EXEMPTION

Application No. A147/2005

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by Darebin City Council (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a Home and Community Care Aboriginal Liaison Officer.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including the affidavit of Mike Webb, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a Home and Community Care Aboriginal Liaison Officer.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- the applicant in partnership with the City of Whittlesea, City of Hume, the Aborigines Advancement League, the Aboriginal Community Elders Service and the Victorian Aboriginal Health Service has developed an ongoing HACC Aboriginal Liaison Officer position to work across the three Local Government areas. The primary aim of the position is to increase access to Local Government HACC Services for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander HACC target groups. The Department of Human Services has provided recurrent funding for the position and after an initial period of consultation and development, recruitment of an Aboriginal person to the role can now take place.
- The employment of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander staff is consistent with the applicant's Framework for Employment of Indigenous Australians.
- The applicant and its partners believe the service the position is to deliver requires a person who has experience and knowledge of land, family, culture and relationships within the Aboriginal community and that it is culturally appropriate that the occupant of the position be an Aboriginal person, thus demonstrating respect and understanding.
- The applicant wishes to provide employment opportunities for Aboriginal people and in turn demonstrate to other employers ways to meaningfully engage local indigenous Australian communities in the workforce. The rate of indigenous unemployment in the northwest metropolitan area is a lot higher than the rate for non-indigenous people.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a Home and Community Care Aboriginal Liaison Officer.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 2 June 2008.
