Subordinate Legislation Act 1994

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO PROCEED TO MAKE REGULATIONS

Charities Regulations 2005

Notice of a Regulatory Impact Statement (RIS) was published in relation to the proposed Charities Regulations 2005 on 14 October 2005.

The draft regulations accompanying the RIS set out fees payable for applications to the Attorney-General under the Charities Act 1978. Two sets of fees are proposed. One set will apply to applications made to the Attorney-General for the variation of a trust that has become impossible or very difficult to carry out (cy pres scheme) and will range from $300 to $1,500 depending on the value of the corpus of the trust. The second type of fees will apply to common investment fund applications made to the Attorney-General and will range from $1,000 to $2,250 depending on the value of the corpus of the trust.

One submission was received and given due consideration. No amendments were required as a result of the submission and as only one amendment has been made to provide for a commencement date of 30 November 2005 I now give notice of my intention to proceed with the making of these regulations.

ROB HULLS MP
Attorney-General
