EXEMPTION

Application No. H23/2013

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by MonashLink Community Health Service Ltd (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to, from time to time, advertise for and employ only males or females as Baby Makes Three Facilitators (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavit of Bronwyn Gaye Upston, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 16, 18, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant receives funding from a variety of government programs in order to provide health services to the community within the City of Monash. A key activity of the applicant, in partnership with Monash City Council and VicHealth, is to pilot a model of primary prevention of violence against women in the Clayton area through a range of strategies. One such strategy is to the Baby Makes 3 program directed at first time parents. The program seeks to promote equal and respectful relationships among men and women during their transition to parenthood.

- The main duties of the facilitators are to co-facilitate group work, facilitate gender specific groups and model respectful relationships for first time mothers and fathers. The program is designed to be delivered by both a male and female to facilitate engagement and participation by both men and women.
- No exception or current exemption already applies to the exempt conduct and in the absence of an exemption the exempt conduct would amount to prohibited discrimination.
- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equality and in particular the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of males or females who would wish to be employed in the facilitator positions which have been designated as reserved for the other gender. I am satisfied that, in the circumstances discussed above, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 16, 18, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 28 August 2018.

INTERIM EXEMPTION

Application No. H28/2013

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by Kaellorien Management Pty Ltd (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to employ males only and to provide and operate an all male venue at Club80 in Peel Street, Collingwood, and to advertise in connection with those purposes (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavit of Leonard Lo and having heard from the applicant at a directions hearing on 20 August 2013, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an interim exemption from sections 16, 44, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct until the application is finally heard and determined.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The venue provides male homosexual patrons with a safe environment where male sexual health issues are emphasised and where patrons can relax, socialise and pursue relationships without inhibition or fear of violence or discrimination.
- Previous exemptions have been granted to the applicant in similar terms in 1998, 2001, 2004 and 2010, the last of which will expire on 1 September 2013. In the absence of an exemption, after 1 September 2013, the exempt conduct would amount to prohibited discrimination.
- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equality and in particular the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of women who wish to attend the venue or be employed by the applicant. I am satisfied that for the purposes of this interim exemption, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an interim exemption from the operation of sections 16, 44, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from 2 September 2013 until 1 November 2013.
