GOVERNMENT AND OUTER BUDGET SECTOR AGENCIES NOTICES

GREATER DANDENONG CITY COUNCIL
Road Discontinuance

At its meeting on 23 October 2006 and acting under clause 3 of schedule 10 to the Local Government Act 1989 Greater Dandenong City Council (Council) resolved that:

1. a 542 square metre portion of Brighton Road (shown shaded on the plan below); and
  2. a 2,843 square metre Government Road (shown hatched on the plan below),
- are not reasonably required as roads for public use and as such Council resolved to discontinue the roads.

Mr JOHN BENNIE
Chief Executive Officer

MELBOURNE CITY COUNCIL
Road Discontinuance

Acting under clause 3 of schedule 10 to the Local Government Act 1989 Melbourne City Council resolved to discontinue the road shown hatched on the plan below.

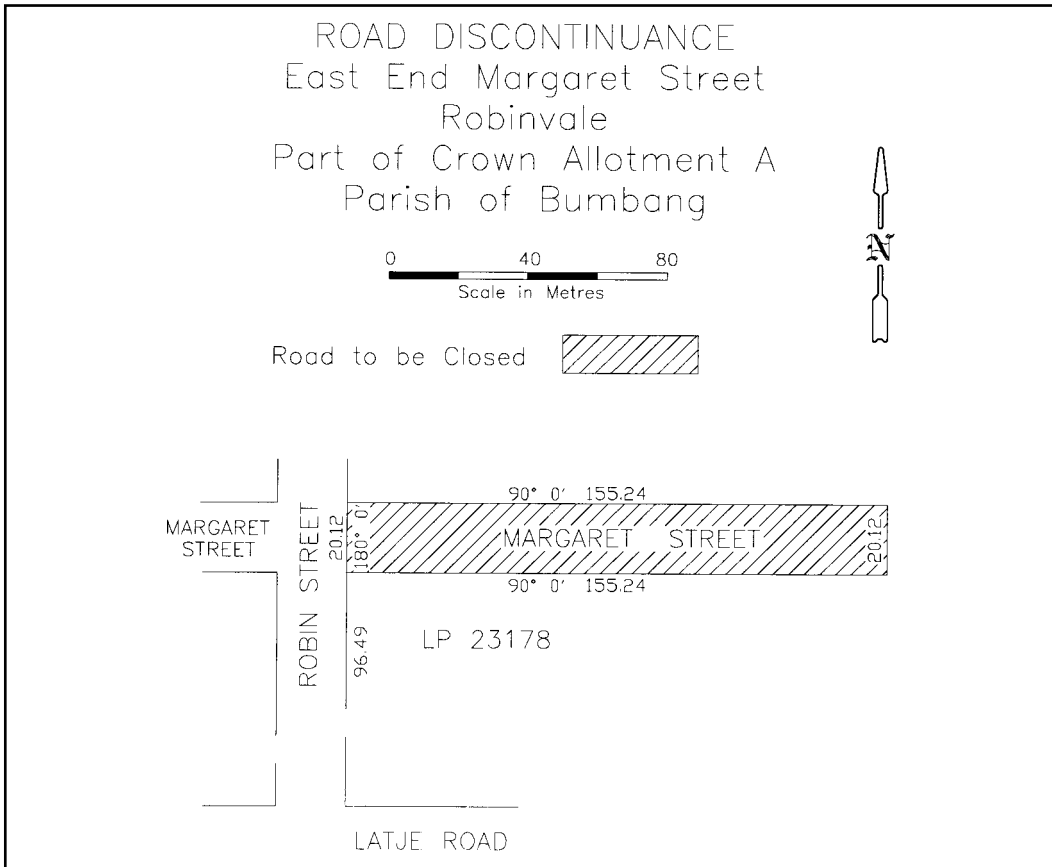

