Planning and Environment Act 1987SURF COAST PLANNING SCHEME*Amendment C40 – Lorne Supermarket

Authorisation No. A0749

Planning Permit Application 07/0056

The land affected by the Amendment is part of Crown Allotment 1A, Section 3, township of Lorne, being 237 m² to the rear of the existing Lorne Supermarket at 1–3 Great Ocean Road.

The land affected by the application is 1–3 Great Ocean Road, along with part of Crown Allotment 1A, Section 3, township of Lorne and part of Crown Allotment 8A, section 3 which forms part of Erskine Ave. The Amendment proposes to rezone about 237 m² of land from Public Park and Recreation to Business 1 and applies the Design and Development Overlay (Schedule 4) and the Wildfire Protection Overlay to the land.

The application is for a permit to undertake buildings and works to the rear of the existing supermarket to extend the supermarket into the rezoned land. This building extension will include a first floor mezzanine level to a height of 7 metres, creating an increase in the floor area of the supermarket from existing floor area of 794 m² to 1169 m², an increase of 375 m² across the two levels. The expansion includes additional storage area and upper level staff facilities, thereby increasing the retail area of the existing supermarket.

The application also includes alteration to the existing carpark and loading bay area, part of which is located on Crown Land forming part of Erskine Ave. The works within Erskine Ave do not expand the area utilised by the supermarket in this area, but rather better utilise the existing land licensed to the supermarket and provide additional pedestrian and landscaping to the south-west of the supermarket.

The person who requested the Amendment is St Quentin Consulting Pty Ltd. The applicant for the permit is St Quentin Consulting Pty Ltd.

You may inspect the Amendment and the application, the application, any documents that support the Amendment and application, and the explanatory report about the Amendment at the: office of the planning authority, Surf Coast Shire, 25 Grossmans Road, Torquay; Lorne Tourist Information Centre, 15 Mountjoy

Parade, Lorne; Department of Planning and Community Development, Barwon South West Region Office, 4th Floor, Cnr Fenwick and Little Malop Streets, Geelong; and the Department of Planning and Community Development, Planning Information Centre, Ground Floor, 8 Nicholson Street, East Melbourne.

Any person who may be affected by the Amendment or by the granting of the permit may make a submission to the planning authority. The closing date for submissions is Monday 8 October 2007. EXEMPTION

Application No. A236/2007

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Care For You Pty Ltd. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ carers of a specific gender or age or ethnic origin or with specified religious beliefs to assist people with disability in their homes and other locations and give them other assistance (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant is an organisation which provides care for people with disabilities in their homes and in sporting or recreational activities, social outings, rehabilitation, attendance for physiotherapy or hydrotherapy or other health care, and in activities concerned with skills development.
- This care involves often intimate contact with the client, such as assistance with showering, dressing and personal hygiene.

- Many of the applicant's clients express to the applicant a preference for this care to be undertaken by a person of a similar age, gender or ethnic origin, or with similar religious beliefs to the client.
- The applicant wishes to be able to provide to their clients, carers of their choice. The clients are likely to be more comfortable and happier if such personal and intimate services are provided by carers with whom they feel at ease.
- An exemption (A253/2004) was previously granted on 2 July 2004.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 July 2010.

Application No. A248/2007

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Bogong Outdoor Education Centre. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to employ a female outdoor education teacher in a residential Victorian Government School (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- There is insufficient female staff employed to meet with the Victorian Government School Reference guidelines. Presently only 1.7 female staff are employed of a total of 9 staff.
- Female teachers are needed as role models and to promote opportunities in the field of outdoor education.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 August 2010.

Application No. A250/2007

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by University of Melbourne. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander for the position of Senior Lecturer or Lecturer in the field of Australian Indigenous History (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The University of Melbourne wishes to increase the number of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders as staff and as students.
- The University of Melbourne School of Historical Studies currently has no Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders as part of the teaching staff.
- The University of Melbourne School of Historical Studies sees the appointment of an Indigenous academic as crucial in developing areas of expertise in Indigenous issues within the faculty. An Indigenous academic will provide the necessary leadership and expertise for developing the Faculty's capabilities to manage and respond to Indigenous issues.
- This application partially addresses the imbalance in under represented numbers of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders in higher education as both students and academia.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 September 2010.

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Centre Against Sexual Assault – Loddon Campaspe Region (LC – CASA). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander as a co-ordinator at LC CASA (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- LC – CASA has received funding to establish 'Bidja's Place' – responding to Aboriginal women and children escaping family violence (the project).
- The co-ordinator of this project needs to be an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander to effectively and culturally support Aboriginal clients and elders.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Victec Limited. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and recruit women for Information Technology Cadets and Trainees (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- Previous Exemption Orders have been granted to Victec Limited for this purpose since 2001.
- Presently, in Victoria there is a significant gender imbalance. Only 3% of Cadetships and Traineeships are women. This offer for women only cadetships and traineeships attempts to address that problem.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 September 2010.

