HOBSONS BAY PLANNING SCHEME

Notice of Preparation of Amendment

Amendment C57

Authorisation No. A48

Hobsons Bay City Council has prepared Amendment C57 to the Hobsons Bay Planning Scheme.

The land affected by the Amendment is the Scienceworks Museum at 2–18 Booker Street, Spotswood and is located in a Public Use Zone 1 (Service and Utility).

The Amendment proposes to amend the Schedule to the Public Use Zone (Clause 36.01-6) to include the Scienceworks site 2–18 Booker Street, Spotswood in Advertising Sign Category 1 to enable Scienceworks to display large promotional signs as new exhibits are brought in, without being restricted by the current 28 day limitation due to the Advertising Sign Category 4 currently applied to the site.

The Amendment, any documents that support the Amendment and the explanatory report about the Amendment can be inspected at the following locations:

- Hobsons Bay Civic Centre, 115 Civic Parade, Altona; and
- Department of Sustainability and Environment, Planning and Information Centre, Ground Floor, 8 Nicholson Street, East Melbourne.

The Amendment documents are available from Council's website www.hobsonsbay.vic.gov.au. They can also be inspected at the following locations during business hours:

- Williamstown Library, 104 Ferguson Street, Williamstown;
- Altona Library, 123 Queen Street, Altona;
- Newport Library, 13 Mason Street, Newport; and
- Altona Meadows Library, Shop 2, Central Square Shopping Centre, Altona Meadows.

Any person who may be affected by the Amendment may make a submission to the planning authority. The closing date for submissions is 13 September 2005.

For further information, please contact Ameen Mohamed, Strategic Development Officer, on 9932 1000 or email contactus@hobsonsabay.vic.gov.au.

Submissions should be sent to Mr. Eric Braslis, Director, Planning & Environment, Hobsons Bay City Council, PO Box 21, Altona 3018.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A202/2005

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by the Harkaway Public Hall Committee Incorporated. The application is for a renewal of exemption A232 of 2002 which is due to expire on 1 August 2005. The exemption sought is to enable the applicant to refuse to permit occupation of the hall by any group consisting predominantly of people aged 17 years or over, up to and including 22 years, for the purpose of a party or similar function if the applicant is not satisfied that the group has taken reasonable steps to ensure that the group is adequately supervised by an adequate number of people whom the applicant considers can supervise the group effectively, and to ensure adequate provision for the security for people attending the function and to prevent uninvited people from attending, and to provide transport for those attending from the hall to their homes (“the specified conduct”).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including an affidavit of Mr Philip John Wild, Secretary, Harkaway Public Hall Committee Incorporated, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 42, 47, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 42, 47, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which the notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 11 August 2008.

Dated 3 August 2005

HER HONOUR
JUDGE SANDRA DAVIS
Vice President

EXEMPTION

Application No. A207/2005

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by the Department of Human Services, Loddon Mallee Region. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a Koori person in the position of Indigenous Staff Support Officer (“the specified conduct”).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including an affidavit of Mr Terry Garwood, Department of Human Services, Loddon Mallee Region the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted that:

- the Indigenous Staff Support Officer will implement the Region's Indigenous Employment Plan in relation to recruitment and retention of Indigenous staff as well as facilitate support services for existing Indigenous staff;
- the Indigenous Staff Support Officer will be required to have an understanding of the Koori culture, the kinship system, family connections and Koori community affairs;
- employment of a Koori person in the position of Indigenous Staff Support Officer will provide a better link between the Department of Human Services and the Koori community;

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which the notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 11 August 2008.

Dated 10 August 2005

HER HONOUR
JUDGE SANDRA DAVIS
Vice President

EXEMPTION

Application No. A218/2005

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by the National Tertiary Education Union. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person in the position of Indigenous Projects Officer ("the specified conduct").

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including an affidavit of Mr Grahame McCulloch, General Secretary, National Tertiary Education Union, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted that:

- the appointment of an Indigenous Projects Officer is intended to assist in addressing the disadvantage faced by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander educators and students;
- the Indigenous Projects Officer will be required to possess detailed knowledge of the issues confronting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander staff and students within higher education, and will in particular be required to provide specialist expertise in relation to matters such as balancing work commitments with cultural and ceremonial responsibilities, and the relationships between Indigenous Australian communities and Indigenous units and centres within universities; and
- the Indigenous Projects Officer will additionally be required to represent the union's Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander members in a variety of settings.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which the notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 11 August 2008.

Dated 3 August 2005

ROAD SAFETY COMMITTEE
INQUIRY INTO DRIVER DISTRACTION

The Committee is required to inquire, consider and make recommendations on the role of driver distraction in causing crashes and, in particular to report on to Parliament on:

1. the prevalence of mobile telephone use by drivers and its impact on crash causes;
2. the prevalence of in-car video devices, their effect on drivers and impact on crash causes;
3. the types of other devices and activities, both inside and outside the vehicle, that may distract a driver's attention from the driving task and lead to unsafe driving;
4. the suitability and enforceability of existing laws concerning the use of mobile telephones and other electronic devices by drivers; and
5. the possible need for change to legislation or statutory requirements to implement any recommendations made as a result of the inquiry.

In conducting its inquiry, the Committee is requested to seek information from the manufacturers and distributors of mobile telephones and other electronic devices with in-car applications, research organisations, Government and non-government agencies, motoring organisations and the community.

In particular, the measures adopted to address the issue of driver distraction in other jurisdictions and countries should be examined.

The Committee is required to report to Parliament by 30 June 2006.
