NOTICE OF DECISION

Victoria State Emergency Service Regulations 2006

I, Tim Holding, Minister for Police & Emergency Services, and Minister administering the Victoria State Emergency Service Act 2005, give notice under section 12 of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1994, as follows:

The objective of the proposed Victoria State Emergency Service Regulations 2006 is to provide for the effective management of the Victoria State Emergency Service. Its specific objectives are to provide for:

- discipline of registered members and probationary members of VICSES;
- the development and provision of exercises and training of registered members of VICSES;
- the cessation of membership of VICSES;
- the VICSES' insignia; and
- other matters, such as criminal record checks for applicants for registration as a probationary or registered member.

The proposed Victoria State Emergency Service Regulations 2006 and Regulatory Impact Statement have been advertised for public comment.

No submissions on the proposed Regulations were received. Consequently I have decided that the proposed Regulations should be made without amendment.

TIM HOLDING MP
Minister for Police &
Emergency Services
