The Amendment applies to the following sites and proposes to:

1. High Street, Marong north end of township [map 6]: rezone land from Farming Zone to Township Zone. The land is in 6 lots of 4290 sqm. and 1 lot of 6000 sqm. and immediately adjoins existing Township zone land. 5 of the lots are developed with dwellings. The 2 vacant sites are also suitable for dwellings. No overlays apply to the land.
2. 29 Barrell Street, California Gully [map 18]: rezone land from Public Use Zone 7 to Residential 1 Zone. The land is freehold developed with an existing dwelling.
3. 55 Clymo Road, Eaglehawk [map 14]: rezone land from Public Park and Recreation Zone to Farming Zone. The land is freehold developed with an existing dwelling.

HO82 refers to 80B Barkly Terrace – Strachlaulan building – which is the single storey gothic cottage at the rear of the land and which is affected by HO83. 80 Barkly Terrace comprises former grounds of the Strachlaulan building and the overlay may have intended to recognise this. It is considered HO1 Barnard St. precinct is more appropriate for the site.

Application No. A194/2006

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by Council of Single Mothers and Their Children Incorporated (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ only women who are or have been single mothers and their daughters.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including the affidavits of Ms L. Benjamin, Ms C. Penver, Ms T. Fregon and Ms J. Stanley and upon hearing the evidence of Ms Stanley, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ only women who are or have been single mothers and their daughters.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant was incorporated under the Associations Incorporation Act 1981 on 7 October 1987. In its constitution, its statement and purposes are described as including – to provide an information and counselling service to single mothers to provide direct material and financial aid to single mothers to provide housing in the form of shared accommodation to homeless single mothers to provide advice, referral and advocacy for housing assistance for single mothers to provide educational resources and to overturn the social, economic and legal discrimination against single mothers

the members of the Association must be single mothers.

- The people employed by the applicant are made up of five female part-time employees. All employees are required to assist in all areas of the organisation, including answering telephones, speaking with single mothers who contact the applicant, representing the applicant at community events and speaking at forums and the like on issues relating to single mothers and their children. The applicant seeks to employ a further part-time worker to develop its programmes.
- The applicant is funded principally by the Victorian Government through the Department of Human Services and it receives some funding from the Re Ross Trust to distribute a limited amount of emergency relief payments to single mothers and their families. The applicant has also been awarded a grant by the Department of Families, Community Services and Indigenous Affairs to establish a network of support groups across the outer metropolitan area.
- Many single mothers suffer significant disadvantage including social isolation, financial difficulties and emotional distress and the inherent difficulty of raising children alone. Single mothers and their daughters are likely to have experienced first-hand the difficulties and challenges faced by single mothers and can more readily identify with people who have had a similar experience. For this reason it is important that the applicant employ women who are or have been single mothers and their daughters.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ only women who are or have been single mothers and their daughters.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 11 August 2009.

Water Act 1989

PERMANENT WATER SAVING RULES

GWMWater advises of the introduction of Permanent Water Saving Rules from 12 midnight on Friday 1 September 2006. The Minister for Water approved the Permanent Water Saving Rules on 8 June 2006. The Rules, which are aimed at providing long-term water savings for the benefit of the entire community, will only apply to urban water supply systems operated by GWMWater when staged water restrictions are not in place.

The five Permanent Water Saving Rules are:

- 1 Automatic watering systems (that are set to turn on and off automatically or are set to turn off automatically after a set period of time) may only be used to water gardens and lawns between 10.00 pm and 10.00 am, any day of the week. This applies to all private and public gardens and sporting and recreation areas.
- 2 Manual watering systems (that are turned on and off by hand) may only be used to water gardens and lawns between 8.00 pm and 10.00 am, any day of the week. This applies to all private and public gardens and sporting and recreation areas.
- 3 A hand held hose must be fitted with a trigger nozzle and may be used to clean your car and water your gardens and lawns any time.
- 4 Hosing down driveways, paths, concrete, timber decking or any other paved area is not permitted. There are exceptions to this rule in the case of an accident, fire or identifiable health or safety hazard.
- 5 Before filling a new pool or spa with a capacity of 2,000 litres or more a Water Conservation Plan must be submitted to and approved by GWMWater that identifies water saving measures within the property as a trade-off to cover the volume of the pool or spa to be filled.

A full copy of the Permanent Water Saving Rules, Water Conservation Plan application forms and general exemption application forms are available on the GWMWater website at www.gwmwater.org.au or by contacting GWMWater on 1300 659 961.
