EXEMPTION

Application No. A45 of 2005

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by the Victorian Electoral Commissioner. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ persons for State and Municipal Council Elections in respect of the positions set out in the attached Schedule 1 ("Electoral Officials").

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 & 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ persons for State and Municipal Council Elections in respect of the positions set out in the attached Schedule 1 ("Electoral Officials").

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- the Electoral Act 2002 established the Victorian Electoral Commission ("The Commission") and the Victorian Electoral Commissioner. The Commission is an independent body reporting to Parliament;
- that Act places restrictions on the ability of the Electoral Commissioner or electoral officials to nominate for election to, or to be a member of, the Parliament of Victoria or the Commonwealth or State or Territory of the Commonwealth;
- Schedule 2 of the Local Government Act 1989 permits a council to authorise the Commission and the electoral officials to conduct elections for the council and places restrictions on the ability of those electoral officials to nominate for election, or to act, as Counsellor, for the Council for which that election is held;

- it is necessary that Electoral Officials who conduct State or Municipal Elections perform their functions impartially;
- in order to ensure that Electoral Officials are, and appear to be impartial, it is desirable that the prospective employer of Electoral Officials should be able to take into account whether or not they hold political beliefs or engage in political activities;
- the Tribunal previously granted an exemption which expired on 7 November 2004.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995. This exemption is granted only for the purpose of enabling the prospective employer of Electoral Officials to take into account the fact that those seeking employment as electoral officials hold or do not hold political beliefs or views or engage refuse or fail to engage in political activities.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 23 February 2008.
