EXEMPTION

Application No. A230/2008

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Victoria University. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islanders to the positions of –

1. Indigenous employment coordinator;
2. Indigenous community liaison officer;
3. Indigenous scholarships coordinator;
4. Indigenous childcare traineeship,

(the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 14, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- A previous exemption was granted for the positions 1–3 (noted above), number A59 of 2005.
- As part of the university's strategic commitments Victoria University has implemented the 'Yanneit' Employment Strategy (YES!) 2006. The primary objectives of YES! include increasing the number of Indigenous employees in the university workforce, accelerating the employment and development of Indigenous people across the full spectrum of positions of the University, and establishing the university as a supportive and culturally sensitive and significant employer of Indigenous people.
- As a part of that strategy the university intends to increase the number of Indigenous employees at the university to 2% of the total of staff population by the end of 2013.
- The university recognises the need to provide opportunities for Indigenous Australians to gain continuing employment through vocational training and education.
- The university is to offer Indigenous Australians only childcare traineeships which aim to meet the shortage of qualified Indigenous childcare workers. The university operates four children's centres and three associated centres. There are currently no known Indigenous childcare workers at any of the university childcare centres, or Indigenous students enrolled in any of the university's childcare courses.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 September 2011.

Dated 22 September 2008

HER HONOUR JUDGE HARBISON
Vice President

EXEMPTION

Application No. A244/2008

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Whittlesea District Branch of the Helping Hand Association. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ staff of a specified gender where this is desirable because of the nature of the duties which they are required to perform (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 14, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- Whittlesea district adult training and support services aims to be a dynamic, exemplary community based organisation which provides a variety of flexible, appropriate services and supports for people with intellectual disabilities, their families and carers.
- It is imperative that the people with disabilities who attend the services of the helping hand organisation have the opportunity to receive support from their own sex. This is particularly relevant in the following situations: –

- personal management and hygiene support (i.e. bathing, toileting, dressing, menstrual management, etc);
  - feelings and friends programs;
  - stress and anger management and behaviour intervention programs;
  - general role modelling between clients; and
  - friendship development.
- The disability service sector is generally a female dominated field and specific advertising methods are sometimes required to attract suitable male applicants in order to ensure the gender balance of the staff team.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 14, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 September 2011.

Dated 23 September 2008

HER HONOUR JUDGE HARBISON
Vice President

- Providing this position to an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander will contribute to the skills base and self-sufficiency of the person and thereby also contribute to the development of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities in general.
- The position will allow the person to be involved in formal research and academic processes at an entry or intermediate level and so provide them with an opportunity to consider further study and/or a focus on research work in the future.
- It may also encourage the person in their involvement with their community and its language.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 14, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 September 2011.

Dated 25 September 2008

HER HONOUR JUDGE HARBISON
Vice President

EXEMPTION

Application No. A248/2008

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Victorian Aboriginal Corporation for Languages. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and employ a part time research assistant. The position is to be reserved exclusively for an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 14, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The Victorian Aboriginal Corporation for Languages has been awarded a research grant from AIATSIS (Grant no.: G2008/7366) to provide for this position.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A249/2008

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Women's Health Loddon Mallee Inc. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ only women to work in the organisation, and to restrict membership to women only (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 14, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- Previous exemptions have been granted by the Tribunal, numbered A193–2005 and A125–2002.
- Women's Health Loddon Mallee is a regional women's health service.

- The statement of aims, values and purpose of Women's Health Loddon Mallee Inc. is focused on women only. The constitution of Women's Health Loddon Mallee Inc. only allows for women to be eligible for membership. Due to the nature of services provided by Women's Health Loddon Mallee Inc. to women, a safe, non-threatening environment for women would not be possible if membership or employment is extended to men.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 14, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 September 2011.
