Notice of Making of Local Law 12

Notice is hereby given that the Cardinia Shire Council at its meeting held on 21 January 2008 resolved to make Local Law 12, Environment and General Amenity issues (Amendment) Local Law.

The purpose and general purport of the Local Law is to introduce amendments to Council's existing Local Law 10, Environment and Amenity Issues Local Law, these amendments can be summarised as follows:

Part 5 – Reserves

Clause 12, Activities prohibited in reserves

Inclusion of additional clause to prohibit the unauthorised access and parking of vehicles within reserves. This Clause is required to provide Council's Local Laws Officers with a discretionary power to control inappropriate vehicle access to recreation reserves and playing fields which is becoming an increasing problem. Additionally since the repeal of the Road Safety (Traffic) Regulations there is no provision to control vehicles parking on reserves and reservations which also has been on the increase.

Part 8 – Behaviour on Roads and Public Places

Clause 22, Shopping Trolleys

Insertion of additional clauses to require that all shopping trolleys in use in the Shire have coin operated locks installed. This provision is proposed to control the misuse of shopping trolleys and to encourage their return.

Premises with 25 trolleys or less to be excluded and proprietor of stores that have more than 25 trolleys may apply for an exemption.

New Part 18A – Community Protection

Insertion of new part to include new provisions in accordance with the adopted Graffiti Policy and Action Plan. These amendments will include restriction on the sale of aerosol spray cans and other initiatives to curb the instances of graffiti.

Part 22 – Animals and Birds

Clause 57, Keeping of Animals

Amended clause to limit number of dogs and cats allowed to be kept on a residential property to no more than two of each species on properties less than 4,000 m² and no more than four of each species on properties over 4,000 m². This Clause does not apply to rural or farming properties.

Livestock on small land holdings

Amended clause to require the owners of residential properties of less than 1000 m² to obtain a permit to keep livestock unless it can be shown that the Dry Sheep Equivalent (DSE) of the property is sufficient to carry the livestock and that no nuisance is being caused to neighbouring properties. This amended clause is proposed to provide a measure of control over the increasing incidents of residents of keeping sheep, goats and horses in residential areas. There are various health and noise issues associated with keeping livestock on small residential blocks even if the animal(s) have been introduced to reduce overgrown vegetation. Using a Dry Sheep Equivalent (DSE) will ensure that there is sufficient carrying capacity of the property to accommodate the animal.

Clause 62 – Animals on roads

To correct a drafting error in Local Law 10, amend clause 62.2 to read

'Any livestock found grazing, wandering at large or travelling on any road without any person apparently in control of such livestock may be impounded by an authorised officer.' Also a further amendment to this clause is proposed to require notification to Council of Owners contact details where vacant rural properties are being leased for grazing purposes.

Part 24 – Open Air Burning and Incinerators

Amend this part to remove the specific provisions in regard to open air burning and to instead refer to open air burning only being permitted in accordance with the recently adopted Open Air Burning Policy.

Copies of the Local Law can be inspected at the Council Offices, Henty Way, Pakenham and are also available on the Council's website at www.cardinia.vic.gov.au

The Local Laws are to commence on the day after notice of their making appears in the Government Gazette.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A324/2007

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Hobsons Bay City Council for exemption from section 14(a) of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In this exemption 'exempt conduct' means—

- (a) Implementing a phased retirement scheme whereby an employee of the Applicant aged 55 years or over might request the Applicant to enter into an agreement lasting between 6 months and 3 years in which the employee reduces his or her involvement in the workplace and then retires entirely.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application and upon hearing submissions from Ms Gardner and for the Reasons for Decision given by the Tribunal on 18 January 2008, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from section 14(a) of the Act to enable the Applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the Applicant from the operation of section 14 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the Applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 18 January 2011.

Dated 18 January 2008

N.B. A copy of the Reasons for Decision is available from the Registrar of the Anti-Discrimination List.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A2/2008

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Royal Botanic Gardens Board. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and employ casual Indigenous Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islanders as Tour Guides (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The Royal Botanic Gardens wishes to enhance the credibility and authenticity of its indigenous programs, particularly to the 'Boonerwung' and wider relevant Aboriginal community.

- The aims of the Indigenous tour guide positions are to contribute to the gardens with an aboriginal interpretation of education policy including research recording and relevant stories and living histories of local Aboriginal peoples, and tourism creating a strong link between the Royal Botanical Gardens and the Aboriginal people.
- Previous applications to VCAT have been approved for similar roles (A133–2002, A33–2005, A203–2006, and A79–2006).

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 January 2011.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A9/2008

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Department of Human Services (DHS). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander as a Senior Advisor for the Southern Metropolitan Region (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- Presently there are 3 funded Indigenous organisers for over 4,000 Indigenous persons living in the region.
- This position requires working in a context of complex services and competing priorities. The senior advisor needs to support open relationships with Indigenous communities and organisations with practical ways to improve health and wellbeing. An Indigenous person in this role gives credibility and an understanding of community needs and aspirations from personal experience and would be more effective in directly dealing with these in a culturally appropriate way.

- It is appropriate that an Indigenous or Torres Strait Islander is employed in this role.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 January 2011.

Dated 14 January 2008

HER HONOUR JUDGE HARBISON
Vice President

- The primary purpose of this Indigenous housing officer is to provide support and assistance to the Housing Advice and Assistance Team. The Loddon Mallee Region of the DHS recognises its responsibilities towards the employment of Indigenous staff. This initiative has been designed to create a career pathway for Indigenous peoples that wasn't previously available.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 January 2011.

Application No. A14/2008

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Department of Human Services, Loddon Mallee Region. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander to one fixed term traineeship position within Housing Services (DHS) in the Loddon Mallee Region (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- DHS is committed to the implementation of the Victorian Government strategy on Indigenous employment (Wur-cum-barra). This is within the Loddon Mallee regions Housing program funding arrangement.
- Presently, the utilisation rate of Indigenous housing is below that generally used by other Australians. DHS anticipates better outcomes for Indigenous Australians, achieved by utilising more targeted housing services.

Application No. A15/2008

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Monash Special Developmental School. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and employ one male teacher to support a number of adolescent male students with significant challenging and aggressive behaviours (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- A number of students with Autism Spectrum Disorders present significant levels of unpredictable and challenging behaviours including severe aggression towards themselves or others.
- The male specialist classroom teacher is required to handle this, at times, difficult situation. It is an Occupational Health and Safety issue, and in addition some services provided for the male students can be gender specific. Presently, only 3.57 per cent of the specialist teachers are male.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 January 2011.

APPLICATION NO. A23/2008

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Immigrant Women's Domestic Violence Service. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to employ women only from a non-English speaking background (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The Immigrant Women's Domestic Violence Service (IWDVS) is a statewide service providing support and advocacy to women and children from Non-English Speaking Backgrounds (NESB) who have experienced domestic violence.
- The majority of domestic violence against women (in the NESB) is perpetrated by men. Therefore, it follows that the female victims/survivors of domestic violence would generally prefer that services are provided in a women only environment.
- Some of these women (NESB) have a limited use of English. Often the discussions about limited and sensitive issues that affect women and children safety and wellbeing require people with cultural understanding and excellent communication skills.
- It is entirely appropriate to employ women from a non-English speaking background for this role.
