EXEMPTION

Application No. A122/2008

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Department of Sustainability and Environment. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and employ Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islanders in certain designated field-based positions (e.g. field staff, forest rangers) and in other designated office-based positions (e.g. administrative and business services officers, technical, scientific and policy officers) for traineeships, scholarships and cadetships that will serve as a pathway program to employment in the department (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The Department of Sustainability and Environment has developed an Indigenous Partnership Framework. The purpose of this framework is to improve consultation and build effective relationships within the Indigenous communities, particularly in the management of Victoria's natural resources.
- A key facet of the Indigenous Partnership Framework is the Department's Indigenous Employment Framework. The purpose of this application is for this exemption to facilitate the ongoing recruitment of Indigenous staff.
- The appointees to these designated Indigenous positions will be expected to play important roles in developing, supporting or promoting our Indigenous cultures through a number of ways:-
 - Maintaining networks with local Indigenous communities;
 - Providing assistance to non-indigenous staff on Indigenous cultural and natural resource management;
 - Passing on knowledge of Indigenous culture and natural resource management matters to non-indigenous staff.

- The Department aims to increase and maintain an indigenous employment percentage of at least 1.5% of its overall workforce.
- The Department has a particular Indigenous employment program proposed to commence from September 2008, to recruit up to 20 Project fire fighters in rural areas.
- This Application will further the employment opportunities of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people. As these people are commonly recognised as being an economically and socially disadvantaged group within the Australian community, the purpose of this exemption favours employment within this group.
- Therefore it is appropriate for this exemption to be granted as it seeks to redress an existing imbalance in favour of a disadvantaged group.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 May 2011.

Vice President

EXEMPTION

Application No. A123/2008

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by The Royal Children's Hospital. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and employ Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islanders for 3 positions within the new Aboriginal Children's Health Management Team within the Royal Children's Hospital (the exempt conduct). A total of 7 positions in the future is envisaged. The initial 3 positions are:—

- An Indigenous Program Coordinator;
- An Indigenous Case Manager;
- An Indigenous Family Health Worker.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The purpose of this exemption is to provide employment constituting affirmative action at the Children's Hospital to employ Indigenous people who will provide services to Aboriginal patients with the aim of reducing disadvantage within the Indigenous community regarding access to the appropriate health care and delivery.
- Improve access for Aboriginal children to a broad range of the hospital and other health services. The new model of care presents new opportunities for Indigenous children Health Care in Victoria.
- Improve the Royal Children's Hospital staff awareness and capacity to holistically manage Aboriginal children with consideration for their spiritual, physical, emotional and mental wellbeing and in keeping with Indigenous cultural values.
- Present an innovative program development that is responsive to the Aboriginal community's needs.
- The Aboriginal Case Worker will also co-ordinate and manage the social care of Aboriginal inpatients and outpatients with complex social and medical needs.
- The Aboriginal Family Health Care Worker also will provide cultural practical support to all Aboriginal children and their families attending the Children's Hospital.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 May 2011.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A124/2008

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Museum Victoria. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander in the position of Program Manager, Museum Victoria Repatriation (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- Museum Victoria has a strong commitment to Indigenous issues. By working in partnership with Indigenous communities Museum Victoria will increase its understanding of and respect for Indigenous history, culture and traditions.
- This position is in line with the implementation and continuing commitment to the Indigenous Employment and Career Strategy 2005–2008. This is part of the reconciliation partnership agreement between the Museum and the Indigenous community of Victoria.
- There is a need to establish strong community links to enhance participation and outcomes in the Return of Indigenous Cultural Property to Indigenous communities program. This includes, amongst other requirements, the managing of the repatriation of provenanced ancestral remains and the facilitation of the identification of Victorian secret-sacred objects.
- It is appropriate that this exemption is granted.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 May 2011.
