EXEMPTION

Application No. A75/2007

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Metropolitan Ambulance Service. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to employ an Aboriginal Project officer so that only Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders may apply for the position (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt Conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- Indigenous people in Victoria are unlikely to call for an ambulance in a medical emergency due to a lack of understanding about ambulance services, past perceived injustices from Government organisations and a lack of cultural knowledge within the ambulance service in Victoria.
- This position will work directly with Aboriginal and organisations in order to build relationships and better understanding within the ambulance services.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the Exempt Conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 March 2010.

Dated 20 March 2007

Vice President

EXEMPTION

Application No. A74/2007

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Caulfield Community Health Service. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for a facilitator/group leader for the women's coming out support group for a female who identifies as same sex attracted (the Exempt Conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the Exempt Conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The Women's coming out support group is a support group for women who are attracted to women only and experiencing issues around coming out.
- The same sex facilitator is also the same sex attracted so as they may relate and provide the required support to those persons.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the Exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 March 2010.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A68/2007

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by P. and A. Shelper Pty Ltd, trading as Hampton Ladies Health Club, ACN 057 339 223, for exemption from sections 13, 42, 59, 65, 100 and 195 of that Act to engage in the specified conduct.

In this exemption the specified conduct means all of the following:

- (a) to provide a health and fitness centre for women only;
- (b) to employ women only to staff the fitness centre mentioned in paragraph (a); and
- (c) to advertise the services mentioned in paragraph (a) and to advertise for and employ women for the positions mentioned in paragraph (b).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal notes that:

- An exemption for the same purpose was previously granted to the Applicant by the Tribunal on 27 May 2003;
- Since then the Applicant has received no complaints in respect of its health club and membership has risen so that there are currently 750 members;
- In the area in which the Applicant's health club is located there are four mixed (male and female) fitness centres;
- The health club provides a safe and non-threatening environment suitable for women who, for religious or cultural reasons, because they have suffered sexual assault or domestic violence from men, or for reasons relating to body image, would not attend a mixed health and fitness centre.

The Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 42, 59, 65, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 42, 59, 65, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.
