Gambling Regulation Act 2003

APPROVAL OF KENO GAMES FOR BETTING PURPOSES

Keno Racing

I, Hon. Michael O'Brien MP, Minister for Gaming, under section 6A.2A.1 of the Gambling Regulation Act 2003 (the Act), approve Keno Racing as a keno game authorised to be conducted by the keno licensee subject to the Act and any conditions to which the licence is subject.

The details of the approved game are as specified:

1. Name of the game: Keno Racing
2. Summary of the key aspects of the game:
 - (i) In each draw, the 20 numbers drawn from 80 numbers in the Keno Classic game, by a random number generator (RNG), determine the result of the simulated Keno Racing game.
 - (ii) Winning entries are determined by correctly predicting the distribution of the 'Groupings' of drawn numbers in the Keno Classic game.
The Keno grid is divided into either 6 or 7 numbers to produce 12 'Groupings' with the intention to predict which 'Grouping' will be 'First', 'Second', 'Third' or 'Fourth'.
 - (iii) All winning prize categories are fixed odds prizes. The prize categories are designed to produce an average return to player which is consistent with legislative requirements. Extra Promotional Prizes may be offered from time to time.
 - (iv) Draws are conducted every two minutes and thirty seconds to four minutes, seven days a week, with a ten minute break daily at 4am to undertake end of day IT requirements.
3. Entries into the next scheduled Keno Classic draw and associated Keno Racing game can only be purchased by a player up to 'draw close', which is up to 5 seconds before that draw is scheduled to be conducted. Once entry into the next scheduled Keno Classic draw and associated Keno Racing game has closed, players may immediately purchase an entry in the draw after the next scheduled draw.
4. Distribution Approach/Points of Sale:
 - Venues that have a pub licence;
 - Venues that have a full or restricted club licence;
 - Venues that are Wagering outlets; and
 - Any other distribution approaches/points of sale permitted under the keno licence from time to time.

As a condition of this approval, all animations associated with this game are to be based on thoroughbred horse racing, unless otherwise approved by the Minister for Gaming.

Any significant changes to the animation of the game must be approved in writing by the Minister for Gaming.

This approval takes effect on 1 July 2013.

Dated 8 March 2012

HON. MICHAEL O'BRIEN MP
Minister for Gaming
