EXEMPTION

Application No. A77/2006

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (“the Act”), by Bella Donna Health Clubs (“the applicant”). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to employ women only and offer membership exclusively to women only and to advertise those matters (“the specified conduct”).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including an affidavit of Mr John Baratta, Bella Donna Health Clubs, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 42, 59, 65, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted that:

- the applicant was previously operated as a Fernwood Womens Health Club with a women only membership and staff and is continuing to operate with the same membership and staff.
- Fernwood Womens Health Clubs Pty Ltd was granted an exemption from Sections 13, 42, 59, 65, 100 and 195 of the Act by the Tribunal on 20 January 2005 which expires on 26 January 2008 to enable it to provide its services to women only and staff its centres with women only and to advertise those matters.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 42, 59, 65, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which the notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 30 March 2009.

Dated 22 March 2006.

HER HONOUR
JUDGE SANDRA DAVIS
Vice President

EXEMPTION

Application No. A72/2006

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by the Australian Council for Educational Research Limited (“the applicant”). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and appoint a person of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent to the position of Researcher, Indigenous Programs (“the specified conduct”).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including an affidavit of Mr John Ainley, Deputy CEO (Research), Australian Council for Educational Research Limited (ACER), the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted that:

- the purposes of the position of Researcher, Indigenous Programs include promoting a stronger understanding of ACER’s Indigenous education programs amongst ACER non-Indigenous education research programs and developing links with key Indigenous representative groups in the education sector.
- The Researcher, Indigenous Programs role requires a person with extensive knowledge and experience in dealing with Indigenous communities, together with a strong appreciation of issues of cross-cultural communications and Indigenous cultural traditions.
- Employment of a person of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander background in the position of Researcher, Indigenous Programs will provide an opportunity for an Indigenous person to develop research strengths within a context of high level research expertise and support.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which the notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 23 March 2009.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A76/2006

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by the Museums Board of Victoria (“the applicant”). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person to the position of Curator Indigenous Cultures (Southeastern Australia) (“the specified conduct”).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including an affidavit of Ms Kristy Hall, Recruitment and Training Coordinator, Museum Victoria, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted that:

- the Curator Indigenous Cultures (Southeastern Australia) role requires a person who is able to foster relationships with key members of the Aboriginal community and has a comprehensive understanding of Aboriginal communities.
- The appointment of an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person in the role of Curator Indigenous Cultures (Southeastern Australia) will assist in fulfilling the objectives of the applicant’s Aboriginal Employment and Career Development Strategy, which seeks to encourage Aboriginal people to apply for positions that require knowledge of Aboriginal culture and society and skills in communicating with Aboriginal people.
- The applicant wishes to demonstrate its commitment to the Reconciliation Partnership Agreement and the appointment of an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person to the role of Curator Indigenous Cultures (Southeastern Australia) will enable the applicant to do so.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which the notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 30 March 2009.

Dated 21 March 2006.

HER HONOUR
JUDGE SANDRA DAVIS
Vice President

EXEMPTION

Application No. A43/2006

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by Kingston City Council – Don Tatnell Leisure Centre (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to conduct women only swimming sessions at its Don Tatnell Leisure Centre, Mordialloc, out of normal operating hours and to advertise for and employ women only to staff the centre during those swimming sessions.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including the affidavit of Paul Franklin and the additional material supplied by Alexia Morgan, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 14, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to conduct women only swimming sessions at its Don Tatnell Leisure Centre, Mordialloc, out of normal operating hours and to advertise for and employ women only to staff the centre during those swimming sessions.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- the program caters to a community of women and girls who currently cannot participate in swimming activities when men are present because of their cultural and religious beliefs. The women's only swimming environment includes the provision of female staff to further ensure that the program is culturally sensitive.

- The program acknowledges that due to their gender and associated religious beliefs some women are currently being disadvantaged through restricted opportunities to access and participate in swimming activities at Don Tatnell Leisure Centre.
- The program is provided after hours and does therefore not discriminate against current users of the Centre, it is offering an extended service to a currently marginalised community.
- The program allows women of diverse cultural backgrounds the opportunity to communicate and socialise with each other, and foster a greater understanding and encourage the sharing of each other's cultural and religious beliefs.
- If the program were to cease a group of women and girls who were improving their health and social connectedness through the swimming program would be disadvantaged.
- Compliance with Best Value legislation requires Council to 'respond to community needs' and make programs 'accessible to the people who they are intended for'. Council is not seeking to profit from this program but to offer it as a community service.
- The program has been operating for 3 years and the applicant had an exemption A408/2002 in similar terms which expired on 5 February 2006 and there have been no recent complaints or concerns raised.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 14, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to conduct women only swimming sessions at its Don Tatnell Leisure Centre, Mordialloc, out of normal operating hours and to advertise for and employ women only to staff the centre during those swimming sessions.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 30 March 2009.
