Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The PARC service is for people with a psychiatric disability, based in Bendigo.
- There is an understanding that women with a mental illness experience loneliness, depression, isolation, and disempowerment. It is also increasingly recognised that women are typically underrepresented in mental health services, highlighting the need for services that can respond to the needs of women appropriately.
- Many women who access the services of PARC identify past and current experiences of physical, emotional and sexual abuse. In the interest of meeting the needs of these women it is essential that the service offer a safe and supportive environment. Fundamental to this is being able to provide women with someone whom they can relate to, and facilitating education and discussions about women's issues.
- It is appropriate for a woman to be appointed for this role.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 May 2011.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A109/2008

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Mind Australia. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and employ a female full time worker in Mind's Prevention and Recovery Care (PARC) Service (the exempt conduct).

EXEMPTION

Application No. A113/2008

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Monash Special Developmental School. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and employ 1 male as a classroom teacher (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- This application is made further to previous applications A349/2007 and A15/2008. This is a new position to increase the number of male classroom teachers.
- Monash Special Developmental School caters for students 2.8–18 years with intellectual and/or development delays, many of whom also have Autism Spectrum Disorder.
- A number of adolescent boys (11 in particular), with Autism Spectrum Disorder exhibit significant levels of unpredictable and challenging behaviours including severe aggression to themselves and others. Male School Support Officers would assist greatly for this purpose.
- The requirement for male Support Officers is based upon the need to satisfy Occupational Health and Safety and Work cover issues. Most of the current staff are female, and the filling of this position with male Support Officers is appropriate for the needs of the school.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 May 2011.

Schedule A

Dated 14 May 2008

RICHARD ALDOUS
Executive Director
Minerals and Petroleum

Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) (Enforcement) Act 1995
CLASSIFICATION DIRECTION IN RELATION TO EXEMPTIONS OF APPROVED ORGANISATIONS IN RESPECT OF ACTIVITIES OR FUNCTIONS
THAT RELATE TO FILMS OR COMPUTER GAMES

PREAMBLE

The intention of this Direction is to set out the minimum conditions necessary to provide an appropriate basis for an exemption by the Director of the Classification Board (the Director) when exempting approved organisations in Victoria from the operation of the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) (Enforcement) Act 1995 (Vic.) in respect of the organisation's activities or functions that relate to films or computer games.

The National Classification Scheme

A National Classification Scheme (NCS) operates in Australia in the form of a cooperative arrangement between the Commonwealth, States and Territories. The NCS consists of the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) Act 1995 (Cth) (the Classification Act), instruments made under the Classification Act and complementary State and Territory legislation.

The Commonwealth Act provides that the Classification Board classifies films (including videos and DVDs), computer games and certain publications. The States and Territories enforce classification decisions under their respective classification enforcement legislation. In Victoria the relevant legislation is the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) (Enforcement) Act 1995 (Vic.) (the Victorian Act).

Exemptions of approved organisations

Under section 64(2) of the Victorian Act, the Director may direct that the Victorian Act does not apply to an approved organisation in respect of any or all of its activities or functions that relate to films or computer games.

For the purposes of section 64(2) and this Direction, an approved organisation is an organisation approved by the Director under section 66A of the Victorian Act. The Director may approve an organisation if it is established by or under legislation and carries on activities of an educational, cultural or artistic nature.

Before approving an organisation, the Director must have regard to the purpose for which the organisation is established, its activities, its reputation in relation to the screening of films and the demonstration of computer games, as well as any conditions of admission to film screenings or computer game demonstrations.

An exemption under section 64(2) is subject to any condition or limitation specified in the Director's direction.

The Director must revoke an organisation's approval if it no longer satisfies the requirements to be established by or under legislation and carry on activities of an educational, cultural or artistic nature. The Director may also revoke an organisation's approval if the Director considers that it is no longer appropriate that the organisation be approved.

Ministerial directions or guidelines

In considering whether to exempt an approved organisation, the Director must also give effect to any directions or guidelines about the application of the Victorian Act that are issued by the Victorian Attorney-General as the Minister responsible for the Victorian Act.

