EXEMPTION

Application No A75/2010

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by Western Health (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Aboriginal hospital liaison officer.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including the affidavit of Joe De Bono, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Aboriginal person to fill the position of Aboriginal hospital liaison officer.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- Western Health is a major provider of health services in the western metropolitan region of Melbourne including through Sunshine Hospital, Western Hospital, the Williamstown Hospital, Reg Geary House and Hazeldean nursing homes and DASWest, a drug and alcohol service.
- Western Health wishes to employ a person of Aboriginal descent to work as a hospital liaison officer to deliver culturally appropriate care to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander patients. The officer is responsible for clinical work and consultation with other clinicians, effective liaison with community controlled organisations and for the development of culturally specific events. Each Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander patient admitted to Western Health is to receive contact from the officer, who is expected to provide practical assistance to the patients and their families.
- One of the position requirements is that the person employed is to have a sound knowledge and understanding of Aboriginal culture, society and kinship networks and be accepted by the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community. In order to ensure that the person employed is accepted by the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community, Western Health believes that the position should be filled by an Aboriginal person.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Aboriginal person in the role of Aboriginal hospital liaison officer.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 29 April 2013.
