EXEMPTION

Application No. A324/2008

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Youth Affairs Council of Victoria Inc. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Indigenous person as Indigenous State Co-ordinator for the Victorian Indigenous Youth Advisory Council (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application by Georgie Ferrari, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 60, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Indigenous person as Indigenous State Co-ordinator for the Victorian Indigenous Youth Advisory Council.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant is a peak advocacy organisation which works for the benefit of young people and aims to promote their participation in the community and for young people to receive justice and equity.
- The Victorian Indigenous Youth Advisory Council is affiliated with and assisted by the applicant.
- The proposed position has been created to allow Indigenous persons to work with Indigenous young people in Victoria.
- The grant of the exemption will enable the applicant to continue to address the issue of encouraging participation of young people in a peak body dedicated to reducing disadvantage suffered by young people, but will also specifically address the needs of indigenous youth. It will help to give indigenous youth a voice in the Victorian community and in advocating policies which affect indigenous youth. The position will provide a role model which it is hoped will encourage indigenous youth to become involved in advocacy, policy formation and participation in policy making bodies.

- The Tribunal granted an exemption to the applicant in similar terms on 1 October 2004. That exemption expired on 7 October 2007.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 60, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 December 2011.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A326/2008

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Youth Affairs Council of Australia Inc. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to maintain its Articles of Association which allow for the appointment of persons aged between 12 and 25 years only to positions on the applicant's Youth Reference Group and to the position of young media spokesperson on the applicant's Board of Governance (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 42, 60, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The Tribunal previously granted an exemption in similar terms to the applicant in June 2001 and October 2004.
- The circumstances giving rise to the grant of the exemption are still relevant to the current application.

- The grant of the exemption will continue to address the issue of encouraging participation of young people in a peak body dedicated to reducing disadvantage suffered by young people. It will also assist in raising the profile of young people in the media, and giving young people a voice in the media so that their unique perspectives can be expressed. It is hoped that this exemption will encourage young people to apply for executive positions on this and similar peak bodies.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 42, 60, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 December 2011.

The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to alter or continue its Articles of Association to allow for the appointment of five designated positions on the Board of Governance allocated to young persons aged between 12 and 25 years inclusive (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application by Georgie Ferrari, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 42, 60, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The Tribunal previously granted an exemption in similar terms to the applicant in June 2001 and October 2004.