This Direction therefore sets out the minimum conditions necessary to provide an appropriate basis for an exemption under section 64(2).

The effect of the Direction is not to provide an exemption for an organisation. Nor can the Direction require the Director to grant an exemption under section 64(2).

DIRECTION

Operation

The Direction is issued by the Victorian Attorney-General as the Minister responsible, in accordance with the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) (Enforcement) Act 1995 (Vic).

1. The Direction is subject to revocation or amendment by the Victorian Attorney-General at any time and for any reason.
2. The Direction expires on 1 July 2009¹, unless revoked earlier.

¹ This will provide for a period of operation of 2 years from the date that the amendments to the Victorian Act (allowing for the exemption) commence (1 July 2007). It is noted, however, that the Attorney-General may revoke the Direction before this date.

Scope

3. The Director must give effect to this Direction, including a consideration of the requirements contained in [paragraphs 6 to 27 of] the Direction, in his/her determination of whether to issue a direction to approve an organisation pursuant to section 66A of the Victorian Act.
4. A direction of the Director referred to in paragraph 3 operates to exempt an approved organisation from the operation of the Victorian Act, to the extent and subject to any condition specified in the direction, in respect of Films and Computer games which have not previously been classified in accordance with the Classification Act, the Code and Classification guidelines.
 - (1) Subject to subclause (2) the direction of the Director does not operate to exempt an approved organisation from the operation of the Victorian Act in respect of:
 - (a) The exhibition of Films and/or demonstration of Computer games in cinemas operated by the approved organisation on a commercial basis
 - (b) Exempt films
 - (c) Exempt Computer games
 - (d) Films and Computer games which have been classified.
 - (2) The direction of the Director does operate to exempt an approved organisation from the operation of the Victorian Act in respect of the exhibition of Films and/or demonstration of Computer games in cinemas operated by the approved organisation on a commercial basis where:
 - (a) the material to be exhibited and/or demonstrated has been created internally by the approved organisation and has a public education purpose²; or
 - (b) the material to be exhibited and/or demonstrated has a public education purpose relating to the moving image or promotes discussion of the moving image³; and
 - (c) taking into account the purpose, content or structure of the material or any other factor(s) the Director considers relevant⁴, the Director is satisfied that any other exemption provision under the Victorian Act does not appropriately apply to the exhibition of the Film and/or demonstration of the Computer game in the cinema.⁵

Assessment of unclassified Works

6. An approved organisation must not demonstrate a Film or Computer game covered by the Direction unless it has been assessed in accordance with clause 7 or 8 respectively.
7. An approved organisation must assess all unclassified Films as one of the following classification types:
 - (a) Unrestricted Content
 - (b) Restricted Content
 - (i) likely to be classified MA 15+ if classified in accordance with the Classification Act, the Code and Classification guidelines

² For example, where the approved organisation runs workshops that enable individual participants to script, create and edit their own 'digital stories' which have a social justice or health focus (amongst other important community issues), and these stories are subsequently screened in the cinemas run by the approved organisation.

³ For example, education programs related to the discipline of the study of film, including the exhibition of student work or enabling interactive productions to be viewed and played by participants.

⁴ Other factors may be, for example, that a large number of short films are generated and it would be administratively burdensome for the approved organisation to apply for an exemption for each film.

⁵ Note: it is intended that the exemption will only apply to material exhibited and/or screened in cinemas run by the approved organisation where an application for a Film Festival exemption (pursuant to section 64 of the Victorian Act) is, taking into account the relevant factors, considered by the Director to be impracticable or inappropriate in all the circumstances.

- (ii) likely to be classified R 18+ if classified in accordance with the Classification Act, the Code and Classification guidelines
- (c) Prohibited Film.
- 8. An approved organisation must assess all unclassified Computer games as one of the following classification types:
 - (a) Unrestricted Content
 - (b) Restricted Content likely to be classified MA 15+ if classified in accordance with the Classification Act, the Code and Classification guidelines
 - (c) Prohibited Computer game.
- 9. An assessment in accordance with clause 7 or 8 must be made by staff of the approved organisation who have undertaken training approved by the Director.
- 10. An approved organisation must not apply classification markings contained in the Classification (Markings for Films and Computer Games) Determination to any Films or Computer games that it has assessed under the Direction.
- 11. An approved organisation must record the reasons for all assessment decisions in writing.

