide and operate all male venues at The Laird Hotel, 149 Gipps Street, Abbotsford and Club 80 in Peel Street, Collingwood, and to advertise in connection with those purposes.

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application by William Saunders, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 42, 49, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to employ males only and to provide and operate all male venues at The Laird Hotel, 149 Gipps Street, Abbotsford and Club 80 in Peel Street, Collingwood, and to advertise in connection with those purposes.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The venues provide for the male homosexual patrons a safe environment where male sexual health issues are emphasised and where patrons can relax, socialise and pursue relations without inhibition or fear of violence or discrimination.
- The Tribunal previously granted exemptions in 2001 to the applicants in respect of these venues, and the circumstances relevant then remain relevant to the exemption currently sought.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 42, 49, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to employ males only and to provide and operate all male venues at The Laird Hotel, 149 Gipps Street, Abbotsford and Club 80 in Peel Street, Collingwood, and to advertise in connection with those purposes.

Application No. A333 of 2004

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by the Family Mediation Centre (the applicant) for exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of that Act. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male mediator at its Ringwood and Narre Warren offices.

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application by Ian Permezel, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male mediator at its Ringwood and Narre Warren offices.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The Family Mediation Centre is funded by the Commonwealth Attorney General's Department to provide mediation for couples in relation to property settlement and arrangements for children.
- The Centre's policy is to work mainly in a co-mediation model, that is, with a male and female mediator working with each couple, to as to provide gender balance.
- There is a current shortage of male mediators at the Ringwood and Narre Warren offices. The grant of the exemption would enable this imbalance to be redressed so as to provide male and female mediators at mediations at those locations.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male mediator at its Ringwood and Narre Warren offices.
