EXEMPTION

Application No. A65/2010

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by The Geelong College, ABN 22 005 988 205 (the applicant), for exemption from sections 37, 42, 100 and 195 of that Act. The application for exemption is designed to secure approximately equal enrolments of males and females at the school, by allowing the applicant to advertise for students of whichever gender is underrepresented to enter the school, to structure its waiting lists, allocate student placements and offer bursaries, scholarships and enrolments specifically targeted at those underrepresented prospective students, so as to promote an approximately equal gender balance of students at the school (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application including the affidavit of Pauline Claire Turner and upon hearing submissions from Ms Frances Anderson, solicitor from Moores Legal, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 37, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to the applicant, to structure its waiting lists, allocate student placements and offer bursaries, scholarships and enrolments specifically targeted to achieve equality of gender and to advertise for students of whichever gender is underrepresented to enter the school, so as to promote an approximately equal gender balance of students in all year levels at the school.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 37, 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which the notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 29 July 2013.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A184/2010

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has considered an application pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by the Mallee Sexual Assault Unit Inc. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Indigenous counsellor to provide family violence support to Indigenous clients.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of the application by Joanne Sheehan, the deponent of the affidavit, in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Indigenous counsellor to provide family violence support to Indigenous clients.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The Applicant service is funded by the Department of Human Services Victoria.
- The Department of Human Services supports employment by the Applicant of an Indigenous worker to provide the family violence support to Indigenous clients.
- An exemption in similar terms was granted by the Tribunal in 2003 and in 2007, the latter of which expired on 18 July 2010.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ Indigenous counsellors only to provide family violence support to Indigenous clients.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until the 21 July 2013.

Where a pension is involved, the early release amount including indexation in accordance with this clause should be treated as a commutation.

Any income tax paid by the applicant at the time of early release may need to be taken into consideration by the governing body of a Victorian public sector superannuation scheme when the benefit is paid.