Content Warnings

- 12. Where an approved organisation assesses that a Film or Computer game contains Restricted Content, the organisation must:
 - (a) provide a content warning
 - (b) make publicly available prior to demonstration the reasons for an assessment that a Film or Computer game contains Restricted Content, including a description of the images contained in the Film or Computer game.
- 13. A content warning must:
 - (a) state that the Film or Computer game contains Restricted Content
 - (b) state any age restriction that applies
 - (c) be prominently displayed prior to demonstration
 - (d) be included on any promotional material provided by the approved organisation.
- 14. Where an approved organisation assesses that a Film or Computer game contains Unrestricted Content but parental supervision is recommended, the organisation must:
 - (a) provide a content warning that is prominently displayed prior to demonstration and states the recommended minimum age for viewing the Film or Computer game
 - (b) make publicly available prior to demonstration the reasons for the assessment decision that parental supervision is recommended, including a description of the images contained in the Film or Computer game.

Restricted access

- 15. Where an approved organisation identifies that a Film contains Restricted Content that is:
 - (a) likely to be classified MA 15+ if classified in accordance with the Classification Act, the Code and Classification guidelines, persons younger than 15 years must not be admitted unless accompanied by a parent or adult guardian
 - (b) likely to be classified R 18+ if classified in accordance with the Classification Act, the Code and Classification guidelines, persons younger than 18 years must not be admitted.
- 16. Where an approved organisation identifies that a Computer game contains Restricted Content that is likely to be classified MA 15+ if classified in accordance with the Classification Act, the Code and Classification guidelines, persons younger than 15 years must not be admitted unless accompanied by a parent or adult guardian.

17. Where an approved organisation assesses that a Film or Computer game contains Restricted Content it must be located in a restricted area. A restricted area must be:
- constructed so that no part of the interior of the area is visible to any person outside the area
 - managed by an adult who must be in attendance in or near the area at all times when the area is open to the public
 - identified by signage displayed in a prominent place near the entrance to the area so that it is clearly visible from outside the area.

X18+ and RC Works

18. An approved organisation must not exhibit a Film that is classified:
- X 18+ (or is unclassified but, if classified, is likely to be classified X 18+)
 - classified RC (or is unclassified but, if classified, is likely to be classified RC).
19. An approved organisation must not demonstrate a Computer game that is classified RC (or is unclassified but, if classified, is likely to be classified RC).

Complaints

20. An approved organisation must have a documented a system for receiving and resolving complaints relating to the assessment or demonstration of Films and Computer games, content warnings, access to Restricted Content Films or Computer games and any other matter addressed in the Direction.
21. The complaints system must comply with the requirements or the Australian Standard on Complaints Handling AS 4269–1995 and must detail how personal information will be treated in accordance with the Information Privacy Act 2000 (Vic).
22. An approved organisation must provide documentation in relation to the complaints system upon request and must provide assistance to members of the public who wish to make a complaint.

Reporting and Review Requirements

23. An approved organisation must report to the Director in writing within 5 working days of becoming aware that it no longer satisfies the requirements outlined in section 66A(1), or if there is a change in any matter referred to in section 66A(2), of the Victorian Act.
24. In addition to any other reporting obligation, an approved organisation must within 5 working days of becoming aware of a breach or possible breach of any conditions contained in the direction issued by the Director, provide a written report of the breach or possible breach to the Director and to the Victorian Attorney-General.
25. An approved organisation must report to the Victorian Attorney-General in relation to matters set out in this Direction no later than 3 months prior to the expiry of the Direction. The report is to include details of the approved organisation's compliance with any conditions imposed by Director and any issues that have arisen in relation to the operation of the Direction and any amendments to the Direction that may be desirable.
