Child Employment Act 2003
MANDATORY CODE OF PRACTICE FOR
THE EMPLOYMENT OF CHILDREN IN ENTERTAINMENT

This order is made under section 29 of the Child Employment Act 2003 (“the Act”) by me in my capacity as the Minister for Industrial Relations.

This order establishes a mandatory code of practice for the employment of children in entertainment (“the Code”).

The Code takes effect from 1 November 2005.

Dated 9 June 2005

ROB HULLS MP
Minister for Industrial Relations

MANDATORY CODE OF PRACTICE FOR
THE EMPLOYMENT OF CHILDREN IN ENTERTAINMENT

INTRODUCTION

This code of practice is made under section 29 of the Child Employment Act 2003 (“the Act”). The code of practice contains provisions regulating the employment of children in entertainment.

A child is defined in the Act as a person under 15 years of age.

The parent of a child is required to obtain a permit under the Act before the child can engage in employment, unless the child is working in a family business or, in some limited cases, in accordance with a work experience arrangement under the Education Act 1958. It is an offence for a person to employ a child unless a permit has been issued for the employment, unless the child is working in a family business.

Under section 3 of the Act, entertainment means any form of entertainment and includes –

- (a) singing, dancing or acting;
- (b) playing a musical instrument;
- (c) appearing in a radio, television, film or similar program or production not in the nature of a news item;
- (d) modelling;
- (e) appearing in promotional events or advertising;
- (f) working as a photographic subject, whether still or moving;
- (g) working in or in relation to a circus;
- (h) taking part in a performance that is recorded for use in a subsequent entertainment or exhibition;
- (i) working in musical theatre, plays, operas or other live entertainment;
- (j) performing in a shopping centre.

Under section 4 of the Act, a child is engaged in employment if the child takes part or assists in any business, trade or occupation carried on for profit –

- (a) whether or not the child receives payment or other reward for his or her participation or assistance; and
- (b) whether the child is engaged under a contract of service, a contract for services or any other arrangement.

Under section 4 of the Act a person employs a child and is an employer of a child if they cause or permit a child to engage in employment.

The Act contains examples of activities that may not constitute employment in section 4(4). They are –

- (a) participating in a church service or religious program;
- (b) participating in an occasional project or entertainment the net proceeds of which are applied for the benefit of a church or school;
- (c) performing any activity for a non-profit organisation;
- (d) participating in a sporting activity (including coaching, refereeing or umpiring).

Under section 32 of the Act, a person who employs a child in entertainment must not contravene the code of practice. Maximum penalties are specified in section 32 as:

100 penalty units in the case of a body corporate;

60 penalty units in any other case.

The Act gives a number of powers to the Secretary of the Department of Innovation, Industry and Regional Development. In practice, a number of these powers are delegated to child employment officers employed under the Act.

PROVISIONS OF CODE

1 Application

This code of practice applies to all employers of children working in entertainment, whether or not the employer is named in a permit issued under Division 2 of Part 2 of the Act.

2 Interpretation

A word or phrase in this code of practice has the same meaning as it has under the Act, unless the context requires otherwise.

4 Shifts and rest breaks

- (3) Subject to subclauses (4) and (5), an employer must ensure that no child is required to start work on a particular day less than 12 hours after the child has finished work on the previous day, whether for the same or for any other employer.
- (4) An employer does not contravene subclause (3) in relation to employment with another employer if the employer held a reasonable belief after making all reasonable inquiries that the child had not worked for another employer within 12 hours of commencing work.
- (5) The Secretary may in exceptional circumstances and on application from an employer agree to vary the requirement in subclause (3), provided that:
 - (a) the child is 8 years old or above; and
 - (b) the varied time between finishing and commencing work is no less than 10 hours; and
 - (c) the employer's application is received in writing, contains reasons for the application and is provided to the Secretary sufficiently in advance of the day in question to enable an assessment to be made of the merits of the application; and

 - (e) the Secretary is satisfied that the health, education and moral and material welfare of the child will not suffer as a result of the variation.
- (6) An employer must ensure that a child is given a 10 minute rest break every hour.
- (7) An employer must ensure that a child is given a 45 minute rest break every 5 hours, provided that the first 45 minute break must commence at or before 1pm if the child commenced work prior to 10am.
- (8) In this clause, a "rest break" means a period during which the child is not required to carry out any employment duties, including but not limited to rehearsal and preparation.

