HORSHAM RURAL CITY COUNCIL

Proposal to Make Local Law

Local Government Act 1989 – Section 119(2)

At its meeting on 6 May 2013 the Council proposed to make the Community (Amendment) Local Law No. 4.

Purpose of the Community Local Law

The objectives of the local law are to:

- Amend the Community Local Law No. 3 of 2011 to clarify and better apply some of its provisions concerning the condition and appearance of land; and
- Protect the community from unsightly and hazardous land that contributes to the deterioration of neighbourhoods and reinforcing ways in which abatement of those conditions can be achieved.

General Purport of the Local Law

The proposed Local Law will achieve its purposes by a number of measures including:

- Include a specific offence where an owner or occupier of land allows the condition and appearance of land to be or become:
  - (a) a risk or dangerous to the health of people or other land in the vicinity;
  - (b) unsightly or detrimental to the overall amenity and appearance of other land in the vicinity;
  - (c) a nuisance to people or other land in the vicinity.
- Include a specific reference to a 'clean up order' in the offence provisions in clause 9.1 of the principal Local Law. The current provisions make it an offence to 'fail to do something which a provision of the local law requires to be done'. There was some concern that because there was no specific reference to a 'clean up order' in the existing provision that it would be difficult to say that failure to undertake work required by a clean up order constituted an offence. While the effect of clause 9.1 is debatable, the amendment removes any doubt that failure to comply with a clean up order is an offence against the Local Law.
- Amend the current requirements about the form and content of a clean up order. Arguably the term 'clean up order' is self explanatory, but some doubt was expressed about the effectiveness of the current provision and what it is intended to achieve. The information to be included in a clean up order will also make it clear that if a person fails to do the work required by the order, the Council may do the work and recover the cost.
- Amend clause 9.9 of the principal Local Law to ensure that powers delegated from the Council, specifically to Authorised Officers appointed under the Act, are adequate and appropriate for the purposes of enforcing the Local Law.

Written submissions about the proposed Local Law will be considered in accordance with section 223 of the Local Government Act 1989 and should be addressed to the Chief Executive Officer, Horsham Rural City Council, PO Box 511, Horsham. Written submissions must be received at the Council Offices no later than the close of business on 7 June 2013.

Any person who makes a written submission can ask to be heard by the Council in support of their submission and may be represented by a person, (who is specified in their submission), to act on their behalf. The date, time and place of any meeting to hear submissions on the Local Law will be directly notified to those who have asked to be heard.

Copies of the proposed Local Law and the accompanying explanatory documents can be obtained from the Council's offices at Roberts Avenue, Horsham, and 62 Main Street, Natimuk, or can be viewed on the Council's website at www.hrcc.vic.gov.au

HUMAN RIGHTS LIST

EXEMPTION

Application No. A5/2013

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by Monash Student Association (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to:

- (a) Advertise and employ a woman in the position of the Monash Student Association Women's Officer
- (b) Permit women only to be representatives on the Women's Affairs Collective (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavit of Adria Oliver-Castellucci, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 16, 18, 44, 64, 65, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant organisation, Monash Student Association (MSA), is an incorporated association representing all students at Monash University's Clayton campus. Its activities are various and include publishing a newspaper, convening and conducting student general meetings, managing and operating a restaurant and bar, organising social events. The MSA recognises a number of distinct communities within the broader student community, each of which is represented within the structure of the organisation. Eligibility to nominate for the Women's Officer and to nominate and vote for the Women's Affairs Collective is restricted.
- The Women's Affairs Collective and the Women's Officer perform functions set out in the MSA Constitution. These include promoting in the development and maintenance of services that are responsive to the needs of women students, creating opportunities for women to more fully participate in university life, organising events relevant to women, conducting research, developing policy of relevance to women students and promoting equal opportunity.
- The Women's Officer also represents the concerns of women students, organises meetings, contributes to campaigns and the development of helpful resources, promotes education and awareness, contributes to wider networks and provides support and referrals to women needing assistance or information, including those who are experiencing disadvantage or discrimination.
- There are many other officer positions and opportunities for election to the governing body of the MSA. There are, therefore, ample opportunities for students who are not women to be actively involved with the MSA, to nominate for other positions on its governing body, and to vote for representatives.
- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equality. I am satisfied that, in the circumstances discussed above, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.
- An interim exemption was granted on 21 January 2013. The expiry date for that interim exemption is 30 April 2013.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 16, 18, 44, 64, 65, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 9 May 2018.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A7/2013

