CITY OF MONASH

Notice of Intention of Council to Amend the Current Road Management Plan

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to Section 54 of the Road Management Act 2004, the City of Monash intends to amend its Road Management Plan.

The purpose of the plan is to provide a safe and efficient road network, and establish a management system for the road assets with regard to affordability, available resources, policies and strategies of the City of Monash.

The purpose of the amendment is to better align resource allocation with the function and use of Council's public road network. This will result in some changes to the road classifications; inspection frequencies; intervention levels; and response timeframes. All roads contained in Council's Register of Public Roads will be affected.

Copies of both the adopted and proposed amended Road Management Plans are available for inspection between the hours 9.00 am – 5.00 pm, Monday to Friday at the Civic Centre, 293 Springvale Road, Glen Waverley; and the Oakleigh Service Centre, 3 Atherton Road, Oakleigh; or can be downloaded from Council's website, www.monash.vic.gov.au.

Any person who is aggrieved by the proposed amendments can make a submission, in writing, and addressed to the Director Infrastructure Services, City of Monash, Post Office Box 1, Glen Waverley 3150, or email to mail@monash.vic.gov.au, no later than 4.00 pm Wednesday 10 May 2006.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A16/2006

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (“the Act”), by Upwey Dance – dance for adults (“the applicant”). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to run adult dance classes for women only (“the specified conduct”).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including an affidavit of Ms Paula Russell, of Upwey Dance – dance for adults, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 42, 65, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted that:

- The dance classes contemplated by the applicant will promote fitness and self-esteem amongst the women who attend.
- The applicant wishes to create a safe, non-threatening space for women participating in different forms of movement and physical activity.
- Women's only dance classes will provide a comfortable environment for women with body image problems or who have a history of sexual or domestic abuse.
- Other dance classes in the area offer mixed-gender classes which are able to be accessed by men.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 42, 65, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which the notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 6 April 2009.

Dated 30 March 2006

JUDGE SANDRA DAVIS
Vice President

EXEMPTION

Application No. A79/2006

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act"), by the Royal Botanic Gardens Board ("the applicant"). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ Aboriginal persons as casual Aboriginal Tour Guides to conduct guided tours for the Royal Botanic Gardens ("the specified conduct").

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including an affidavit of Ms Rosanne Monahan, Royal Botanic Gardens Board, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted that:

- The aims of the tour guide positions include to create a collaborative partnership between the Royal Botanic Gardens, the Inter-Council Aboriginal Consultative Committee, Local Government, the ancestral custodial group and the wider community.
- It is important that the tour guides be accepted as Aboriginal persons by the relevant Aboriginal community as this will lead to community support, credibility and better outcomes.
- The tour guides will be in a position to create a strong link between Aboriginal community groups and Gardens to foster understanding and commitment to the ongoing success of the tours.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which the notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 6 April 2009.

Chinese Medicine Registration Act 2000

Following a formal hearing into the professional conduct of Mr Watson Ben Zhi Zhu, registration number AH/383, formerly registered in the division of Chinese herbal medicine practitioners and the division of acupuncturists, a panel appointed by the Chinese Medicine Registration Board of Victoria found that Mr Zhu had obtained registration with the Board by fraud or misrepresentation. As a result of this determination the Board was obliged by section 16(4) of the Act to cancel his registration. The Panel further found that Mr Zhu had engaged in unprofessional conduct within the meaning of section 3(b) and including misconduct as per section 3(c) of the Act and further that he engaged in unprofessional conduct of a serious nature.

The Panel determined that the registration of Mr Zhu as a Chinese medicine practitioner should be cancelled and also imposed a fine of $3,000 and made this determination effective immediately.