DAVID PITCHFORD
Chief Executive

Road Discontinuance

East End Margaret Street, Robinvale

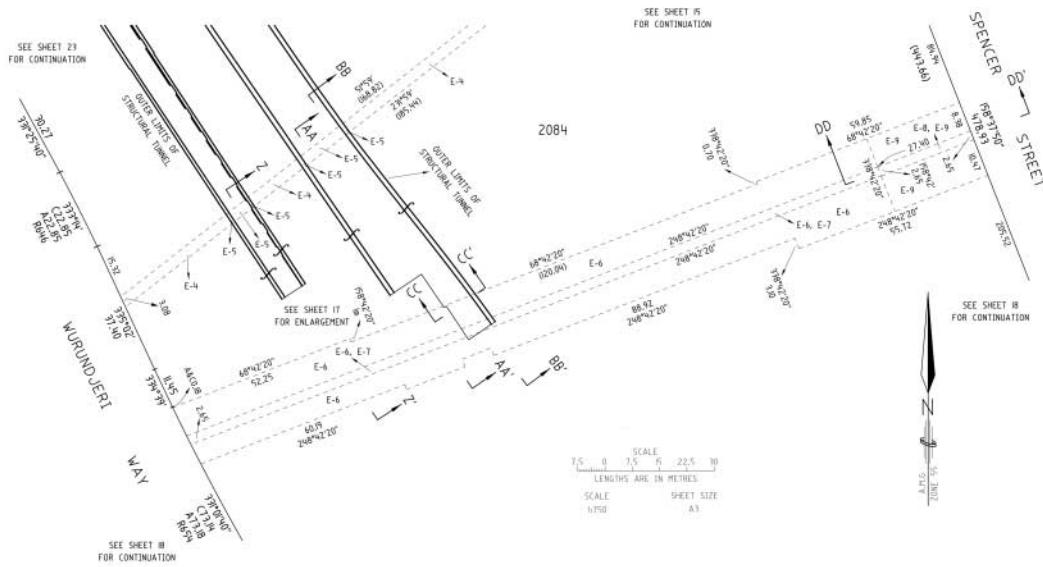

Pursuant to Section 206 and Schedule 10 Clause 3 of the Local Government Act 1989 the Swan Hill Rural City Council at its ordinary meeting held on 17 October 2006 formed the opinion that the road described above and as shown hatched on the plan below is not reasonably required as a road for public use. Council has resolved to discontinue the road and that the land from the road or parts thereof may be sold, and that the discontinuance will not affect any right, power or interest held by Lower Murray Water Authority and Powercor in the road in connection with any sewers, drains, pipes, pits, wires or cables under the control of those authorities in or near the road.

