EXEMPTION

Application No. A311/2010

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by Incito Maintenance (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ people with mental illness for positions within its business (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including the affidavit of David Christian, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant is not-for-profit enterprise established by WISE Employment, which is itself a not-for-profit community service organisation with branches across Victoria, New South Wales, Tasmania and the Northern Territory. WISE Employment is committed to supporting disadvantaged members of the community and providing assistance to job seekers and employers.
- The applicant offers property maintenance services in a commercial setting. It seeks to employ a mix of workers with and without barriers to employment. It actively recruits people with disabilities including mental illnesses. In addition, it actively recruits tenants of social and public housing. The applicant aims to have 50–60% of its workforce made up of persons with a mental illness.

- This exemption is sought to advertise for positions with the applicant and to target persons with mental illnesses living in public housing in order to increase employment for persons in that disadvantaged group. This is consistent with one of the purposes for which the applicant was established.
- Although mental illness falls within one of the attributes protected by the Act, being a tenant of in social or public housing is not. This exemption is granted in respect of the protected attribute only.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 17 November 2013.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A326/2010

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Sunraysia District Ladies Bowling Association (the applicant). The exemption sought is to enable the applicant to conduct the Dot Jenkinson Ladies Pairs Bowling Tournament for participation by women only (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including an affidavit of Joyce Wisneske, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 65, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted that:

- The Dot Jenkinson Ladies Pairs is a prestigious event for women only in Ladies Bowling Tournaments in Victoria and South Australia and commemorates the achievements of champion bowler Dot Jenkinson, an 'icon' amongst women bowlers.

- As a women only event it encourages participation of women throughout Victoria and other states of Australia. Over the past 14 years the event has developed to attract record entries.

- The event offers a huge financial benefit to the local economy and plays a large part in promoting the Sunraysia region.

- Exemptions in similar terms have been granted in December 2002 (A410/2002), July 2005 (A201/2005) and September 2008 (A221/2008). The current exemption is due to expire on 1 September 2011 and the event is scheduled for 13 and 14 October 2011. Renewal of the exemption is sought now to allow the applicant to advertise the event and issue invitations in the coming months.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 65, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 24 November 2013.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A312/2010

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by Black Arm Band Inc. (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander people in the roles of General Manager and Community Liaison Coordinator (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including the affidavit of John Paxinos, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant was created as a special project of the City of Melbourne in 2006 to perform murundak, a music and film event that celebrated Australian Indigenous music. Since then it has continued to perform locally, nationally and internationally. Black Arm Band tours extensively including in rural and remote Aboriginal communities. It has cultivated positive relationships with Indigenous groups, creating an invaluable learning exchange for the communities that have been engaged.
- While the applicant is establishing its governance and management structures, the City of Melbourne has appointed Auspicious Arts Projects Inc. ('AAP') to manage the applicant's finances and some operations. That has led to AAP lodging this exemption application on behalf of the applicant. The persons employed in the above positions will be employed and paid by the applicant.
- Funding has been provided for the applicant by the Australia Council for the Arts via its Community Partnerships Section and through the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Board. The latter allocated funding priority to projects that support Indigenous personnel in key positions and funded projects need to demonstrate clear evidence of Indigenous control, participation and support. The funding agreements require that the above staff be employed by December 2010.
- The draft position description for the General Manager role says the holder has responsibility for them for maintaining good relationships between the applicant, AAP and the City of Melbourne. The holder of that role is also required to maintain good relationships with company artists, community leaders, community members, workshop participants, arts organisations and the wider arts community. The draft position description for the Community Liaison Coordinator says the holder of the role is responsible for the maintenance of the above relationships and also for the development of the annual program of remote and regional touring and the marketing and promotion of the annual program in consultation with the General Manager and the Creative Director/s. Each position description calls for applicants to have experience in working with Indigenous communities and knowledge of Indigenous cultural protocols.

- Taking into account the nature of the work done by the holders of the two roles the applicant considers that it is appropriate that Indigenous persons be employed. That position is supported by the City of Melbourne and the Australia Council.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 17 November 2013.
