EXEMPTION

Application No. A117/2005

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by the A Leap Ahead (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and run female-only mathematics tutoring classes ("the specified conduct").

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including the affidavit of Janelle Hall, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted that:

- A Leap Ahead intends to run tutorial classes in mathematics for female participants only in order to provide an environment where females can learn mathematics without feeling intimidated by male peers.
- The female-only mathematics tutorial classes are intended to foster self-esteem and confidence amongst young women in the area of mathematics.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which the notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 28 April 2008.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A124 of 2005

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by Anglicare Victoria (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ female staff only for its Counterpoint program, which provides refuge-type accommodation services to women who are victims of domestic violence and sexual assault ("the specified conduct").

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including an affidavit by Juliet Taylor of Anglicare Victoria, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- Counterpoint provides high security refuge-type accommodation to young women who are victims of domestic violence and sexual assault.
- The objects of the Counterpoint program include providing an all-female environment to enable victims of family violence and sexual assault to regain self-esteem, have their sexual health needs addressed and access longer term safe accommodation.
- The Counterpoint program requires an all-female environment as the staff are rostered overnight and the residents of the program have suffered abuse from men.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 5 May 2008.