IAN COUPER
Acting Chief Executive Officer

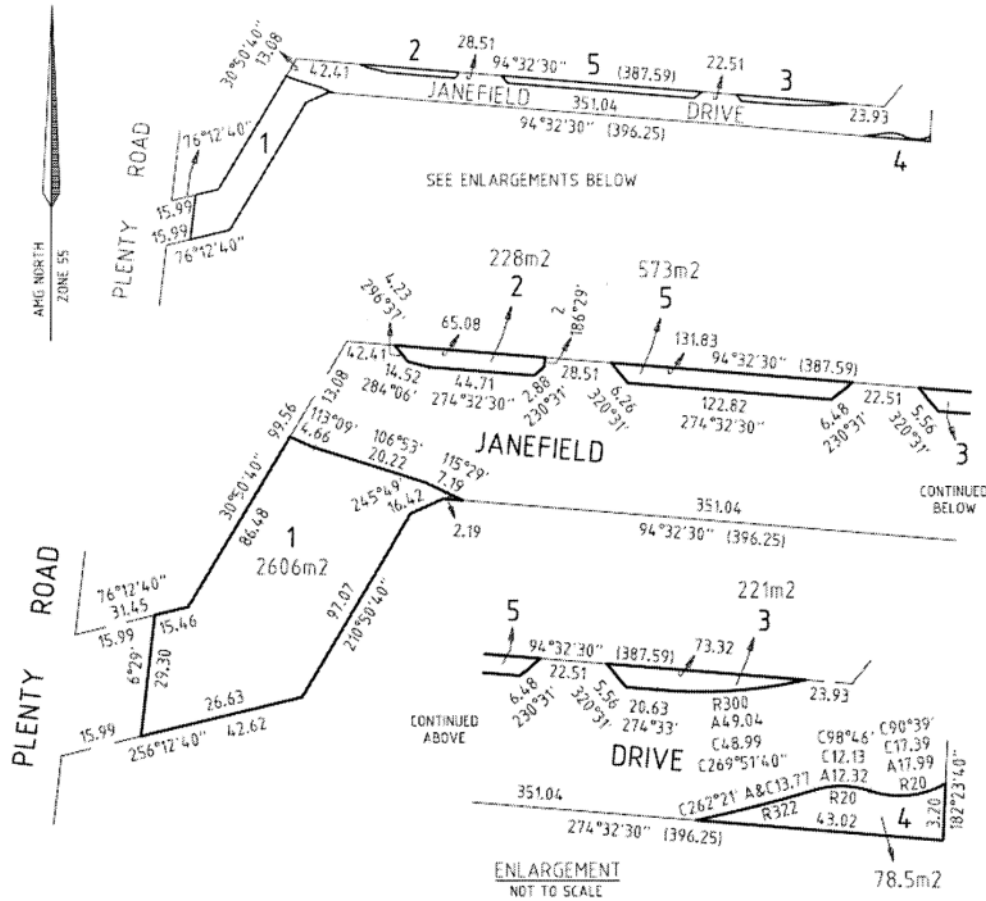

VICURBAN
Road Closure

VicUrban, acting pursuant to section 28(1)(a) of the Docklands Act 1991, has resolved to close the road over the Bourke Street Pedestrian Bridge, being the road marked E-6 and E-9 on the plan below between the depth and height shown at sections 'Z-Z', 'AA-AA', 'BB-BB', 'CC-CC' and 'DD-DD' on the plan below (Land). On closure of the road, the Land will vest in the Crown, with the intent that a conditional Crown Grant will issue to the Southern Cross Station Authority. Any Crown Grant issued for the Land will be subject to the right of all members of the public to enter onto and to go, pass and re-pass over the Land.

CITY OF WHITTLESEA
Road Discontinuance

Under Section 206 and Clause 3 of Schedule 10 of the Local Government Act 1989, the Whittlesea City Council at its Ordinary Meetings held on 22 March 2005 and 9 May 2006 resolved to discontinue five sections of Janefield Drive (shown marked 1 to 5 on the plan below).

G. BRENNAN
Chief Executive Officer

MORELAND CITY COUNCIL
Road Discontinuance

Pursuant to section 206 and schedule 10, clause 3 of the Local Government Act 1989, the Moreland City Council at its ordinary meeting held on 13 September 2006 formed the opinion that the road adjacent 286–298 Sydney Road, Brunswick, and shown by hatching on the plan below, is not reasonably required as a road for public use and resolved to discontinue the road and to sell the land from the road by private treaty to the abutting property owners.

The road is to be sold subject to the right, power or interest held by Yarra Valley Water Limited, in the road in connection with any sewers, drains or pipes under the control of that authority in or near the road.

PETER BROWN
Chief Executive Officer

CASEY CITY COUNCIL

Local Law No. 1 – Meeting Procedures and Use of the Common Seal

Notice is given that at a meeting of Casey City Council held on 17 October 2006, Council resolved to make Local Law No. 1 – Meeting Procedures and Use of the Common Seal Local Law pursuant to the Local Government Act 1989 (the Act).

The purpose of the Local Law is set out as follows:–

- A. Regulating the conduct of meetings of Council and Committees, as required by Section 91(1) of the Act.
- B. Regulating and controlling the procedures regarding the conduct of meetings of Council and Special and Advisory Committees.
- C. Regulating the use of the common seal of Council and prohibiting any unauthorised use of it, as required by Section 5(3)(c) of the Act; and
- D. Providing for the administration of Council powers and functions.

