EXEMPTION

Application No. A126/2010

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by Parks Victoria (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ persons of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent (Indigenous Australians) in field-based positions (for example Rangers, Field Services Officers, Project Officers and Team Leaders) and office-based positions (for example Human Resources Officers, Research Officers and Planning Officers) which have been designated as Indigenous roles in the applicant's ongoing workforce plans (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including the affidavit of Gregory Robert Mead, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant was previously granted an exemption to engage in the exempt conduct (A127/2007) which expired on 1 May 2010.
- The applicant, in line with the State Government of Victoria's 'Policy for Indigenous Victorians', is continuing with its work to improve consultation and working arrangements with Indigenous communities, to manage Indigenous cultural sites and places to best practice standards, to develop internal cross-cultural training programs and employ more Indigenous Australians as staff. The Indigenous staff appointments have an important role in developing Parks Victoria Indigenous programs.
- The applicant believes that Indigenous Australians are best suited for these positions because only they would have a true understanding and appreciation of Indigenous Australian beliefs, customs, values and affinity to cultural sites and places. An Indigenous Australian is the most appropriate person to pass on Indigenous skills and knowledge and assist in the interpretation of Indigenous cultural sites and places to non-Indigenous people.

- The appointees must be accepted and trusted by the Victorian Indigenous Community. They must furthermore be aware of and sensitive to Indigenous meeting protocols. Indigenous Australian communities prefer Indigenous Australians to undertake certain tasks relating to their communities.
- Parks Victoria aims to reach and maintain as a minimum 10% of Indigenous Australian workers as a total of its workforce.
- A number of adolescent boys (10 in particular), with Intellectual Disabilities and/or Autism Spectrum Disorder are enrolled at the school. They can exhibit significant levels of unpredictable and challenging behaviours, including severe aggression to themselves and others.
- At the end of the coming school term, one male Education Support Class staff member is leaving the applicant and it is necessary to replace him.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 9 June 2013.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A143/2010

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by Monash Special Developmental School (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ one male Education Support Class position (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including the affidavit of Helen Johnston, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- Monash Special Developmental School caters for students 2.8–18 years with intellectual and/or development delays, many of whom also have Autism Spectrum Disorder. There are currently 190 students enrolled in the school.

- The requirement for a male Education Support Class staff is based upon the need to satisfy Occupational Health and Safety and Work Cover issues. A number of Work Cover claims have been made by staff in the past arising from student attacks. Most of the current staff are female, and the filling of this position with male Education Support Class staff is appropriate for the needs of the school and to ensure that it can manage its Occupational Health and Safety and Work Cover responsibilities to other staff.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 16 June 2013.

Supply Policies

In accordance with section 54L(3) of the Financial Management Act 1994, notice is given of the following new supply policy made by the Victorian Government Purchasing Board (VGPB).

Sole Entity Purchase Contracts

Following a review, the VGPB introduced a Sole Entity Purchase Contracts Policy, effective from 17 June 2010.

The new policy aims to consolidate existing departmental purchase contract arrangements and will replace the following current procurement arrangements: Open State Purchase Contracts, Whole of Government Contracts, Departmental Standing Offer Arrangements and Open Standing Offer Arrangements.

The new policy seeks to replicate, to the greatest extent possible, the requirements as stipulated in the State Purchase Contracts Policy, effective from 17 June 2010, to ensure consistency of understanding and application of VGPB policy.

The new policy stipulates that Sole Entity Purchase Contracts must be mandatory arrangements only for a single entity. Access to a Sole Entity Purchase Contract by other entities is limited to ten per cent of the estimated contract value. Should this limit be exceeded, transition to a State Purchase Contract should be considered by the lead entity.

The new policy will require minor changes to the Process Approval for the Procurement of Goods and Services Policy to ensure consistency of terminology across all VGPB policies and processes.

This policy was subject to extensive consultation with departments.

In accordance with section 54L(3) of the Financial Management Act 1994, notice is given of the following new supply policy made by the Victorian Government Purchasing Board (VGPB).

State Purchase Contracts

Following a review, the VGPB introduced an amended State Purchase Contracts Policy, effective from 17 June 2010.

The amended policy aims to simplify the policy's application across government and clarify the contract variation requirements contained in the policy.

The amended policy contains a provision for mandatory State Purchase Contracts and non-mandatory State Purchase Contracts. Non-mandatory State Purchase Contracts are only to be used in the event that a mandatory State Purchase Contract is not suitable for the business case requirements.

The amended policy also aims to improve State Purchase Contract expenditure reporting requirements and requires the Department of Treasury and Finance to be responsible for collecting procurement data against each State Purchase Contract.

This policy was subject to extensive consultation with departments.