5 Hours of work

- (1) Subject to subclauses (2), (3), (4) and (5), maximum daily working hours, hours within which children may be employed and maximum days of employment within a weekly period are set out in –

- (3) An employer must not employ a child for more than 4 hours on any day on which the child attends school for at least 3 hours.
- (4) Subject to subclause (5) the Secretary may in exceptional circumstances and on application from an employer agree to vary the maximum number of days of employment, the maximum hours and the finishing times of work contained in Tables A and B and subclauses (2) and (3), provided that:
 - (a) the employer's application is received in writing, contains reasons for the application and is provided to the Secretary sufficiently in advance of the work in question to enable a proper assessment to be made of the merits of the application; and
 - (b) applications for variations will not in the ordinary course be considered outside business hours; and
 - (c) the variation will only be granted if the Secretary is satisfied that the health, education and moral and material welfare of the child will not suffer as a result of the variation.
- (5) A variation granted by the Secretary under subclause (4) must not:
 - (a) extend maximum employment hours per day in Tables A and B and subclause (3) by more than 1 hour; or
 - (b) extend finishing times in Tables A and B and subclause (2) by more than 2 hours; or
 - (c) extend finishing times in Tables A and B beyond midnight; or

 - (g) increase the maximum number of days of employment in any period of 7 consecutive days for a child in Table A.

6 Calculation of employment time

- (1) A child's total period of employment during any period of 24 hours is to be calculated as if the following periods formed part of the time for which the child is employed:
 - (a) any time in excess of 1 hour spent by the child in travelling from home to the place of work; and

- (b) any time in excess of 1 hour spent by the child in travelling home from the final place of work; and
 - (c) the whole of the time that the child is required to be at work, excluding the 45 minute rest break required under clause 4(7) (provided that any time taken for the rest break in excess of 45 minutes must be counted as time worked); and
 - (d) if the employer is responsible for bringing the child to work, any time between the child's arrival at the place of work and the child's actual commencement of work; and
 - (e) if the employer is responsible for taking the child home from work, any time between the child's finishing work and the start of the child's journey home from work.
- (2) The periods set out in subclause (1)(a) and (b) are not taken into account in determining daily start and finishing times of work.

7 Work and education

- (1) The total period of time for which a child is employed when added to the time required to fulfil educational requirements must not exceed 40 hours in any period of 7 consecutive days.
- (2) For the purpose of subclause (1), the time required to fulfil educational requirements shall be –
- (a) for a child who has been exempted from attendance at school under s74G of the Community Services Act 1970, the period (if any) that is stipulated by the Minister in granting the exemption; or
 - (b) for a child who has been exempted from attendance at school under s74G of the Community Services Act 1970, if the Minister has not stipulated a period of education under subclause (2)(a), the period required under clause 8(2); or
 - (c) for a child who has not been exempted from attendance at school, 4 hours for each day during school term that the child has not been exempted from attending school.
- (3) An employer must not employ a child in contravention of subclause (1).

8 Provision of tutor

- (1) If the Minister stipulates a period of education to be fulfilled by the child under clause 7(2)(a), the employer must engage a tutor to provide the stipulated amount and subject matter (if stipulated) of education during the working hours of the child.
- (2) If the Minister has not stipulated a period of education to be fulfilled under clause 7(2)(a), an employer must engage a tutor to provide 2 hours of education per day during school term once the child has been absent from school for the equivalent of 9 days in any one school term as a result of employment with the employer.
- (3) The employer may meet the obligation in subclause (2) by providing education over a period of up to 5 days, such that the child receives an average of 2 hours per day over that period.
- (4) The tutor engaged by the employer under subclause (1) or (2) must be a registered teacher, and appropriately qualified to teach the child.
- (5) The employer must ensure that a tutor engaged by the employer is given a proper opportunity to consult with the child's school and develop an education plan for the child in consultation with the school.

- (6) Despite subclauses (1) and (2), if the provision of education during working hours is impractical, the parent or guardian of the child and the employer may agree for the parent or guardian to obtain the services of a tutor to provide education outside working hours.
- (7) If a parent or guardian obtains the services of a tutor in accordance with subclause (6), the employer must reimburse the parent or guardian for the costs of the tutor, subject to the limits specified in subclause (8).
- (8) The employer is not obliged under subclause (7) to reimburse the parent or guardian for –
 - (a) tutoring hours in excess of those specified in subclause (1) or (2) whichever the case may be; or
 - (b) tutoring costs in excess of a maximum hourly rate as set from time to time by the Secretary.
- (9) For the avoidance of doubt, provision of education in accordance with subclause (6) does not increase the hours available for employment under clause 7.
- (10) If an employer is required to engage a tutor under subclause (1) or (2), the employer must provide an area of sufficient space and facilities of sufficient quality to enable the tutor to provide appropriate education to the child, and ensure that children being tutored and the tutor have exclusive access to the area and facilities while education is being provided.

