Erratum

Discontinuance of Road
2-4 Central Avenue Thomastown

Notice is hereby given that the notice published on Page 834 G17 of the Victoria Government Gazette dated 26 April 2013 was incorrect. The notice below replaces that notice.

Pursuant of section 206 and Clause 3 of Schedule 10 to the Local Government Act 1989, Whittlesea City Council, at its Ordinary Meetings on 26 February 2013 and 16 April 2013, has resolved to formally discontinue those sections of road marked in Certificate of Title Volume 8259, Folio 645.

Those parts of the road marked 'hatched' on the attached plan below are not reasonably required for public road purposes and once discontinued will be retained by Council for car parking purposes.

The section of road shown 'cross hatched' is to be discontinued subject to the right, power or interest held Yarra Valley Water Ltd, in the road in connection with any sewers, drains or pipes under the control of that authority in or near the road.

No submissions were received by the public in response to the article published in the Whittlesea Leader dated Tuesday 5 March 2013.

HUMAN RIGHTS LISTEXEMPTION

Application No. A46/2013

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by Benalla Bowls Club (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to organise and operate men or women only lawn bowls tournaments as described below:

- (a) Millers Memorial Men's Triples
- (b) Ted Briggs Memorial Men's Triples
- (c) Traders Day Men's Triples
- (d) Ladies Classic Day and advertise these matters (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavits of Graham Moore and having heard evidence from Mr Moore, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 44, 71, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- A copy of the application was sent by the Tribunal to the Victorian Equal Opportunity and Human Rights Commission (the Commission). The Commission did not seek leave to intervene in the proceeding.
- The Miller Memorial Men's Triples tournament has been operating since 1988. It is named after a local businessman who was associated with the applicant. It continues to be sponsored by a local business of the same name. That tournament is run on a Tuesday immediately before the Ted Briggs Memorial Men's Triples as a lead in competition. It commences after the applicant's usual mid-week pennant competition for female club members has finished and so does not interfere with members' access to the applicant's facilities. In 2013, it is intended to hold the tournament on 12 November.
- The Ted Briggs Memorial Men's Triples tournament started in 1988. Mr Briggs was a member of the applicant, a former board member and President. After he passed away, his family asked if a memorial day for men could be named for him. Mr Briggs' family sponsors the event. Teams from all over Australia attend to play. Last year the teams competing totalled 40. Many of the players who participated in the Miller Memorial tournament compete in this tournament. The participants include top players from across Victoria and Australia. These two tournaments bring many people to the town of Benalla and the local area which benefits local businesses. In 2013, it is intended to hold the tournament on 13 November.
- The Traders Day Men's Triples tournament commenced in 1995. It is intended to encourage members from different clubs to participate and increase the number of male participants. The day is scheduled to fit around the applicant's usual schedule of play and is usually planned for a Wednesday when bowls is not usually played. The tournament is to be next held on 6 April 2014.
- The Ladies Classic Day commenced in 1978. It started when clubs such as the applicant ran separate bowls days and events for men and women. Like the other competitions, it attracts players from across Victoria. The event is usually scheduled on a Wednesday or Friday, so as not to interfere with the applicant's usual playing schedule. In 2013, it is intended to hold the tournament on 29 November.
- The applicant's usual playing schedule sees the greens used mainly for open (i.e. mixed gender) or mixed pair days or events. There are two to three open competitions each week, including social competitions. The weekend pennant teams are picked based on ability and not gender. As noted earlier there is a women's pennant day on Tuesday. On the evidence, I am satisfied that these tournaments do not significantly reduce either male or female members' access to playing and event days and that there are opportunities for each gender to play competitively on other occasions.
- It is possible that, in the future, one or more of these four tournaments will be expanded to include both genders.
- The applicant has not received any complaints arising from the exclusion of one gender from participation in any of the four tournaments.
- No exception or current exemption already applies to the exempt conduct and in the absence of an exemption the exempt conduct would amount to prohibited discrimination.
- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equality and in particular the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of persons of the gender not eligible to play in each of the four tournaments. I am satisfied that, in the circumstances discussed above, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 44, 71, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 May 2018.
