EXEMPTION

Application No. A31 of 2006

The Victorian Civil & Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by the Department of Human Services (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to give preference to persons of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander descent in the recruitment for sixteen equivalent full time positions for the Aboriginal Health Promotion and Chronic Care (AHPACC) Partnership ("the specified conduct").

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- there are significant inequalities in the health status of Aboriginal Victorians compared to non-Aboriginal Victorians. The life expectancy of Aboriginal Victorians is seventeen years less compared to the rest of the population, and there is a greater likelihood of hospitalisation, and at a much earlier age for diabetes, renal disease, cardiovascular disease and respiratory diseases.
- The sixteen positions for the AHPACC Partnership will have a role in contributing to the prevention and better management of chronic disease in Aboriginal people.
- The DHS Aboriginal Service Plan 2004 notes that improved outcomes can only be achieved if effective and respectful partnerships are established with Aboriginal people, communities and organisations and that these partnerships must ensure that Aboriginal people are actively involved in the planning, development and delivery of health services.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 9 February 2009.

Heritage Act 1995*NOTICE OF REGISTRATION

As Executive Director for the purpose of the Heritage Act 1995, I give notice under section 46 that the Victorian Heritage Register is amended in that the Heritage Register Number 824 in the category described as a Heritage Place is now described as:

Bindley House, 20–22 Powlett Street, Kilmore, Mitchell Shire Council.

1. All the building known as Bindley House, Kilmore marked B1 on Diagram Number 824 held by the Executive Director.
2. All the land marked L1 on Diagram Number 824 held by the Executive Director, being all the land described in Certificate of Title Volume 9897, Folio 954.

Dated 9 February 2006

RAY TONKIN
Executive Director

2. All of the land (including any archaeological remains) marked L1 on Diagram 1550 held by the Executive Director.

NB: The remnants of an 1877 open shelter shed on cast iron posts was identified in 1996, in what was then Yard No. 3 of the prison, in the Bendigo Prison Complex Conservation Management Plan by Bryce Raworth and Roger Beeston. This shelter shed was considered historically important as a rare example of a once common building type within Victoria's gaols.

This piece of fabric appears to have been removed and was not identified on site in 2003 when the prison was visited by officers of Heritage Victoria. Due to the difficulties in inspecting all parts of a working prison, this shelter shed may still be extant in some part of the place. Should this shelter shed still be on site, it too is included in this extent of registration.

Dated 9 February 2006

Executive Director
