INTERIM EXEMPTION

Application No. A19/2013

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by AQA Victoria Ltd (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male attendant carer or female attendant carer as the need arises (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavit of Peter Trethewey, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an interim exemption from sections 16, 107 and 182 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct until the application is finally heard and determined.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant is a service provider of attendant care to people with quadriplegia and similar physical disabilities. The attendants work in the client's home and their work often includes providing intimate support during bladder and bowel actions and in areas of general hygiene. The majority of clients indicate they have a gender preference when seeking to employ attendants.

- Previous exemptions have been granted to the applicant in similar terms. The last exemption granted in 2010 expires on 17 February 2013. I am not currently satisfied that an exception applies to the exempt conduct. Accordingly, in the absence of an exemption the exempt conduct would amount to prohibited discrimination after 17 February 2013.
- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equality and in particular the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of men or women who wish to be employed by the applicant at a time when their gender is not sought. I am satisfied that for the purposes of this interim exemption, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an interim exemption from the operation of sections 16, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 4 May 2013.

A total of 1,152 megalitres (ML) of high reliability water shares and 770 ML of low reliability water shares will be auctioned and will be sold to the highest bidder, subject to meeting the reserve price and subject to the conditions specified in this notice and those contained in the registration form.

Those wishing to bid at the auction must register their intention with Southern Rural Water by the close of business on Tuesday 26 February 2013. Registration forms are available from Southern Rural Water at 88 Johnson Street, Maffra, or can be downloaded from www.srw.com.au. Registration is free of charge.
