EXEMPTION

Application No. A118/2009

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has considered an application pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by Hobsons Bay City Council and Leisure Management Services Pty Ltd (the applicants). The application for exemption is to enable the applicants to operate the pool area of the Bayfit Leisure Centre in North Altona on any Friday between the hours of 7.30 pm and 9.30 pm for women only, and to advertise that service, and to advertise for and employ women only in relation to that service (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, and hearing submissions from Ms Moore, solicitor, and Mr Hunt, the Council's director of community services, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 14, 42, 65, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicants to engage in the exempt conduct.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 14, 42, 65, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is subject to the condition that by 14 July 2010 (in respect of that part of the financial year ending 30 June 2010 during which the exemption is in operation), 14 July 2011 (in respect of the financial year ending 30 June 2011), and 14 July 2012 (in respect of the financial year ending 30 June 2012), the applicants must provide a written report to the Victorian Equal Opportunity and Human Rights Commission on the average number of women per hour who, during the relevant reporting period, have used the pool area during the times to which the exemption relates.

Application No. A167/2009

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Flat Out Inc. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and employ an Indigenous woman as a housing support worker for women exiting prison (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 14, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The women's prison population is comprised of 17 percent Indigenous women. The Indigenous women's prison population is comprised of women who have experienced significant levels of violence and sexual abuse.

- Indigenous women have particular needs arising from their personal and cultural histories.
- The Tribunal accepted the Applicants' submission that an Indigenous woman worker would be more culturally sensitive to the needs of Indigenous women.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 14, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 July 2012.

Application No. A151/2009

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Department of Human Services – Gippsland Region. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person to the position of Senior Aboriginal Planning Officer (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 14, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The employment of a senior Aboriginal Officer to the Department of Human Services – Gippsland Region is central to the achievement of regional planning and effective engagement of Indigenous people to achieve desirable health and well being outcomes.
- In 2006 the Gippsland region of Victoria was home to 3064 Aboriginal people which is representative of 10 percent of Victoria's total Aboriginal population.

- The Victorian State Government has signed up to be a member of specific policy initiatives that the region is charged with implementing. These include, but are not limited to:–

- DHS Aboriginal Services Plan 2008 – 2010;
- 'Close the Gap': Indigenous Health Equality Summit Statement of Intent;
- Victorian Indigenous Affairs Framework.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 14, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 July 2012.

Application No. A164/2009

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by WAYSS Ltd. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander as an Indigenous Family Violence Capacity Building Worker (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 14, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- This position provides for specific projects to facilitate the development of an integrated family violence response for indigenous women and their children who are victims/witnesses of family violence. The purpose is to ensure that these women and children have improved access to mainstream family violence case managed service provision and that the services they receive are culturally appropriate and responsive.

- The position will also proactively support the work of the four funded family violence partnerships and other key stakeholders (Victorian Police, the Courts, Family Violence Networks), undertake key relationships development projects and provide practical advice to relevant participants on reforms as they are implemented.
- The position will be supported by a working group comprising Indigenous workers, community leaders and mainstream providers. WAYSS seeks to employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person for reasons of credibility and the attributes that a member of this community will bring to the position. Employing an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person will assist in giving the regional operations credibility amongst the Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander community. An Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person will understand community needs and aspirations from personal experience and would be more effective in directly dealing with these in a culturally appropriate way with the regional staff.
- An Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person will have specific skills and knowledge of the Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander community to enable more effective development of policy and delivery of services. The region seeks to make programs and services more responsive to Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander people such as increase use of preventative or early intervention services and increase access to a range of treatment services for health and welfare purposes. This work requires the capability to identify barriers to change and collaboration between communities and organisations to improve outcomes at both policy and operational levels.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 14, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 July 2012.

Application No. A165/2009

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by the (Women's Information Support & Housing in the North) Wishin Inc. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to:

- Advertise to employ women only.
- Restrict individual membership of the service to women only.
- Restrict Committee of Management membership to women only.

(the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 14, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- WISHIN Inc is a gender specific service that works with women who are homeless or at risk of homelessness in the local government areas of Moreland and Darebin. The service's main objective is to support women finding long term, safe, secure housing. It is vital for WISHIN that this work be done in a safe trusting environment. A number of women approach the service because they have been the victims of domestic violence and have specifically chosen a women's only service.
- Many of the women are from cultural backgrounds where it is inappropriate and/or very uncomfortable for them to approach a service where men may be present.
- In providing this service WISHIN recognises and works to address the systemic barriers that inhibit women from securing sustainable housing. They also offer secondary consultation and are active in community development projects concerned with the welfare and wellbeing of women and children.
- WISHIN is funded predominantly by the Department of Human Services (DHS) which funds the service to provide a supported accommodation assistance program and the psychiatric disability and support services. These programs are funded to provide for women only.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 14, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 July 2012.