The general purport of the Local Law is that it:–

- Provides for a quorum, address for delivery of agendas, circulation of agendas and agendas for ordinary and special meetings.
- Provides for order of business and that meetings are open to the public.

- Provides for keeping and confirmation of minutes, reception of committee reports at ordinary meetings, suspension of the Local Law, public question time and deputations.
- Provides for notices of motion, general business and urgent business of ordinary meetings.
- Provides for election of Mayor and Chairperson's duties.
- Provides for procedure for moving a motion or amendments, divisions of the Council and debate.
- Provides for petitions and joint letters.
- Provides for requesting of documents and revocations and alteration of previous resolutions.
- Provides for a conclusion time of meetings, adjournment of meetings, formal motions and recording of proceedings.
- Provides for the Councillors' Code of Conduct, points of order, call to order and time limits.
- Provides for dealing with disorderly expressions, visitors and members of the public, directions to leave the Council Chamber, responsibility and offences.
- Provides for use and keeping of the common seal, a signature to accompany the seal and unauthorised use of the common seal.
- Provides for the role of an Authorised Officer, offences and penalties, infringement notices and service of notice.

A copy of the proposed Local Law may be inspected at the Council Offices, Magid Drive, Narre Warren or the Customer Service Centres at Centro Cranbourne and Amberley Park Drive, Narre Warren South.

MIKE TYLER
Chief Executive Officer

CITY OF WODONGA

Notice of Amendment to Road Management Plan

Wodonga City Council at its meeting of 16 October 2006 resolved pursuant to the provisions of Section 303 of the Road Management (General) Regulations 2005 to amend its Road Management Plan.

The purpose of the proposed amendment is to amend the inspection frequencies and some response times described in the plan, to insert some additional narrative describing the purpose of the plan in section 2.1(b) and some minor alterations to the road inspection report form.

All classes of roads described in Council's Register of Public Roads will be affected by this amendment.

A copy of the proposed amendment may be obtained or inspected at the Council Offices, 104 Hovell Street, Wodonga, during normal business hours.

Any person who is aggrieved by the proposed amendment may make a submission on the proposed amendment to Council within 28 days from the date this notice of the amendment is published in the Government Gazette.

Persons wishing to obtain additional information should contact Council's Manager Asset Services on (02) 6022 9300 during normal business hours.

Proposed Local Law No. 7

Meetings Procedure and Use of Common Seal

Notice is given that the Maroondah City Council, at its meeting held on 16 October 2006, made Local Law No. 7 Meetings Procedure and Use of Common Seal pursuant to the provisions of the Local Government Act 1989.

The purposes and general purport is to regulate –

1. the proceedings of Ordinary and Special Meetings of Maroondah City Council, such including procedures for motions and debate, quorums for meetings and the recording of minutes;
2. the manner in which the Mayor and Acting Chairman are to be elected;
3. the procedures for the use of the Common Seal of Council; and
4. the proceedings of special committees.

Local Law No. 7 will come into operation on 1 January 2007 with such replacing Local Law No. 3 that will be revoked on 31 December 2006.

A copy of the proposed Local Law may be inspected at the City Offices, Braeside Avenue, Ringwood, during normal office hours.

MICHAEL MARASCO
Chief Executive Officer

City of Whittlesea

Notice of Intention to Amend a Road Management Plan

The City of Whittlesea proposes to amend its Road Management Plan in accordance with Section 54 of the Road Management Act 2004.

The purpose of the amendment is to:

- update information relating to Council's Management Systems for road infrastructure;
- remove information relating to long-term financial needs and design standards;
- update and expand the performance standards in relation to the discharge of duties in the performance of road management functions on each classification of road; and
- supersede the existing Plan.

