Local Law 2006 No.10

Notice is given pursuant to Section 119(3) of the Local Government Act 1989, that Frankston City Council, at its meeting held on 23 October 2006, resolved to make Shopping Trolley Local Law 2006 No. 10.

The Local Law:

- (i) requires retailers to have coin mechanisms attached to shopping trolleys, in cases where the retailers make available for use more than 25 shopping trolleys; and
- (ii) makes it an offence to leave a shopping trolley on a road or in a municipal place, except in an area designated for that purpose.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A298 of 2006

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal, has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by the Department of Education and Training ("the applicant"). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and offer places in the Eleanor Davis School Leadership Program 2007–2009 to eligible female employees only ("the specified conduct").

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including an affidavit of Ms Dina Guest, Office of School Education, Department of Education and Training, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted that:

- The Victorian Government has a commitment to ensuring that women are well-represented in positions of leadership within the community.
- While the proportion of women in leadership positions is increasing, women occupy a disproportionately small number of decision-making positions, with women currently making up 71% of the profession, but occupying only 42% of school principal positions.
- The Victorian Government's Leading with Victoria's Women 2004-2007 – Forward Plan seeks to raise the status of women as leaders and decision-makers through the provision of school leadership programs, professional development and increasing women's skills and expertise for positions of leadership.
- The Eleanor Davis School Leadership Program is a state-wide professional learning program designed by the Department of Education and Training to increase the number of women in Principal or Assistant Principal positions.
- The Program works towards the goal of substantive equality for women in the area of leadership within schools by providing support to increase the number of women in leadership roles.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 2 November 2009.

Dated 24 October 2006.

HER HONOUR JUDGE DAVIS
Vice President

EXEMPTION

Application No. A256/2006

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Australian Grand Prix Corporation (the applicant) for exemption from sections 42, 98, 100 and 195 of that Act. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

In this exemption, "specified conduct" means any of the following:

- to issue, for use by women only, at discounted prices, admission tickets to the "Traction facility". Such tickets may be for an individual or for a group, and discounts may vary according to whether the ticket is for an individual or a group or according to the size of the group;
- to refuse entry to the Traction facility to a man who seeks entry by using one of the above discounted tickets;
- to offer for sale for use by women, before they are offered for sale to men, tickets (including discounted tickets) to the Traction facility;
- to ask potential or actual purchasers of tickets to the Traction facility whether those tickets are to be used by men or women;
- to advertise in relation to the above matters, in any form, whether electronic or otherwise, including advertisements as to discounts, dates and conditions;
- to request, instruct, encourage, authorise or assist any of its employees, agents or consultants to do anything in relation to the above matters.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application and upon hearing submissions from Mr McQuillen, Ms Heard and Mr Bamford and for the Reasons for Decision given by the Tribunal on 30 October 2006, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 42, 98, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 42, 98, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is subject to the following conditions –

1. If, on pre-release, or as discounted tickets, more than fifty per cent of the total tickets to the Traction facility on a day at the Australian Grand Prix are sold to women, the applicant must either not offer further tickets for sale for use by women or enlarge the Traction facility so as to permit a greater total number of tickets to be sold.
2. The applicant must, in writing, advise the Tribunal as soon as possible after it becomes aware that an approximate gender balance has existed in respect of attendees at the Traction facility on each day of an Australian Grand Prix. The Tribunal will then review the need for a continuing exemption.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 November 2009.
