EXEMPTION

Application No. A57/2005

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by Link Employment & Training (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and recruit persons of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island origin for administration and information technology traineeship positions in the Koori Health Unit at the University of Melbourne.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, and upon hearing Mr Harry Hodge, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and recruit persons of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island origin for administration and information technology traineeship positions in the Koori Health Unit at the University of Melbourne.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- the applicant is a group training company employing trainees and apprentices;
- there is a nationwide Indigenous health programme established which is funded by the Federal Government and the applicant is engaged to recruit persons as part of the programme;
- two positions under the programme have been funded in Victoria to work at the University of Melbourne in the Koori Health Unit. One is a traineeship in administration and the other a traineeship in information technology;
- the successful trainees will be working with Koori clients and it is essential for the community profile of the positions and for the interests of the clients that the trainees have the necessary awareness of cultural sensitivities.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and recruit persons of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island origin for administration and information technology traineeship positions in the Koori Health Unit at the University of Melbourne.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 17 March 2008.

Dated 7 March 2005

Deputy President

EXEMPTION

Application No. A79/2005

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by Upper Hume Community Health Service (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and to employ women only in the position of Domestic Violence Outreach Worker with Upper Hume Community Health Service.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including the affidavit of Nicki Melville, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and to employ women only in the position of Domestic Violence Outreach Worker with Upper Hume Community Health Service.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- the Upper Hume Community Health Service Domestic Violence Outreach Worker, over the last nine years, has delivered to women of the Upper Hume Region, personal welfare and educational services in the area of domestic violence, intervention and support;
- a substantial number of those receiving the services might reasonably object if they were delivered by someone of the opposite gender;
- a significant reason they may object, would be because of the physical and emotional abuse they have received from the opposite gender, which has prompted those women to access the services of the Domestic Violence Outreach Worker at Upper Hume Community Health Service;
- the Tribunal has previously granted an exemption for the same position, which exemption has since expired.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and to employ women only in the position of Domestic Violence Outreach Worker with Upper Hume Community Health Service.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 10 March 2008.

Fisheries Act 1995

FURTHER QUOTA ORDER FOR THE ABALONE FISHERY

I, Bob Cameron, Minister for Agriculture, make the following Order under section 64A(1) of the Fisheries Act 1995:

1. This Order applies for the period commencing on 1 April 2005 and ending on 31 March 2006 ('the quota period').
2. The total allowable catch for the abalone fishery in the eastern abalone zone for the quota period is 489 tonnes of unshucked abalone.
3. The total allowable catch for the abalone fishery in the central abalone zone for the quota period is 618 tonnes of unshucked abalone.
4. The total allowable catch for the abalone fishery in the western abalone zone for the quota period is 221 tonnes of unshucked abalone.
5. An individual quota unit for the abalone fishery in the eastern abalone zone in the quota period is 1,063 kilograms of unshucked abalone.
6. An individual quota unit for the abalone fishery in the central abalone zone in the quota period is 909 kilograms of unshucked abalone.
7. An individual quota unit for the abalone fishery in the western abalone zone in the quota period is 790 kilograms of unshucked abalone.

This Order commences on 1 April 2005 and remains in force until 31 March 2006.

NOTES:

The total allowable catch and value of an individual quota unit set by this Order mean that the total number of individual quota units for the abalone fishery is 1,420. Rounded to the nearest whole number, this means that 460 individual quota units are allocated to the eastern zone, 680 individual quota units are allocated to the central zone and 280 individual quota units are allocated to the western zone.

Each holder of an Abalone Fishery Access Licence authorised to fish in the eastern zone is allocated 1/23 of the total number of individual quota units for that zone for a quota period. Therefore, each holder of an Abalone Fishery Access Licence authorised to fish in the eastern zone will be allocated 20 individual quota units.

Each holder of an Abalone Fishery Access Licence authorised to fish in the central zone is allocated 1/34 of the total number of individual quota units for that zone for a quota period. Therefore, each holder of an Abalone Fishery Access Licence authorised to fish in the central zone will be allocated 20 individual quota units.

Each holder of an Abalone Fishery Access Licence authorised to fish in the western zone is allocated 1/14 of the total number of individual quota units for that zone for a quota period. Therefore, each holder of an Abalone Fishery Access Licence authorised to fish in the western zone will be allocated 20 individual quota units.