Copies of the Draft Plan may be obtained from Council's website (www.whittlesea.vic.gov.au), Council Libraries or from the Civic Centre in Ferres Boulevard, South Morang.

A copy of the associated City of Whittlesea Register of Public Roads may also be inspected at the Civic Centre or be viewed on Council's website.

Any person aggrieved by the proposed Road Management Plan may make a written submission by 24 November 2006 to the Director Infrastructure and Technology, City of Whittlesea, Locked Bag 1, Bundoora MDC 3083; or email to whittcc@whittlesea.vic.gov.au

The City of Ballarat has prepared Amendment C102 to the Ballarat Planning Scheme.

In accordance with section 9(2) of the Planning and Environment Act 1987, the Minister for Planning authorised the Ballarat Council as planning authority to prepare the Amendment.

The land affected by the Amendment are the areas within the City of Ballarat municipality that have been recognised as wildfire prone due to existing vegetation, land aspect and topography as shown by WMO maps 1, 2, 4, 7, 8, 9, 11, 12, 13, 16, 17, 18, 19, 23, 24, 25, 28, 29, 30, 31, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41 and 42. The Amendment generally covers the localities of Invermay, Mount Bolton, Glen Park, Canadian, Mount Clear, Mount Helen, Magpie, Buninyong and Durham Lead, though also includes other areas prone to wildfire around Ballarat.

The Amendment proposes to apply the Wildfire Management Overlay (WMO) to areas within the City of Ballarat where CFA high intensity risk mapping has been prepared. The evaluation of mapping indicates that the requirements of the overlay will reasonably contribute to reducing the potential effects of a high intensity fire. The WMO is used to identify areas where the fire intensity level of wildfire is significant and likely to pose a threat to life and property.

You may inspect the Amendment, any documents that support the Amendment and the explanatory report about the Amendment at the following locations: at the office of the planning authority, City of Ballarat, Phoenix Building, 25 Armstrong Street, Ballarat 3350 or the Town Hall, Sturt Street, Ballarat 3350; Department of Sustainability and Environment, South West Regional Office, 402–406 Mair Street, Ballarat 3350; and at the Department of Sustainability and Environment, Planning Information Centre, Ground Floor, 8 Nicholson Street, East Melbourne.

This can be done during office hours and is free of charge.

Any person who may be affected by the Amendment may make a submission to the planning authority.

The closing date for submissions is Friday 15 December at 5.00 pm.

A submission must be in writing and sent to the City of Ballarat, Phoenix Building, 25 Armstrong Street (PO Box 655), Ballarat 3350.

The City of Ballarat is holding two public consultation sessions on the Wildfire Management Overlay: Buninyong Town Hall, 406 Yuille Street, Buninyong, Tuesday 21 November at 7.30 pm, and Ballarat Town Hall, Trench Room, Sturt Street, Ballarat, Tuesday 5 December at 7.30 pm.

All interested community members are invited to attend.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A244/2006

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act") by Casway Pty Ltd trading as Yvonne Allen & Associates ("the applicant"). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to –

- (a) refuse to provide its services to any person who is married and not separated from their spouse;
- (b) obtain information from members and potential members of its service for the purpose of matching those members and potential members, including information about their attributes within the meaning of the Act;

- (c) advise potential members that because of their attributes and the attributes preferred by members of the service, it will be difficult to find a match for them where this advice is based on information in the possession of the applicant;
- (d) provide a range of membership programs with corresponding membership fees/ prices (including discounts and nil fees), which vary depending on the potential member's age;
- (e) advertise and hold social functions restricted to particular age groups of members and potential members, with a discounted or nil price for those functions based on the sex and age of the member or potential member;
- (f) advertise or search on behalf of members for potential partners, where such advertisements or information may include information about the potential partner's desired attributes within the meaning of the Act, and to offer one or more free introductions to potential members based on attributes within the meaning of the Act.

In this exemption the conduct referred to in paragraphs (a) to (f) is called the "specified conduct".

