EXEMPTION

Application No. A215/2006

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act"), by Tenants Union of Victoria Ltd ("the applicant"). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a female only as a Community Project Worker for the Somali Women's Community Leadership Project ("the specified conduct").

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including an affidavit of Ms Melinda Kay Tew of Tenants Union of Victoria Ltd, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted that:

- the aim of the Somali Women's Community Leadership Project is to improve Somali women's knowledge of Australian systems such as social security and taxation and to provide the women with an opportunity to develop new skills to achieve a greater capacity for economic independence and community leadership.
- The Somali Women's Community Leadership Project will train the target group of women in effective communication and negotiation, dispute resolution, advocacy, financial literacy, tenancy rights and responsibilities and community leadership.
- It is appropriate for a female to occupy the role of Community Project Worker as a female project worker can more appropriately respond to questions regarding women's issues, particularly with respect to women's health, domestic violence or issues facing single mothers.

- The applicant considers that due to the pronounced gender divide between Somali men and women, employing a male worker in the Somali Women's Community Leadership Project could be viewed as culturally inappropriate by the Somali community and may undermine the legitimacy of the project.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which the notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 10 August 2009.

Application No. A187/2006

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act"), by YSAS Pty Ltd ("the applicant"). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ persons of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander descent in positions at the Koori Youth Alcohol & Drug Healing Service ("the specified conduct").

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including an affidavit of Charlie Stewart of YSAS Pty Ltd, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted that:

- YSAS Pty Ltd provides services for young people who are experiencing problems relating to drug and alcohol abuse and is the largest specialist provider of youth drug treatment services in Victoria.

- The applicant, in partnership with Ngwala Willumbong Co-operative Ltd, will implement a state wide Koori Youth Alcohol and Drug Healing Service to provide opportunities for young Koori people to deal with their drug and alcohol issues, receive guidance in reaching their goals and develop their skills and talents.
- The Koori Youth Alcohol and Drug Healing Service will run a 12 bed residential rehabilitation service for Koori people aged between 15 and 20 years of age with alcohol and drug related problems.
- The rehabilitation service will provide education and integrate aspects of Koori culture, and it is appropriate for persons of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander descent to occupy positions at the Koori Youth Alcohol & Drug Healing Service to increase the legitimacy of the service, particularly in its focus on Koori culture.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which the notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 10 August 2009.

Water Act 1989*CENTRAL GIPPSLAND REGION WATER AUTHORITY*Trade Waste By-Law (No. 14)

Pursuant to section 161(1)(b) of the Water Act 1989, notice is hereby given that the Central Gippsland Region Water Authority has made a Trade Waste By-Law (No. 14) which received ministerial approval on 26 June 2006.

By-Law number 14 repeals the existing By-Law number 8.

The new By-Law is part of a broader reform of the terms and conditions that Gippsland Water has set out for the receipt of trade waste. The broader reforms are contained in Gippsland Water's new Trade Waste Policy. The new policy and new By-Law will apply in respect of all trade waste discharged into Gippsland Water's sewerage system under trade waste agreements that are issued by Gippsland Water.

The objectives of this By-Law are:

- a) to protect the environment;
- b) to protect the health and safety of members of the public and the Authority's employees;
- c) to protect the Authority's sewerage infrastructure and associated assets;
- d) to maximise opportunities for reusing treated effluent and bio-solids;
- e) to recover the true costs associated with the receipt, carriage, treatment and disposal of trade waste and maintenance and repair for the Authority's sewerage system through the implementation of fees and charges;
- f) to encourage waste minimisation and cleaner production initiatives including waste prevention, recycling and pre-treatment of trade waste.

This will be achieved by:

- a) regulating the discharge of trade waste into the Authority's wastewater system and wastewater treatment plants;
- b) providing for the management of the receipt of trade waste and other liquid waste by the Authority, including the inspection, measurement, monitoring and testing of trade waste and the provision of information to the Authority by any person whose trade waste or other liquid waste the Authority may receive, including through a system of trade waste agreement;
- c) giving recognition to the Authority's Trade Waste Management System as a key policy instrument specifying methods of charging by the Authority for the receipt of trade waste and other liquid waste by the Authority, including explaining the basis for trade waste charges approved by the Essential Services Commission and resolution of the Authority, the recovery of the Authority's cost of inspection, measurement, monitoring, testing, treatment, receipt or disposal of any person's trade waste or other liquid waste;
- d) imposing penalties for the contravention by a person of this By-Law or any terms and conditions of that person's trade waste agreement or of the Trade Waste Policy;
- e) prescribing certain waste as trade waste for the purposes of the Act and of this By-Law.

A copy of the By-Law is available for inspection free of charge at the Authority's office, 55 Hazelwood Road, Traralgon, during normal business hours or can be viewed at www.gippswater.com.au.
