EXEMPTION

Application No. A374 of 2005

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by the Richmond Fellowship of Victoria (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a female staff member in the role of Holiday Team Worker for the Richmond Fellowship of Victoria (Western Respite Services) ("the specified conduct").

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application by Ms Christine Misso, HR Advisor, Richmond Fellowship of Victoria, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The Richmond Fellowship of Victoria Western Respite Service is the key provider of planned respite in the western metropolitan region. The service provides flexible and planned respite for young people, adults and the aged with psychiatric disabilities and their carers and provides opportunities for carers to have some time out whilst the person they care for engages in planned activities with a psychosocial rehabilitation focus.
- A female is required to fill the position of Holiday Team Worker to ensure a gender balance at group holidays to allow female clients to feel safe and supported while away from their familiar environments.
- As some female clients of the applicant have experienced physical, sexual and/or psychological abuse, a female Holiday Worker is required to ensure that those female clients have the choice of speaking to a female staff member if required.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 17 November 2008.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A376 of 2005

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by the Brotherhood of St Laurence (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to refuse accommodation to persons under the age of 50 years at Sidney Myer House ("the specified conduct").

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 49, 50, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant has provided rooming house accommodation to older and often frail men and women at Sidney Myer House (formerly Millott House) since 1983 (the service). One of the reasons that the older resident seeks accommodation at Sidney Myer House is because of the security it offers to older residents sharing with a similar age group. Current residents are between 50 and 90 years of age and often have a disability or are physically frail.
- Sidney Myer House provides accommodation for senior residents on low incomes who have few assets and few or no social supports and family networks. Residents receive support because Sidney Myer House is co-located with other Brotherhood age-specific facilities such as a hostel and day centre, in which there are a number of staff available to assist them to maintain their independence, security and privacy.
- Within the City of Yarra there are a number of private and public rooming houses that provide rooming house accommodation to all age groups, including 300 rooms managed by Yarra Community Housing Group which is under the auspices of the Brotherhood.
- The service provides accommodation for 16 older male and female residents who generally come from the inner metropolitan area of Melbourne thus service allows them to remain connected to their community.

- There are no other rooming houses that offer age-specific services in the area.
- An exemption in similar terms was granted in November 2002.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 49, 50, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 17 November 2008.

The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and provide three scholarships per year (commencing with the year 2006) to women post-graduate students in the science, engineering, technology or construction fields of study.
