EXEMPTION

Application No. A217/2010

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by the Salvation Army, Bridgehaven (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ female workers only at the applicant's residential rehabilitation program (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including the affidavit of Carmel Cataldo, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- Bridgehaven is a residential rehabilitation facility exclusively for women and women with children.
- Many women are at Bridgehaven because of domestic violence issues. Female staff are better suited to provide a safe environment for these women whilst they address their issues in confidence and free of perceived risk without the complication of on-going male to female relationships.
- The programme requires employees to enter the living quarters of these women in residential care for a variety of reasons and it is more appropriate that women undertake that work.
- A previous exemption was granted in 2007 and the circumstances surrounding the application remain the same (A174/2007).

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A183/2010

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by Moreland City Council (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander people in traineeship positions of employment under the applicant's City Council's Reconciliation Policy and Action Plan (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including the affidavit of Gerald Peter Smith, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant made reference to the historical and ongoing socio and economic disadvantage experienced by Indigenous people living in Victoria. The applicant seeks to contribute to redressing this disadvantage through its Reconciliation Principles and its Reconciliation Policy and Action Plan (Plan). An aspect of that redress is working towards recruiting Indigenous people in various positions of employment.
- The Plan notes that according to the 2006 Census 627 Indigenous people were then residing in Moreland. As at the 2001 Census 15.6% of Indigenous residents were unemployed as compared with 6% of other Moreland residents.
- The applicant currently employs approximately 1,100 people. It intends to offer two traineeships to people of Aboriginal or Torres Strait background to assist in addressing the disadvantage referred to above.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 4 August 2013.
