EXEMPTION

Application No. A211 of 2009

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by Gateway Community Health (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Indigenous community support worker.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including the affidavit of Leonard Peady, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Indigenous community support worker.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The Indigenous Community Support Service worker will support Indigenous community members and their families by providing linking and referrals to a range of mainstream services which may include welfare and social support, family violence, health (including drug and alcohol services), housing, child care and legal.
- The role of the support worker will also cover the development of relationships with other service providers and promote access and pathways to their services, including through the provision of internet services.
- By better linking Indigenous people to community services, the community support service worker will support social inclusion and community cohesion and will assist in closing the gap in access to services between Indigenous and non-Indigenous Australians.
- The community support service in which this position is located is funded for three years by the Commonwealth Government through the Department of Families, Housing, Community Services and Indigenous Affairs.
- There has been consultation with the local Indigenous specific community working party and the Koori Interagency network which has supported the support service and those organisations have expressed the strong opinion that to be successful this position needs to be filled by an indigenous person.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Indigenous community support worker.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 17 September 2012.

Dated 10 September 2009.

Financial Management Act 1994VICTORIAN GOVERNMENT
PURCHASING BOARD*Supply Policies

In accordance with section 54L(3) of the Financial Management Act 1994, notice is given of the following new supply policy made by the Victorian Government Purchasing Board (VGPB).

Procurement and the Management of Exemptions

Following a review, the VGPB introduced a new Exemption Policy; effective from 17 September 2009.

The new policy recognises that there will be occasions when an open approach to market may not be the optimal sourcing strategy and only a limited number or a single supplier is approached by government for procurement processes.

The new exemption policy will replace two existing policies entitled Exemption from Obtaining Multiple Quotes for purchases up to $150,000 and Limited Tendering Procedures – Exemption from Open and Selective Tendering for purchases in excess of $150,000.

The policy details the required approval processes in considering an exemption. Three categories of exemption have been defined and each category is aligned with specific process approval requirements.

Departure from the ICT procurement intellectual property (IP) ownership position will now be considered under the exemption policy.

The new exemption policy also requires higher process standards in granting an exemption to normal procurement activities.

This policy was subject to extensive consultation with departments.

The full text of the policies may be viewed on the Government Procurement Portal, www.procurement.vic.gov.au

For the avoidance of doubt, a reference in this Notice to the specification of a toll zone by reference to Burnley Street refers to that point on the Link road where Burnley Street would cross the Link road if Burnley Street continued in a straight southerly direction from its southernmost extremity. For the avoidance of doubt, a reference in this Notice to ‘eastbound’ means in a general easterly direction from the eastern end of the West Gate Freeway towards Glenferrie Road.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Table One, under section 71(1) (b) of the Act and in accordance with the Agreement, the maximum tolls payable in respect of the use of a vehicle on a toll zone on the Link road where that vehicle is a Car, a LCV or a HCV for a Trip are as listed in Table Two:

For the avoidance of doubt, this Notice does not set Charge Tolls, Maximum Charge Tolls or Taxi Tolls for the purposes of Schedule 3 (the Toll Calculation Schedule) of the Agreement, or Schedule 4 (the Toll Calculation Schedule) of the Integration and Facilitation Agreement.

For the avoidance of doubt, this Notice also:

- (i) revokes or repeals; or, in the alternative
- (ii) amends –

the NOTICE UNDER SECTION 71(1) dated 12 June 2009 and published in the Victoria Government Gazette No. 25 (pages 1544 to 1548), dated 18 June 2009 ('the Last Notice').
