EXEMPTION

Application No. A338/2010

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by Amicus Group Inc. (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person in the role of Aboriginal Support Worker (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including the affidavit of Ann-Maree Davis, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant is a not for profit organisation that currently supports over 180 people from Bendigo and the surrounding areas. It has been operating for 21 years. Through the provision of support services, the applicant promotes the active participation and growth of people with a disability, people who are frail and aged and other disadvantaged groups within the community. In addition, the applicant seeks to assist the community in understanding the barriers for people who face disadvantage and so support the community to respond differently.
- The applicant works to identify opportunities specific to the individual which reflect their own preferences, goals and needs. The Aboriginal Support Worker will be required to work with Aboriginal people to support their self-directed needs. The role requires that the Worker demonstrate respect, empathy and honesty towards Aboriginal people and respect Aboriginal family and cultural relationships.
- This role has been previously filled by a person of non-Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander background and the applicant found there were difficulties with referrals from indigenous community service organisations. In consultation with the Department of Health and other stakeholders, the applicant has decided to recruit an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person to fill the role to increase engagement with the people the applicant seeks to support and with the community services which can assist them.

- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of a non-Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person wishing to apply for the Aboriginal Support Worker role. I am satisfied that the exemption is a measure taken for the purpose of assisting or advancing Aboriginal people who are disadvantaged and so it does not amount to discrimination under the Charter. In any event, in the circumstances discussed above, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 22 December 2013.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A291/2010

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Kensington Community Recreation Centre (the applicant) for exemption from sections 13, 14, 42, 65 and 195 of that Act. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In this exemption, 'exempt conduct' means – the opening of the Kensington Community Recreation Centre (a facility managed by the Victorian YMCA on behalf of the City of Melbourne) out of normal operating hours for women only swimming sessions and related programs, to be staffed by women only during those hours, and to advertise those services.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application including the affidavit of Ryan McNamara and upon hearing submissions from Mr McNamara and Ms J. Hansen and for the reasons for decision given by the Tribunal on 15 December 2010, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 14, 42, 65 and 195 of the Act to engage in the exempt conduct.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 14, 42, 65 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 22 December 2013.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A351/2010

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has received an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by Thales Australia Limited (formerly ADI Limited) on behalf of itself and ADI Munitions Pty Limited (together the Applicant Companies). The application, received on 13 December 2010, is for renewal of an existing exemption granted to the Applicant Companies and related entities (A161/2007) which expired on 19 December 2010.

Pending the hearing and determination of the current application for an exemption, the Applicant Companies have sought an interim exemption on the same terms as that granted in 2007.

Upon reading the Orders made on 27 November 2007 and the Reasons given for those Orders and material submitted in support of the current application, including the affidavit of Michael Francis Jackson, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption on the same terms as the 2007 exemption for a limited period of six months to allow the current application to be heard and determined.

Accordingly, the Tribunal Orders that:

1. Pursuant to section 83(1) of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, an exemption is granted to the Applicant Companies from the operation of sections 13, 14, 15, 98, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (Vic.) ('the Act') for a period of six months from the date of gazettal of this order.
2. The exemption is granted in respect of the operation of sections 13, 14, 15, 98, 100 and 195 of the Act insofar as those sections relate to the 'race' (as that attribute is defined in section 4 of the Act) of employees, job applicants, and contract workers of the Applicant Companies.
3. The class of activities for which the exemption is granted is discrimination against employees, job applicants and contract workers, where such discrimination is required for the Applicant Companies to undertake certain defence projects (Controlled Projects) in compliance with the laws of the United States of America – in particular the International Traffic in Arms Regulations and the Export Administration Regulations (together U.S. Export Laws). The exemption granted would permit the Applicant Companies to:–
  - (a) require employees, job applicants and contract workers of the Applicant Companies to provide details of their place of birth and nationality to enable the Applicant Companies to determine whether those people are permitted by U.S. Export Laws to work on Controlled Projects and/or to access technology, materials or information that are subject to restriction under the U.S. Export Laws (Controlled Material);
  - (b) identify, by publication of a list, those employees and contract workers that are permitted to access Controlled Material or work on Controlled Projects due to their nationality or inclusion in a relevant Agreement, such list to be limited to only those officers and employees with a need to know;
  - (c) identify by means of security passes or otherwise a system that identifies whether an employee or contract worker is permitted to work on Controlled Projects and/or the level of access permitted to that employee or contract worker to Controlled Material due to that employee's or contract worker's nationality. Such passes may be colour coded but in such a way that it does not specifically identify an employee or contract worker's nationality;
  - (d) restrict access to Controlled Material or work on Controlled Projects that are regulated by U.S. Export Laws to particular employees or contract workers, based on their nationality;
  - (e) reject applications from job applicants to join the Applicant Companies' workforce in positions requiring access to Controlled Material or relating to Controlled Projects regulated by U.S. Export Laws based on nationality;
  - (f) transfer employees and contract workers from Controlled Projects regulated by the U.S. Export Laws on the basis that, because of their nationality, the U.S. Export Laws do not permit them to work on those Controlled Projects, as a result of existing or changed nationality or a change to the requirements of the Controlled Project;
  - (g) require employees and contract workers involved in Controlled Projects to notify the Applicant Companies of any change to their nationality;
  - (h) provide to companies that transfer Controlled Material to the Applicant Companies, details of the nationality of those employees and contract workers in the Applicant Companies' workforce who will have access to that Controlled Material; and
  - (i) provide to companies who use Controlled Material regulated by U.S. Export Laws at their facilities, details of the nationality of those in the Applicant Companies' workforce who will attend those facilities;
  - (j) enter into agreements with the Applicant Companies' contractors, agents and consultants pursuant to which those third parties undertake to comply with the matters referred to in (a) to (i) above.

4. These orders are conditional on the Applicant furnishing a report every six months to the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission. Such report must disclose:
- (a) all strategies in place to ensure compliance with anti-discrimination legislation, including all training programs, internal audits and complaints within each reporting period;
  - (b) the number of job applicants rejected for ITAR purposes, but subsequently appointed to other roles within each reporting period;
  - (c) the number of employees retrenched or redeployed due to ITAR requirements and any steps taken to minimise retrenchment or redeployment, and any steps taken generally to mitigate the impact of the Applicant's responsibility under ITAR on the deployment of its workforce within each reporting period;
  - (d) the number of vacancies advertised within each reporting period, including the number of such vacancies where candidates were required to satisfy ITAR related requirements.