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application and upon hearing submissions from Ms Allen and for the Reasons for Decision given by the Tribunal on 17 October 2006, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 25 October 2009.

Dated 17 October 2006

Deputy President

EXEMPTION

Application No. A288/2006

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act"), by the Brotherhood of St Laurence ("the applicant"). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to promote employment opportunities for persons of an Indigenous background within the Brotherhood of St Laurence ("the specified conduct").

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted that:

- The Brotherhood of St Laurence is an independent organisation committed to working towards ending poverty in Australia.
- The applicant has developed an Indigenous Recruitment Policy in recognition of the importance and benefits of employing Indigenous Australians, and the need to increase the employment opportunities for Indigenous Australians who are under-represented in the work force.
- In order to provide employment opportunities for marginalised sectors, the applicant wishes to obtain an exemption under the Act to promote Indigenous employment in a variety of roles, and to make the Indigenous community aware of selected roles as they become available.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which the notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 25 October 2009.

Dated 18 October 2006

JUDGE SANDRA DAVIS
Vice President

EXEMPTION

Application No. A297/2006

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act") by Wantirna Heights School ("the applicant"). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male person only in the position of teacher assistant at Wantirna Heights School ("the specified conduct").

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The role involves working with a male student and requires the incumbent to perform some personal care duties, including supervision with toileting and changing for swimming classes.
- The applicant's staff is predominantly female, and the applicant seeks to employ a male teacher assistant to provide an appropriate male role model for the student.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 25 October 2009.

Vice President

EXEMPTION

Application No. A299/2006

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act") by Norwood Association Incorporated ("the applicant"). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and recruit for the position of Community Liaison Worker (part time) with the Association, specifying as a mandatory criterion for selection that applicants must be a current or past user of mental health services ("the specified conduct").

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant provides services to people with psychiatric and mental disabilities, including outreach programs and supported accommodation designed to help those people to live independently or as independently as they are able within the community.
- The applicant wishes to recruit a person who has experienced the use of mental health services to the position of Community Liaison Worker, as it is felt that such persons are able to communicate better with the users of the applicant's services because they have shared experience and understanding and are in a better position to listen to and communicate the concerns of the users of the service.
- The applicant was granted a previous exemption in similar terms in November 2002.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 25 October 2009.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A307/2006

The Victorian Civil & Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by St Vincent's Health (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a Koori person in the position of Koori Health Liaison Worker at the Metropolitan Remand Centre and Marngoneet Correctional Centre ("the specified conduct").

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application by Ms Sharon Hearn of St Vincent's Health, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- St Vincent's Health is responsible for the provision of primary healthcare services at Marngoneet Correctional Centre, a male medium security prison and the Metropolitan Remand Centre, a maximum security facility accommodating predominantly unsentenced male prisoners.
- The Indigenous population is over-represented amongst the prison population in Australia and suffers from poorer health compared with non-Indigenous Australians.
- The Koori Health Liaison Officer will provide support and advocacy to Koori offenders at St Vincent's Correctional Health Services at the Metropolitan Remand Centre and Marngoneet Correctional Centre.
- The Koori Health Liaison Officer will provide a pivotal link between Koori patients and the mainstream health services.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 25 October 2009.

Application No. A287/2006

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by Wesley Mission Melbourne (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Indigenous person in the WHISH program ("the specified conduct").

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted that:

- the applicant provides a range of services for young people, people in crisis, people experiencing homelessness, older people, people with disabilities, and people with Huntington's Disease.
- The incumbent will work primarily with the Office of Housing tenants, where approximately 50% of those tenancies are at risk due to family violence and who require advocacy and assistance in relation to their housing.
- In the applicant's experience, Indigenous people are reluctant to engage with a service which they believe is not culturally appropriate or culturally sensitive to their needs.
- The applicant wishes to employ an Indigenous person in the WHISH program to assist in providing a service which is sensitive and appropriate to the needs of the Indigenous community.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 25 October 2009.

