EXEMPTION

Application No. A13/2007

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Central Highlands Women's Collective Inc. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to restrict employment to women only within the service operated by the Collective.

Upon reading the material submitted by Lynden Baxter, Program Manager of the Applicant in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to restrict employment to women only within the service operated by the Collective.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The Applicant provides for the needs of women and children suffering domestic violence.
- The Applicant offers referral to other established services both local and metropolitan.
- The Applicant also offers a community education program concerning domestic violence.
- Women who have been victims of domestic violence find it less threatening to come to other womens' assistance and be more likely to access the service if it is staffed by women.
- The Tribunal notes the applicant has previously been granted two exemptions, Number 43 of 1999 which expired on 11 August 2002, and Number A385 of 2003 which expired on 31 October 2006.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to restrict employment to women only within the service operated by the Collective.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 18 January 2010.