9 Variations for technical week in live entertainment

- (1) Subject to subclause (2), the Secretary may on application from an employer agree to vary any of the requirements of clauses 5 and 7(1) in relation to the employment of a child in the week Monday to Saturday inclusive immediately prior to the first public performance of a live theatre production (“technical week”).
- (2) A variation will only be considered under subclause (1) if –
 - (a) the employer’s application is received in writing, contains reasons for the application and is provided to the Secretary sufficiently in advance of technical week to enable a proper assessment to be made of the merits of the application; and
 - (b) the Secretary is satisfied that the health, education and moral and material welfare of the child will not suffer as a result of the variation.

10 Travel home

- (1) An employer must ensure that each child aged less than 13 years is collected or taken home after the child finishes work by a parent or guardian of the child, or a person authorised by the parent or guardian to collect or take home the child.
- (2) An employer must ensure that each child aged 13 years or older is collected or taken home after the child finishes work by a parent or guardian of the child, or a person authorised by the parent or guardian to collect or take home the child, unless either of the following applies –
 - (a) the distance between work and home is less than 10 kilometres and travel home will be completed in the ordinary course within daylight hours or before 6pm, whichever is earlier; or
 - (b) the employer has been provided with written consent from the child’s parent or guardian permitting the child to travel home alone, and travel home will be completed in the ordinary course before 8.30pm.
- (3) An employer must ensure that each child’s journey home commences within 30 minutes after the child finishes work unless the child is accompanied by a parent or guardian of the child.

11 Food and drink

- (1) An employer must ensure that each child has, at reasonable hours, access to appropriate and sufficient nutritious food, having regard to the age, taste, culture and dietary restrictions of the child.
- (2) An employer must ensure that each child has access at all times to fruit, fruit juice, milk and water, having regard to the age and dietary restrictions of the child.

An employer must ensure that each child is adequately clothed and otherwise protected from extremes of climate.

15 Medical issues

- (1) An employer must not employ a child who is known by the employer to be ill, unfit for work, or carrying or to have been exposed to an infectious disease that poses a risk to the health of others in the workplace.
- (2) If a child becomes ill or is injured while at work, the employer must immediately notify one of the child's parents or guardians of that fact, or, if the parent or guardian is not contactable, another person nominated by the parent or guardian.

16 Parental contact

- (1) An employer must at all times ensure that each child is able to make contact with his or her parents or guardians or with some other person responsible for the child and must facilitate the making of any such contact whenever the child so requests or whenever it is otherwise appropriate to do so in the interests of the child.
- (2) Subject to subclause (3), an employer must allow a parent or guardian of a child to be present at the workplace at all times when the child is present at the workplace.
- (3) An employer may exclude a parent or guardian from a particular area of the workplace or from direct contact with the child, provided that the exclusion is only for a period and only from an area necessary to ensure that the employer's undertaking or production is not unduly disrupted, or to protect the health and safety of any person present in the workplace including the parent or guardian.
- (4) If the child's employment requires the child to spend one or more nights away from home, the employer must provide appropriate accommodation for both the child and a parent or guardian of the child, if the parent or guardian is to accompany the child.

17 Recreation facilities

An employer must ensure that appropriate recreational materials and rest facilities are available for each child during breaks in work, having regard to the age and developmental needs of the child.

18 Inappropriate roles or situations

- (1) An employer must ensure that a child is not cast in a role or situation that is inappropriate to the child, having regard to the child's age, maturity, emotional or psychological development and sensitivity.

- (2) An employer must not allow a child –

 - (c) the child's parent or guardian is present for the whole period during which the child is naked or the other person is naked, as the case may be.

20 Supervision

- (1) An employer must ensure that each child is provided with adequate and direct supervision, having regard to the age, sex, and degree of maturity of the child, and having regard to the number of children employed at any one time.
- (2) In particular –
 - (a) the employer must ensure that a supervisor of a child is not given other responsibilities which prevent the supervisor from providing direct supervision to the child; and