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by Monash Student Association (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to:

- (a) Nominate for election, elect and advertise for and employ a female who identifies as queer, as a Female Queer Officer
- (b) Nominate for election, elect and advertise for and employ a male who identifies as queer, as a Male Queer Officer
- (c) Permit only students identifying as queer to stand for membership and be members of the Queer Committee and Queer Collective.

(the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavit of Asher Cameron, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 16, 18, 44, 64, 65, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant organisation, Monash Student Association (MSA), is an incorporated association representing all students at Monash University's Clayton campus. Its activities are various and include publishing a newspaper, convening and conducting student general meetings, managing and operating a restaurant and bar, organising social events. The MSA recognises a number of distinct communities within the broader student community, each of which is represented within the structure of the organisation. Eligibility to nominate for the Queer Officers and to nominate and vote for the Queer Collective is restricted.
- The Queer Collective and the Queer Officers perform functions set out in the MSA Constitution and are the face of the queer community at the university. The roles include provision of support to students having difficulties with sexuality or gender, provision of access to services, encouragement of freedom of expression, discouragement of homophobic attitudes, and provision of a safe environment for non-heterosexual students. The role of representative allows for campaigning and advocacy on issues particular to students who identify as non-heterosexual.
- There are many other officer positions and opportunities for election to the governing body of the MSA. There are, therefore, ample opportunities for students who do not identify as queer students to be actively involved with the MSA, to nominate for other positions on its governing body, and to vote for representatives.
- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). HUMAN RIGHTS LIST

Application No. A45/2013

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by the Yarrowonga Bowls Club Inc., the YMGCR Bowling Club and the Club Mulwala Bowls Club (together, the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to organise and operate a men's only lawn bowls tournament and advertise these matters (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavits of Peter Lidgerwood and having heard evidence from Mr Lidgerwood, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 44, 71, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- A copy of the application was sent by the Tribunal to the Victorian Equal Opportunity and Human Rights Commission (the Commission). The Commission did not seek leave to intervene in the proceeding.
- The three bowls clubs wish to establish and operate a bowls tournament with the purpose of creating an event which will bring visitors to the region. It is proposed that the tournament will be held in mid December 2013 and be called the Sun Country Men's Summer Triples. The tournament will run over three days and use the greens located at each of the three clubs. It is hoped that the event will be run annually at around the same time.
- Yarrowonga Mulwala Tourism Inc. has offered to sponsor the event and donate $10,000 in prize money. It is hoped that the prize money will attract a quality field of bowlers from outside the region. It is hoped those attending will need accommodation for a period of up to four days. A large number of visitors attending such an event will have a significant positive effect on the local economy. Mid week during December is a slower time of year in terms of visitors and tourists.
- The current proposal is for a men's only tournament as it is believed that such a tournament has the best chance of attracting sufficient numbers to succeed. If the event is successful, a women's only event may be established in the future, possibly to be held in March or April, away from the traditional Easter break.
- Each of the clubs run regular men's, women's and mixed competitions and playing days. The applicant is not aware of any complaints relating to gender within the clubs.
- No exception or current exemption already applies to the exempt conduct and in the absence of an exemption the exempt conduct would amount to prohibited discrimination.
- Given that the proposed tournament will run for the first time this year and given a women's event may be established later, it is appropriate to grant an exemption for three years rather than five years to allow for the operation of the exemption to be considered again, should the tournament continue to operate.
- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equality and in particular the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of women who would wish to play in the proposed tournament. I am satisfied that, in the circumstances discussed above, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 44, 71, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 8 May 2016.