Application No. A303/2006

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by Swan Hill Rural City Council (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and appoint a person of an Indigenous Australian background to a Koori Business traineeship (“the specified conduct”).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted that:

- the applicant wishes to support Indigenous employment opportunities within the Robinvale township which has a significant Indigenous population.
- The applicant seeks to encourage further study and provide training opportunities to Indigenous youth by specifying that a person of an Indigenous background be appointed to the Koori Business traineeship.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 25 October 2009.

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by Eastern Domestic Violence Outreach Service Inc (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ female staff only (“the specified conduct”).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted that:

- the applicant provides support, counselling, referral and advocacy services to women and children experiencing domestic violence in the eastern region of Melbourne.
- The applicant’s clients have expressed a preference for female staff as they have suffered violence at the hands of predominately male perpetrators.
- Due to the nature of the difficulties experienced by the applicant’s clients, it is appropriate for the applicant to be granted an exemption to allow it employ female staff only.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 25 October 2009.

FISHERIES NOTICE NO. 7/2006

I, Peter Appleford, Executive Director Fisheries Victoria as delegate of the Minister for Agriculture, after consultation with the Fisheries Co-Management Council and the Victorian Commercial Fishing peak body (Seafood Industry Victoria) make the following Fisheries Notice:

Dated 20 October 2006

Dr PETER APPLEFORD
Executive Director Fisheries Victoria

FISHERIES (PORT PHILLIP BAY LONG LINE TEAM FISHING) NOTICE NO. 7/2006

1. Title
This Notice may be cited as the Fisheries (Port Phillip Bay Long Line Team Fishing) Notice No. 7/2006.
  2. Objectives
The objective of this Notice is to permit team fishing (the joint operation of two or more licences from the same boat) under specified conditions when the holders or nominated operators of Western Port/Port Phillip Bay Fishery Access Licences are engaged in long line fishing in Port Phillip Bay.
  3. Authorising provision
This Notice is made under section 152(1)(b) of the Fisheries Act 1995.
  4. Commencement
This Notice comes into operation on the day it is published in the Victoria Government Gazette.
  5. Long line team fishing
Despite regulation 302(2)(e) of the Fisheries Regulations 1998, joint long line fishing operations may be conducted in Port Phillip Bay from the same boat by the holders or nominated operators of two or more Western Port/Port Phillip Bay Fishery Access Licences under the following conditions –
    - (a) A maximum of three licences may be operated together in any long line team fishing operation; and
    - (b) Licence holders or nominated operators engaged in a Port Phillip Bay long line team fishing operation must not jointly use or possess more than 600 hooks if three licences are operating together or 400 hooks if two licences are operating together; and
    - (c) The licence numbers of all licences being jointly operated in a long line team fishing operation must be identified and specified on each licence involved in the team fishing operation; and
    - (d) One of the licences being jointly operated in a long line team fishing operation must be nominated as the 'Master Licence' and must be identified and specified as such on each licence that is involved in the team fishing operation. The holder or nominated operator of the 'Master Licence' is deemed responsible for the conduct of all other persons participating in the team fishing operation.
- Note: It is an offence under section 53(1) of the Act for a licence holder to fail to comply with the conditions of his or her licence. The penalty for that offence is 50 penalty units or 100 penalty units if the offence involves a priority species or breach of a designated licence condition.
6. Revocation
Unless sooner revoked, this Notice will be automatically revoked 12 months after the day on which this Fisheries Notice commences.

Victorian Qualifications Authority Act 2000
(as amended April 2005)

In accordance with the Victorian Qualifications Authority Act 2000, as amended April 2005, fees for the following categories have been fixed by the Minister, commencing 1 January 2007.

- (1) Investigation of a qualification, course or part of a course to determine whether it should be registered as accredited.
- (2) Registration of an education and training organisation to:
  - i. provide accredited qualifications and courses;
  - ii. issue vocational education and training (VET) qualifications.
