EXEMPTION

Application No. A159/2011

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by Parks Victoria (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ only Aboriginal members of the Gunaikurnai Land and Waters Aboriginal Corporation in designated field and office based positions within the applicant organisation (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavit of Gregory Robert Mead, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant and the Gunaikurnai Land and Waters Aboriginal Corporation (the Corporation), in line with Federal Government registered Indigenous Land Use Agreement V12010/003 between the Gunaikurnai Land and Waters Aboriginal Corporation and the State and Federal Governments, jointly manage eight parks and reserves in Gippsland, Victoria. That public land comprises approximately 22,000 square kilometres which is held under native title by the Corporation on behalf of the traditional owners.
- The Corporation has asked the applicant to maximise employment and training opportunities for traditional owners to work on their own country. The positions in issue would predominantly be located within the Gunaikurnai Country, including the conservation and protection of biodiversity, natural and cultural landscapes and natural processes and the provision of opportunities for recreation and education associated with the enjoyment and understanding of natural environments and heritage including heritage.
- The applicant believes that members of the Corporation would best fill the specific positions because they will have a true understanding and appreciation of the traditional owner's beliefs, customs, values and affinity with cultural sites and places. As the appointees will have access to privileged information concerning traditional ecological knowledge, customs and practices, it is vital the traditional owners accept them. By offering these positions to members of the Corporation benefits will flow to them and their families as a result of them being involved in the care of their own Country.
- The Tribunal has granted similar exemptions to the applicant in respect of other areas of Victoria for which the applicant is responsible (A119/2009, A230/2009, A127/2007 and A134/2011).

- The appointees will help the applicant reach its current target for Indigenous people to comprise at least 10% of its workforce.
- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of persons who are not Aboriginal members of the Corporation who would wish to be employed in the designated positions. I am satisfied that the exemption is a measure taken for the purpose of assisting or advancing Indigenous people who are disadvantaged and so it does not amount to discrimination under the Charter. In any event, in the circumstances discussed above, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 29 June 2014.