Freedom of Information Act 1982

STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR SEEKING LEAVE TO APPEAL

Introduction

1. On 31 July 2007, the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal ('VCAT'), constituted by Deputy President Dwyer, made a decision in the matter of McKean v University of Melbourne [2007] VCAT 1310.
2. The VCAT ordered the release to the applicant of two marking guides prepared for guidance of markers in two subjects and the applicant's own examination paper in one of those subjects. Exemption had been claimed in respect of all three documents under s 34(4)(c) of the Freedom of Information Act 1982 ('FOI Act') and, additionally, in respect of the two marking guides under s 30(1) of the FOI Act.
3. Section 34(4)(c) exempts a document from disclosure if it is an examination paper, a paper submitted by a student in the course of an examination, an examiner's report or similar document and the use or uses for which the document was prepared have not been completed.
4. Section 30(1) relevantly exempts a document from disclosure if it would disclose matter in the nature of opinion, advice or recommendation prepared by an officer in the course of, or for the purpose of, the deliberative processes involved in the functions of an agency.
5. Access was granted to the documents on the basis that the use or uses for which they were prepared had been completed (s 34(4)(c)) and disclosure would not be contrary to the public interest (s 30(1)(b)).
6. For the reasons set out in this statement the public interest is served by the University appealing from the order of the VCAT.
7. As the decision was made by a Deputy President of VCAT, any appeal from his orders must be to the Trial Division of the Supreme Court of Victoria.¹ An appeal may be brought only 'on a question of law' and may only be commenced if leave to appeal is given by the Supreme Court.²
8. On 28 August 2007 I caused to be lodged with the Supreme Court a Summons seeking leave to appeal the decision of the VCAT.
9. This notice sets out a brief statement of reasons for seeking leave to appeal and is provided in accordance with section 65AB(1) of the FOI Act.

Statement of Reasons for Seeking Leave to Appeal

10. Leave to appeal against the order of the VCAT has been sought because the Tribunal made errors of law regarding the proper construction of sections 34(4)(c) and 30(1) of the FOI Act.
11. For the following reasons the public interest is served by the Government appealing from the decision of the VCAT in McKean v University of Melbourne [2007] VCAT 1310 to grant access to the marking guides and examination paper.
12. The public interest in not prejudicing examination processes of educational institutions is served by ensuring that the VCAT and any decision-makers under the FOI Act apply s 34(4)(c) correctly when considering whether the use or uses for which an examination paper or similar document (such as a marking guide) was prepared has been completed.
 - 12.1 Having found that the examination and marking guides were both drawn from existing documents and may serve part of a precedent bank of questions in the future the VCAT erred in law in holding that s 34(4)(c) of the FOI Act did not apply.
 - 12.2 The VCAT erred in law in failing to determine whether the exempt documents were made up of or from other documents and whether those parts were prepared for a use or uses that had not been completed or a substantial use that had not been completed.

- 12.3 The VCAT erred in law in drawing a distinction between a function of a document and a use of a document when no distinction can be drawn for the purpose of s 34(4)(c) of the FOI Act.
- 12.4 The VCAT erred in law in identifying or seeking to identify a single use for which a document was prepared in order for the document to be an exempt document under s 34(4)(c) of the FOI Act.
- 13. The public interest is served by the VCAT correctly applying the public interest test in s 30(1)(b) of the FOI Act.
 - 13.1 The VCAT erred in holding that by reason of its finding that s 34(4)(c) of the FOI Act did not apply there is very limited public interest argument left to support non-disclosure and should have found that its conclusions on s 34(4)(c) were irrelevant to the public interest for the purpose of applying s 30(1) of the FOI Act.
 - 13.2 The Tribunal erred by requiring the respondent to establish a clear case for exemption.
 - 13.3 The Tribunal erred in concluding that the prejudice suffered by the University could be avoided by a future change to its procedures and should have found that potential future changes were irrelevant.

Environment Effects Act 1978

NOTICE UNDER SECTION 3(1)

The Minister for Planning, being satisfied that works proposed in relation to the Frankston Bypass project could reasonably be considered to have or be capable of having a significant effect on the environment, has declared the works as public works to which the Environment Effects Act 1978 applies.

The Minister has specified that the following procedures and requirements are to apply to the Environment Effects Statement (EES) for the Frankston Bypass:

- The EES should focus on those potential effects for which there is a significant risk of adverse outcomes, including biodiversity, cultural heritage, hydrology and community amenity. Matters that do not entail potential for significant risk may be documented in less detail.
- The EES should give particular attention to relevant alternatives for avoiding or minimising adverse effects on biodiversity and cultural heritage values of The Pines Flora and Fauna Reserve.
- The EES should investigate the benefits and environmental effects associated with relevant bypass alternatives as well as with constructing the bypass in stages.
- To assist the preparation of the EES and public involvement, the proponent is to prepare and implement a consultation plan to the satisfaction of the Department of Sustainability and Environment. This plan should provide an opportunity for community and stakeholder input to investigation of alternatives for the bypass in the vicinity of The Pines Flora and Fauna Reserve as well as for the southern section of the bypass.
- The draft scoping requirements will be exhibited for 15 business days for public comment.
- The proponent should provide a plan for quality assurance of EES studies.
- The EES will be exhibited for 30 business days for public comment unless it spans the Christmas–New Year Day period, in which case a 40 business day period will apply.

- An inquiry, involving public hearings, will be appointed under the Environment Effects Act 1978 to consider the bypass proposal (jointly with any requirement for a panel under the Planning and Environment Act 1987).
