EXEMPTION

Application No. A156/2008

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Interchange Loddon Mallee Region Inc. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and employ male workers to provide direct and personal care to male clients with disabilities (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- Interchange Loddon–Mallee region is a non-government, non profit community based organisation that provides respite, recreation and support to families who have a child or family member of any age with a disability, through a range of different programs. Program options include holidays, camps, weekend and after hour's activities and one to support those with high support needs.
- Many of the Agency's male clients have behaviours or personal needs that exclusively require the aid of a male worker. This is an OH and S issue as well as confirming to the disability service standards – 'dignity and respect' and 'individual needs'.
- It is appropriate for a male worker to be employed in this role.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 June 2011.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A157/2008

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by St Vincent's Hospital (Melbourne) Limited. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait islander as an Aboriginal Liaison and Training Officer for a specific role within St Vincent's (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The Aboriginal Liaison and Training Officer would be responsible for the development, implementation and delivery of educational programs for staff of St Vincent's Hospital and affiliated hospitals by delivering culturally appropriate care to Aboriginal and Torres Islander patients and families. This position will also work closely with the Director of Aged Care and Allied Health who oversees the Koori Hospital Liaison Officer program.
- The Aboriginal Liaison and Training Officer is responsible for the provision of advice to clinicians in delivering culturally appropriate care and for designated clinical work. This person will work with local community controlled health providers to facilitate communication, maintain a partnership approach, to improve access to St Vincent's services by Aboriginal people. The role will work on strategic initiatives agreed upon by the St Vincent's Aboriginal Health Taskforce including an Aboriginal Training/Employment strategy.
- The Aboriginal Liaison and Training Officer will have specific skills and knowledge of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community to enable a more effective development policy or delivery of services to Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander people. A non Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander person will not have the level of knowledge or understanding that an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander person has.
- This role has been specifically designed for the special needs of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people. An Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander person will understand this need and would be more effective in dealing with the needs in a culturally appropriate way.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 June 2011.
