EXEMPTION

Application No. A217/2008

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Preshil, The Margaret Lyttle Memorial School. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In this exemption, 'exempt conduct' means:

- (a) providing places at the Applicant's school for girls only;
- (b) providing bursaries for girls only;
- (c) ceasing to offer places for boys and offering places to girls in any class where the ratio of boys to girls exceeds 2 to 1; and
- (d) advertising any of these matters.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 37, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- the Tribunal considers it appropriate to grant a further exemption for a short period. During this period, the application for an exemption for a three year period will be advertised and considered by the Tribunal.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the Applicant from the operation of sections 37, 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the Applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

The exemption is subject to the following conditions –

1. If the gender balance at every year level at the school does not exceed a ratio of boys to girls that is 2 to 1, the Applicant must without delay, advise the Tribunal in writing.
2. The Applicant will only, in respect of a class, cease to offer places in that class to boys and offer places in that class to girls only, where the ratio of boys to girls in that class exceeds 2 to 1.
3. The Applicant will only engage in the conduct in condition (2) in respect of the school year 2008 (while the Exemption applies).

4. Where the Applicant offers places to girls or ceases to offer places to boys, it will establish a waiting list on which it will place the names of boys who have, because of this, not been offered places, and will consider the offering of places to those boys when the gender balance ratios permit.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 18 December 2008.

Dated 15 September 2008

C. McKENZIE
Deputy President

EXEMPTION

Application No. A222/2008

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Brotherhood of St Laurence. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to refuse accommodation to persons under the age of 50 years at Sidney Myer House (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- A previous exemption was granted by the Tribunal in November 2005 (A376 2005) and in November 2002 (A377 2002).
- The applicant has provided rooming house accommodation to older and often frail men and women at Sidney Myer House (formerly Millott House) since 1983 (the service). One of the reasons that the older person seeks accommodation at Sidney Myer House is because of the security it offers to older residents sharing with a similar age group. Current residents are between 50 and 90 years of age and often have a disability or are physically frail.
- Sidney Myer House provides accommodation for senior residents on low incomes who have few assets and few or no social supports and family networks. Residents receive support because Sidney Myer House is co-located with other Brotherhood age-specific facilities such as a hostel and day centre, in which there are a number of staff available to assist them to maintain their independence, security and privacy.

- The Service provides accommodation for 16 older male and female residents who generally come from the inner metropolitan area of Melbourne thus the service allows them to remain connected to their community.
- There are no other rooming houses that offer age-specific services in the area.
- Residents feel safer living with older people rather than all age groups.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 September 2011.
