INTERIM EXEMPTION

Application No. A96/2013

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by St Michael's Grammar School (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to:

- (a) advertise for prospective female students to enter the applicant's school so as to promote an equal gender balance at the school;
- (b) structure waiting lists, to allocate student placements, and to offer bursaries, scholarships and enrolments targeted at prospective and existing female students, so as to promote an equal gender balance at the school; and
- (c) advertise these matters (the exempt conduct).

An interim exemption in respect of the conduct was granted on 18 June 2013 to allow for the application to be heard and determined. That interim exemption is due to expire on 30 September 2013. Further time is required to complete the hearing and determination of the matter. In these circumstances, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant a further interim exemption from sections 38, 44, 107 and 182 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct until the application is finally heard and determined.

The Tribunal hereby grants an interim exemption from the operation of sections 38, 44, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to commence on 1 October 2013 and remain in force until 30 November 2013.

EXEMPTION

Application No. H18/2013

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by P B Activate Pty Ltd (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ males only and to operate an all male venue at the Laird Hotel, 149 Gipps Street, Abbotsford, and to advertise in connection with those purposes (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavit of Brett Alister Lasham and having heard from representatives of the applicant at a directions hearing on 20 August 2013, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 16, 44, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The venue provides for male homosexual patrons a safe environment where male sexual health issues are emphasised and where patrons can socialise, relax and pursue relationships without inhibition or fear or violence or discrimination. The venue provides a safe and discreet space for males who are homosexual, bisexual or questioning their sexuality to meet and gain access to information and support. The venue has been operating as a gay hotel for more than 30 years. Three to four times per year, the venue is opened to all members of the gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender and intersex community.
- The applicant prefers to employ only males, whether or not they are homosexual, as its clientele is more comfortable with and expect only males to provide services.
- Letters in support of the applicant have been provided by the Victorian AIDS Council/Gay Men's Health Centre, Vic Bears Inc., Victorian Leather Inc. and an individual. The Victorian AIDS Council/Gay Men's Health Centre has worked with the venue for more than 30 years to provide a meeting point and education centre. Each January, the Victorian AIDS Council/Gay Men's Health Centre uses the venue as a collection point for its Gay Community Periodic Survey. The venue is used by Vic Bears Inc. and Victorian Leather Inc. as a meeting place. These organisations offer support to gay men on a range of matters including regarding health.

- Previous exemptions have been granted in respect of the same conduct and the venue since 1998 and the circumstances relevant to those exemptions are still applicable. An interim exemption in respect of the exempt conduct will expire on 1 November 2013. No exception already applies to the exempt conduct. After 1 November 2013, in the absence of a further exemption, the exempt conduct would amount to prohibited discrimination.
- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equality and in particular the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of women who would wish to be employed by the applicant or attend the venue. I am satisfied that, in the circumstances discussed above, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 16, 44, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from 2 November 2013 until 1 November 2018.

Application No. H28/2013

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by Kaellorien Management Pty Ltd (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to employ males only and to provide and operate an all male venue at Club80 in Peel Street, Collingwood and to advertise in connection with those purposes (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavit of Leonard Lo and having heard from the applicant at a directions hearing on 20 August 2013, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 16, 44, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The venue provides male homosexual patrons with a safe environment where male sexual health issues are emphasised and where patrons can relax, socialise and pursue relationships without inhibition or fear of violence or discrimination.
- The applicant prefers to employ only males, whether or not they are homosexual, as its clientele is more comfortable with and expect only males to provide services.
- Letters in support of the applicant have been provided by the Victorian AIDS Council/Gay Men's Health Centre, the Melbourne Sexual Health Centre and an individual. The venue has worked with the Victorian AIDS Council/Gay Men's Health Centre to allow volunteers to undertake outreach work and to provide health related information. The Victorian AIDS Council/Gay Men's Health Centre uses the venue as a recruitment point for its Gay Community Periodic Survey and to undertake a range of supports. The Melbourne Sexual Health Centre has been involved with the venue since the 1980's. Since then, its staff have provided fortnightly outreach sexual health clinics at the venue. The venue provides a dedicated, private space for this work.
- Previous exemptions have been granted in respect of the same conduct and the venue since 1998 and the circumstances relevant to those exemptions are still applicable. An interim exemption in respect of the exempt conduct will expire on 1 November 2013. No exception already applies to the exempt conduct. After 1 November 2013, in the absence of a further exemption, the exempt conduct would amount to prohibited discrimination.

- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equality and in particular the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of women who wish to attend the venue or be employed by the applicant. I am satisfied that, in the circumstances discussed above, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 16, 44, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

EXEMPTION

Application No. H29/2013

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by Merrigum Bowls Club (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to organise and operate a women only lawn bowls medley fours tournament each year in December and advertise that matter (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavits of Maureen Shepherd, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 44, 71, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- A copy of the application was sent by the Tribunal to the Victorian Equal Opportunity and Human Rights Commission (the Commission). The Commission did not seek leave to intervene in the proceeding.

- A women only tournament has been run each December by the applicant for many years. It is held on a Thursday. The purpose of the tournament is to promote, encourage and foster an appreciation of lawn bowls for women in the local and surrounding areas. The prize money for the tournament has been donated by a life member of the applicant club and she wishes the tournament to continue to be for women only. The applicant says that for the last 10 years only senior women bowlers have participated in the tournament.

- Men have opportunities to play bowls at other clubs in the region on the Thursday the tournament is held. At present the applicant's mid-week and Saturday pennant teams are mixed.

- The applicant has received no complaints regarding women only events or otherwise about its arrangements as to gender.

- I am not satisfied that one of the exceptions contained in the Act applies to the conduct and there is no current exemption which applies to the exempt conduct. In the absence of an exemption, the exempt conduct would amount to prohibited discrimination.

- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equality and in particular the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of men who would wish to play in the tournament. I am satisfied that, in the circumstances discussed above, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 44, 71, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 25 September 2018.

Application No. H17/2013

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by Queenscliff Bowling Tennis & Croquet Club (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to organise, operate and advertise the specified bowling tournaments in which participation is to be limited to men only or women only (the exempt conduct). The specified bowling tournaments are as follows:

1. Men only tournaments:
 - a. Benitos Open Triples
 - b. Crayfish Triples
 - c. Couta Medley Classic
 - d. Wayth Medley
 - e. Olympic Casual Pairs
 - f. Monahan Pairs
 - g. Warren Pairs
 - h. 100 Up and Presidents Handicap
2. Women only tournaments:
 - a. Open Day
 - b. Couta 10 Medley
 - c. Hoppen Pairs
 - d. Mountford Handicap Singles
 - e. Pigdon 100 Up Singles
 - f. Hughes Pairs
 - g. Anwyl Pairs

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavits of Rhonda Dawn Stephens and David John Anwyl, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 44, 71, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- A copy of the application was sent by the Tribunal to the Victorian Equal Opportunity and Human Rights Commission (the Commission). The Commission did not seek leave to intervene in the proceeding.
- The applicant was established in 1883 to 1884. The club was one of the earliest seaside resorts in Victoria and has been open to the visiting public and members since then.
- After the men's and women's sections of the applicant unified, many women ceased playing and left the club because they did not wish to play bowls with or against men. There are a number of women who continue to refuse to play in mixed tournaments. There were men who refused to play with or against mixed teams. At least one male member left the club as a consequence. Some male members have refused to play pennant because they believe that men should be selected before women. The applicant selects its pennant teams on merit and so this means that some men no longer play or have left the club. The applicant wishes to provide opportunities for both men and women to continue to play bowls. This is to benefit the members' health and to provide social opportunities but also to ensure that the applicant's three greens continue to be used.
- Of the men only events, the Crayfish Triples, the Couta Medley Classic and the Wayth Medley are annual tournaments. The others will run through the period October to March weekly or fortnightly. Each of the women only events are annual tournaments held on one or two days. Many of the specified tournaments have been running for more than 20 years. The oldest appears to be the women only Open Day which started in 1956 and is the main fundraising event each year for the applicant.
- The applicant holds mixed tournament days and has plans for more. The Anniversary Triples is a mixed event at which up to 52 teams of three players have participated. Presently, when there are no organised tournaments, members may play socially and it is often the case that teams are formed and members play for the afternoon. The applicant has recently appointed a development officer to promote the club and attract new members. The applicant runs corporate bowls and barefoot bowls and hopes to have participants join as members.
- The only complaints the applicant has received relating to gender have concerned members not wishing to play in mixed tournaments.
- No exception or current exemption already applies to the exempt conduct and in the absence of an exemption the exempt conduct would amount to prohibited discrimination.

- The Tribunal has power to grant an exemption for a maximum of five years. As noted above, a number of ongoing weekly or fortnightly men only tournaments are to be held. In these circumstances, it is appropriate that an exemption be granted for a shorter period of time so that, if the applicant wishes the exemption to be renewed, the matter can come back to the Tribunal in a shorter time so evidence can be produced about how the exemption has been used and whether it is still necessary. The exemption will be granted for a period of three years.
- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equality and in particular the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of men or women who would wish to play in an event limited to the other gender. In the circumstances discussed above, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 44, 71, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 25 September 2016.
